Instructions and Sample: The Bibliography

Use the notes-bibliography citation style as explained in chapters sixteen and seventeen of Turabian. Papers that use the notes-bibliography style include both footnotes and a bibliography listing all sources cited in the notes, with some exceptions (the Bible, for example, does not need to be listed in your bibliography). In addition, you may include some sources which were important for your research, even if they were not explicitly cited in a footnote. Be sure to look at the Center for Theological Writing’s most recent Citation and Formatting Guide. If you have questions about this element of your thesis, please email ctw@wts.edu.

Please see the next page for a sample of this element.
