Letter from the President

I am delighted to introduce you to Westminster Theological Seminary! I trust that the following pages will provide the information you need to consider thoughtfully and prayerfully if God would have you study here.

Westminster is a thriving community seeking to understand the meaning of Scripture and apply it to all areas of life. We are guided in this work by three primary beliefs:

- First, we believe that Reformed theology, as defined by the Westminster Standards, most accurately represents the teachings of Scripture. We are therefore boldly committed to confessional, Reformed Christianity.

- Second, we believe that proper interpretation of Scripture requires careful scholarship. We are therefore deeply committed to academic excellence and a hermeneutic shaped by the reformation principle of Sola Scriptura that flows from a conviction that the Bible is the infallible and inerrant Word of God.

- Third, we believe that genuine and effective gospel service requires a heart of love and devotion to Christ. We are therefore passionately committed to spiritual formation.

These core beliefs lie at the heart of each degree program offered by Westminster as we seek to train men for ordained ministry and men and women for gospel service. These programs emphasize the global reach of biblical truth. Our graduates serve all over the world as pastors, professors, missionaries, counselors, translators, church planters, and in many other capacities. As a community we are grateful for the privilege of being used by God in the training of these men and women who have been extending the knowledge of the glory of God in Christ until that knowledge covers the earth as the waters cover the sea (Habakkuk 2:14) for nearly nine decades.

I invite you to join our community of students and scholars from around the globe and our thousands of alumni who are serving the church around the globe. We would be honored to help prepare you for a life of Christian service to the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ, the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords. Soli Deo Gloria!

Peter A. Lillback
President
2. About Westminster

Mission and Vision
Westminster Theological Seminary exists to train specialists in the Bible to proclaim the whole counsel of God for Christ and his global church. Committed to extending the knowledge of the glory of God in Christ until that knowledge covers the earth as the waters cover the sea (see Habakkuk 2:14), and with a vision to serve with excellence in global Reformed theological education, we offer graduate-level theological education at our Philadelphia campus and through a program of study in London.

Specifically, Westminster pursues this mission and vision in three ways. First, we seek to form men for ordained ministry and men and women for Gospel service. Second, we seek to teach the whole counsel of God in order to shepherd Christ’s church. Third, we seek to engage a changing world with God’s unchanging Word through Reformed scholarship.

Core Values
In the pursuit of our mission and vision we hold to the following core values:

- The triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is worthy of the worship of all people in all places of his dominion, and this fact must be the fundamental motive for every human activity.

- Scripture, as the “very Word of God written,” is absolutely authoritative and without error. The Bible-centered curriculum is developed on the basis of our motto, “the whole counsel of God.”

- Reformed orthodoxy, as informed by the system of doctrine contained in the Westminster Standards, and secondarily in other Reformed confessions, represents faithfully and accurately what Scripture teaches.

- Biblical exegesis and Biblical theology (in the tradition of Geerhardus Vos) in harmony with systematic theology and presuppositional apologetics (in the tradition of Cornelius Van Til) are among the crucial methods to be used in interpreting and applying the teaching of Scripture and in developing a biblical worldview.

- A learned ministry set in the lifestyle of humble and “holy affection” for Jesus Christ is essential in today’s church and world and must be modeled by the board, administration, faculty, and students.

- A fundamental mandate of the church, discipling the nations for the glory of Christ, requires culturally sensitive, theologically competent ministers who have both the ability and the passion to apply “the eternal word” of Scripture to “the changing world” in which God has placed us.

- Because there is “one body and one Spirit,” all who would “build up the whole body of Christ” must “make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.”

Westminster is committed to Scripture and to the systematic exposition of biblical truth known as the Reformed faith. In addition to the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms, the Seminary treasures the rich and harmonious diversity of creeds and confessions within the historic Reformed tradition. In particular, it recognizes that the system of doctrine contained in Scripture is also confessed in the Three Forms of Unity (the Belgic Confession, the Heidelberg Catechism, and the Canons of Dort). Westminster desires to be used in the training of ministers of the gospel and others for service in churches committed to the Three Forms of Unity as subordinate standards.
Distinctive Curriculum
Based on our core values, the curriculum of the Seminary includes Westminster’s distinctives:

- Study of Scripture in the original languages
- Exegetical theology and covenantal hermeneutics
- Systematic theology grounded in Biblical theology
- Presuppositional apologetics
- Reformed confessionalism
- Christ-centered preaching
- Biblical counseling
- Spiritual formation for ministry in the church
- Contextual missiology
- Presbyterian polity

History and Government
Theological education in the United States was originally available only to students who were tutored and mentored by able ministers. In the eighteenth century, a number of pastors were widely known for their willingness to take students under their oversight and guide their reading. A single minister often mentored many students at a time.

When formal theological seminaries were organized, one of the first was the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church at Princeton, New Jersey, where instruction began in 1812. Founded by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the seminary held to the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms as its doctrinal standards.

Princeton excelled under the leadership of distinguished teachers who devoted themselves vigorously and effectively to the development, propagation, and maintenance of the Reformed faith. Among those best known as teachers of the great scriptural system of theology set forth by Princeton’s first professor Archibald Alexander were Charles Hodge, J. A. Alexander, B. B. Warfield, Geerhardus Vos, and J. Gresham Machen. But eventually a movement surfaced to end Princeton’s adherence to scriptural theology, and in 1929 Princeton Theological Seminary was reorganized under modernist influences.

Among the Princeton faculty who loved the Reformed faith were Robert Dick Wilson, J. Gresham Machen, Oswald T. Allis, and Cornelius Van Til. Almost immediately after Princeton’s reorganization, these four men founded Westminster Theological Seminary, and, with others who were invited to join the teaching staff, continued the exposition and defense of the Reformed faith. Over the years, Westminster has prospered as we have maintained the infallible Scripture as our foundation.

The Seminary is governed by a self-perpetuating board consisting of at least fifteen, but not more than thirty, trustees, of whom at least one-half but not more than three-fifths must be ministers of the gospel. Each member of the board is required by the charter to subscribe to a pledge of a character similar to that required of the Faculty, and is required to be a ruling or teaching elder in a church that shares the Seminary’s commitments and Presbyterian and Reformed heritage. The President of the Seminary is the chief executive officer, directly responsible to the board. Academic policies are established by the President and Provost, with advice from the Faculty, subject to review by the board.

Current members of the Board of Trustees are listed on our website.

Accreditation

Westminster is a school of theology at the graduate level. Under a charter from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania granted in 1930 and as subsequently amended, the Seminary has the power to grant the degrees of Master of Arts (Counseling), Master of Arts (Religion), Master of Divinity, Master of Theology, Doctor of Ministry, and Doctor of Philosophy. Degrees are granted upon recommendation of the Faculty and by the authority of the Board of Trustees.

The Seminary is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education, and has held this accreditation since 1954, the year in which the Middle States Commission first began accrediting theological seminaries. The Middle States Commission on Higher Education can be contacted at 3624 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, telephone: (267) 284-5000, fax: (215) 662-5501, website: www.msche.org.

The Seminary is also accredited by the Commission on Accrediting of the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada, which is the national accrediting agency for theological schools in the United States and Canada. The following degree programs of the Seminary are approved: M.A.C., M.A.R., M.Div., D.Min., Th.M., Ph.D. The following extension site is approved as specified: London, United Kingdom. The following degree program is approved at the London extension site: Th.M. The Commission on Accrediting of the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada can be contacted at 10 Summit Park Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15275, telephone: (412) 788-6505, fax: (412)788-6510, website: www.ats.edu.

Westminster admits students of any race, color, national, and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally made available to students at the Seminary. The Seminary does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, or national and ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, or scholarship and loan programs. The Seminary believes that Scripture restricts the ordained ruling and teaching offices of the church to men. Therefore, the M.Div. Pastoral Ministry emphasis and the D.Min. Pastoral Ministry and Homiletics concentrations are structured specifically to prepare men called to the ordained ministry. Westminster also believes that the Lord has given a variety of gifts to women and men not called to the ordained offices of the church, and is committed to training those students for positions of service in the church which do not require ordination. Those students in the non-pastoral track degree programs are considered eligible for financial aid and for other services provided by the Seminary for its students.

- Montgomery Library
- Center for Theological Writing
- Craig Center for the Study of the Westminster Standards
- J. Alan Groves Center for Advanced Biblical Research
- SaRang Korean Mission Center
- Westminster Theological Journal

Location and Facilities
The Seminary is located on a suburban campus of 15 acres at the intersection of Church Road (Route 73) and Willow Grove Avenue in Glenside (Cheltenham Township, Montgomery County), approximately three miles from the Fort Washington exit of the Pennsylvania Turnpike, and within a half hour of Center City Philadelphia. Visitors are welcome at any time of the year. Prospective students should contact Admissions to arrange an appointment. For directions, click here.

There are five buildings on the main suburban campus:

Van Til Hall was dedicated in 1975 in honor of Cornelius Van Til, former professor of apologetics. It contains air-conditioned classrooms equipped with both audio and video instructional aids, one smart classroom, a student mail room, a large lobby for receptions or exhibits, and the 350-seat Rust Auditorium, named in honor of Adolf H. Rust, a longtime friend and supporter of the Seminary.

The Montgomery Library, dedicated in memory of James H. Montgomery of Rochester, New York, and of his sister, Marguerite Montgomery, is a three-story stone building, air-conditioned, containing quiet areas for research. With the addition of the Andreas Academic Center, seating is available for 215 users. The Montgomery Library also houses the Center for Theological Writing.

The Andreas Academic Center is a four-story addition to the library, named for honorary trustee Lowell W. Andreas. Here the faculty offices are arranged by departmental floor. This building also houses a 16-user student computer lab, the J. Alan Groves Center for Advanced Biblical Research, the SaRang Korean Mission Center, the Craig Center for the Study of the Westminster Standards, the Edward J. Young Seminar Room, and the Center for Theological Writing.

The J. Gresham Machen Memorial Hall houses the administrative offices. It also provides dormitory and kitchen facilities for 14 unmarried students, or those at seminary without their spouses.

The Carriage House provides a place for conversation and respite for the Westminster community. The upstairs, known as the Loft, is dedicated to quiet conversations and small groups. Downstairs, students can play a game of ping pong, enjoy a cup of coffee, eat, or converse.

London Campus
Westminster offers a Th.M.-level degree program in association with the John Owen Centre for theological study at London Seminary.

The John Owen Centre was established by the Board of London Seminary in 1999 to provide theological refreshment for pastors already serving churches. The purpose of this program is to increase the student’s knowledge of the Reformed and Puritan periods and theology, particularly through training and practice in the use of the methods and tools of theological research, and thus to further the student’s preparation for pastoral or teaching ministry, or for more advanced graduate study. It is aimed especially at theology graduates, ministers, and missionaries. The facilities consist of a number of single study bedrooms, a launderette, a kitchen facility for making light refreshments, a dining room, lounge, recreation room, chapel, lecture rooms, and library rooms.

There are three library collections on site, including Dr. Martyn Lloyd-Jones’s personal library. They are well stocked with books covering Reformation, Puritan, and Nonconformist subjects. The vast resources of the Evangelical Library and Dr. Williams’s library are nearby. The library offers personal computers for word processing and Wireless Internet access, and the bedrooms have Internet access points. Software programs for biblical and theological studies are available.

Residential accommodations, if required, are available (single study bedrooms) during the teaching weeks. Residence at the Centre at other times is also possible, subject to availability.

For further information, write directly to the London program at: The Administrator, John Owen Centre for theological study, 104 Hendon Lane, London N3 3SQ, UK. Telephone: 020-8346 7587. Email: johnowen@londonseminary.org.

3. Campus Life and Student Development

Student Development
The primary responsibility of the Dean of Students and Associate Deans of Students is to provide pastoral care, counsel, and encouragement for students. They are available for consultation throughout the academic year and are eager to provide, in cooperation with local churches, mentoring support for students during the entire period of their theological education.

Ministry Preparation Commitment
As part of the first course in practical theology, all Master of Divinity students are required to complete a Ministry Preparation Commitment in which they commit themselves to involvement in a local church, the completion of mentored ministry assignments, and the pursuit of personal growth in grace. This commitment unites the Seminary and the local church in providing opportunities, support, and encouragement for students as they prepare for ministry.

Campus Corporate Worship
Campus life provides regular times of corporate worship. Faculty members and visiting speakers speak at chapel times. One day a week, prayer groups led by faculty members meet. Times of worship vary in their form but not in their goal, to remind us of our chief end of glorifying God and enjoying him forever.

Conferences
Each year the Seminary sponsors a preaching conference and a missions conference. On these occasions notable international speakers are invited to the campus, along with many visitors. These conferences provide significant times of spiritual growth and development of global vision as students prepare for Christian service.

Conduct
Student conduct is under the supervision of the Dean of Students. The institution reserves the right to dismiss from the institution a student whose conduct is found to be unsatisfactory.

There are two primary contexts under which student conduct is considered. The first is academic violations, which are addressed in the Honor Code, and the second is character and spiritual violations, which are addressed in the WTS Procedure for Dismissal of Student for Habitually Unbecoming Behavior. Other policies related to student conduct include IT User Policy; Discrimination, Harassment and Retaliation Policy; Policy and Procedures regarding Sexual Harassment, Assault, and Rape; Weapon Policy; and Drug and Alcohol Policy.

Unlawful possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol by students on school property, or as part of any activity of Westminster, is forbidden and will result in dismissal. Smoking is not permitted in any Seminary building. The use of alcoholic beverages on campus is not permitted. Firearms are prohibited on campus. For other specific questions regarding conduct, the Seminary refers to the Westminster Standards, as based on Scripture, as a standard for behavior.

For a full description of all policies regarding student conduct, please refer to the Student Handbook.
Counseling
Counseling is provided by deans, faculty members, and, when deemed necessary, by professional practitioners. For further details, students should contact the Dean or Associate Deans of Students.

Grievance Policy
In providing the procedure for students to lodge a complaint regarding issues at Westminster, the Seminary’s desire is for students to know they have a voice on the peer level as well as the institutional level. As a Seminary, Westminster’s ultimate procedural purpose is to honor Christ in how Christians deal with their differences and disappointments. The general guidelines will follow the biblical mandates given in Matthew 18 as to how to process concerns personally and corporately.

Complaints are lodged in two primary contexts in the Seminary. One is the area of academic and/or administrative concerns. In this context, policies and procedures that deal with academic concerns and financial issues will be addressed.

The second context has to do with anything that involves the community as a whole. This context would include attitudes and actions that affect individuals or groups within the campus community. Code of conduct issues are used in responding to grievances expressed within the second context.

For information regarding the process of filing a grievance or to file a grievance, please contact the Student Development Office. For a full description of the grievance policy, please refer to the Student Handbook.

Health Insurance
All full-time students are required to have health care coverage. International students on a J-1 or F-1 visa, in addition to the health care coverage required of full-time students, are also required to have Medical Evacuation and Repatriation of Remains (MERR) coverage.

Housing
Westminster has twenty rooms on the main campus, housing fifteen men and five women students. These rooms are only open to full-time, first-year students. During the summer months vacant rooms may be made available to new and returning students enrolled in summer modular courses. All rooms are furnished, but residents must supply bed linens, blankets, pillows, and towels.

Dorm residents may prepare meals in the dormitory’s kitchen. Meals may not be prepared or eaten in dormitory rooms. Students who vacate their rooms at the end of the fall semester because they are not enrolling for winter term may return in the spring semester to the room occupied during the fall semester. Students beginning course work in the winter term or spring semester should be prepared to locate a room off-campus.

In addition, the seminary leases four, one-bedroom apartments to married couples. These apartments are open to full-time, first year students and their spouses.

New students interested in applying to reside in the dorm or lease one of the apartments should contact the Student Development Office.

Please see the Housing webpage for information about off-campus housing.
Housing for International Students on J-1 or F-1 Visa Status
International students on J-1 and F-1 visas may not arrive earlier than one month prior to the beginning of classes, but they are advised to arrive as early as they are legally permitted to do so to allow sufficient time to settle into a new culture, secure housing, obtain a driver’s license, and open a bank account. For dorm housing, early arrival must be arranged with the Student Development Office.

Housing for D.Min. Students
Students in the D.Min. program who plan to come to Westminster for modular courses during the summer have the option to stay on campus for a minimal fee. Availability is limited. Please contact Academic Affairs for more information.

Housing for International Students on J-1 or F-1 Visa Status
International students on J-1 and F-1 visas may not arrive earlier than one month prior to the beginning of classes, but they are advised to arrive as early as they are legally permitted to do so to allow sufficient time to settle into a new culture, secure housing, obtain a driver’s license, and open a bank account. For dorm housing, early arrival must be arranged with the Student Development Office.

Fellowship Groups
Fellowship groups meet regularly during the academic year. More information can be found on the Seminary’s web pages for Fellowship Groups.

Westminster Bookstore
The Seminary maintains an online bookstore, wtsbooks.com, for the convenience of faculty and students where books may be purchased at significant discounts. In addition to textbooks for courses, the bookstore carries a complete line of books relating to theology, church history, apologetics, biblical studies, commentaries, and the Christian life. Purchases from the Westminster Bookstore support the work of the Seminary.
4. Faculty

Westminster is committed to Scripture and to the systematic exposition of biblical truth known as the Reformed faith. Our constitution prescribes the following pledge for every voting member of the faculty:

I do solemnly declare, in the presence of God, and of the Trustees and Faculty of this Seminary, that (1) I believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice; and (2) I do solemnly and ex animo adopt, receive, and subscribe to the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms in the form in which they were adopted by this Seminary in the year of our Lord 1936, as the confession of my faith, or as a summary and just exhibition of that system of doctrine and religious belief, which is contained in Holy Scripture, and therein revealed by God to man for his salvation; and I do solemnly, ex animo, profess to receive the fundamental principles of the Presbyterian form of church government, as agreeable to the inspired oracles. And I do solemnly promise and engage not to inculcate, teach, or insinuate anything which shall appear to me to contradict or contravene, either directly or impliedly, any element in that system of doctrine, nor to oppose any of the fundamental principles of that form of church government, while I continue a member of the Faculty in this Seminary. I do further solemnly declare that, being convinced of my sin and misery and of my inability to rescue myself from my lost condition, not only have I assented to the truth of the promises of the Gospel, but also I have received and rest upon Christ and His righteousness for pardon of my sin and for my acceptance as righteous in the sight of God and I do further promise that if at any time I find myself out of accord with any of the fundamentals of this system of doctrine, I will on my own initiative, make known to the Faculty of this institution and, where applicable, my judicatory, the change which has taken place in my views since the assumption of the vow.

5. Admissions

Admission Credentials
In order to be considered for admission as a regular student in the Seminary (for all locations and programs), the applicant ordinarily must submit the following to the Office of Admissions:

- A completed online application form (available online here) along with the non-refundable application fee. A late fee is added for applications received after the program application deadlines indicated.

- Specified personal essays. Essays vary depending upon desired degree program.

- A spousal statement, if applicable.

- A church reference from a non-familial minister or session of the church of which the applicant is a member, or from another source approved by the Director of Admissions.

- An academic reference from a non-familial college professor under whose guidance the applicant has pursued studies, or from another source approved by the Director of Admissions. An employer may complete the Academic Reference form if the applicant has been out of school for more than 4 years.

- An Academic History form, as supplied by the Seminary, listing the educational institutions from which the applicant has graduated, or anticipates to graduate prior to attending the Seminary.

- Unofficial transcripts may be submitted for the application review process. An official transcript must be submitted before final admission can be granted. (An official transcript is one that is sent directly from the institution to the Admissions Office in a sealed envelope or in a verified electronic format. If it is opened before it reaches the Office of Admissions, it then becomes unofficial.) An applicant previously registered at Westminster may use the official transcripts provided in his or her previous application, as long as the applicant graduated within the last five years. International applicants must submit official transcripts verified and credentialled through the World Education Service (WES), at web address www.wes.org.
  - An applicant’s transcript must show the attainment of a baccalaureate degree. An applicant may be admitted while in the process of completing a baccalaureate degree, contingent upon the successful completion of the degree. The applicant will be fully admitted after submitting a final, official transcript stating the date the degree was conferred and documenting no drop in GPA.
  - The grades attained shall give promise that the applicant can pursue courses in the Seminary satisfactorily. The transcript should show the broad and comprehensive education essential to theological studies.

- All applicants whose native language is not English, or for whom Standard English was not the language of instruction from the primary grades (kindergarten through fifth grade), regardless of U.S. citizenship or residency, must take the TOEFL. See the “Non-Native English Speakers (TOEFL)” section below for more detailed information.

- International students who wish to obtain an I-20 or DS-2019 visa eligibility form or an I-20 transfer form from Westminster must indicate sufficient personal financial resources for themselves and their dependents.
Admission Credential Exceptions
Westminster allows an exception for a limited number of individuals over the age of 30, who have completed five years of ministry experience and 60 undergraduate level academic credits but who do not hold a baccalaureate degree, to seek admission into the M.Div. program. A limited number of individuals over the age of 30, who have completed five years of ministry experience and 30 undergraduate level academic credits but who do not hold a baccalaureate degree, may seek admission into the M.A.C. program. For more information about these exceptions, please contact the Admissions Office.

At the discretion of the Admissions Review Committee, an applicant may be admitted to a degree program for one year, on provisional status. After one year, if the student wishes to continue studies at Westminster, the Committee will review the student’s transcripts, and if required, updated references, and will make a determination regarding full admittance to the degree program.

Additional Th.M. Program Admission Credentials
In addition to the regular Admission Credentials mentioned above, a ThM program applicant (Regular ThM, Modular ThM, and London ThM Program) must present the following to the Office of Admissions:

- An unofficial transcript of the applicant’s theological program, including an attestation of the attainment of the M.Div. degree or first graduate theological degree providing equivalent theological background, or its educational equivalent. The educational equivalent must include at least the standard requirements for Westminster’s M.A.R. degree in the same field (Biblical Studies or Theological Studies) that is to be pursued in the student’s concentration in the Th.M. program (Old Testament, New Testament or Church History, Systematic Theology, Apologetics). Additionally, applicants must show evidence of knowledge of the original languages of Scripture at least equivalent to the original language requirements for Westminster’s M.A.R. degree. A full official transcript(s) of the applicant’s theological graduate level work is required for full admission.

- Course descriptions of the Greek and Hebrew language courses completed in the M.Div. or first graduate theological degree.

- An academic reference from a non-familial former teacher in the area chosen by the applicant for the Th.M. concentration (Old Testament, New Testament, Church History, Systematic Theology, or Apologetics), under whose guidance the applicant has pursued studies, or from another source approved by the Director of Admissions. An employer may complete the Academic Reference form if the applicant has been out of school for more than 4 years.

Additional Ph.D. Program Admission Credentials
In addition to the regular Admission Credentials mentioned above, a PhD program applicant must present the following to the Office of Admissions:

- A full unofficial transcript of all college work, including an attestation of the attainment of a baccalaureate degree, and a full transcript of the applicant’s theological program, including an attestation of the attainment of a first theological degree. A two-year degree (such as the M.A.R. or the Th.M.) is acceptable, but a three-year degree (such as the M.Div.) is preferred. Applicants with a two-year degree should be aware that the Ph.D. preliminary examinations are designed to test whether one has the equivalent of a Westminster M.Div. degree, and therefore they may need to take certain M.Div. courses at Westminster. A full, official transcript(s) of the applicant’s theological graduate level work is required for full admission. Only applicants who have maintained an overall academic average of at least B plus (or equivalent) in their college and seminary work will be considered for admission as potential candidates for the degree Doctor of Philosophy.
● The results of the Aptitude Test of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE). This examination is given several times a year at various centers throughout the world by the Educational Testing Service. Information regarding registration for the examination can be found on the Educational Testing Service's website (www.ets.org). The Educational Testing Service will transmit the examination results directly to Westminster. (Westminster’s code number is 2976; this should be noted on materials completed for the Educational Testing Service.)

● Applicants for the Ph.D. in Systematic Theology, Church History, or Apologetics should submit the following:
  ○ A paper from their Master’s program in the concentration in which they plan to study. The paper should be no longer than 10 pages.

● Applicants for the Ph.D. in Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation should submit the following:
  ○ A major exegetical research paper that they have written that shows their skill in biblical interpretation. The paper should be no longer than 10 pages.

● Two academic references from non-familial former teachers in the area chosen by the applicant for the Ph.D. concentration, under whose guidance the applicant has pursued studies, or from another source approved by the Director of Admissions. An employer may complete the Academic Reference form if the applicant has been out of school for more than 4 years. Westminster graduates need only supply one academic reference.

Additional D.Min. Program Admission Credentials
In addition to the regular Admission Credentials mentioned above, a D.Min. program applicant must present the following to the Office of Admissions:

● A brief resume of the applicant’s experience in ministry.

● Applicants for the D.Min in Preaching should submit an audio file of a sample sermon.

● A full unofficial transcript of the applicant’s theological program, including an attestation of the attainment of the M.Div. degree and evidence of knowledge of the original languages of Scripture. A full, official transcript(s) of the applicant’s theological graduate level work is required for full admission. The applicant must submit course descriptions of the Greek and Hebrew language courses completed in the M.Div. or first graduate theological degree.

D.Min. Program Admission Credential Exceptions
Applicants lacking evidence of knowledge of Greek and/or Hebrew may be admitted, but in order to graduate, these candidates must satisfy one of the following alternatives for each language in which they are deficient:

● Receive a waiver for study of the language(s) in which the candidate is deficient. This waiver would be based on genuine hardship (such as ministry in a remote area of the world) and significant promise of excellence in D.Min. work (as evidenced by a record of ministry achievement and academic excellence), and must be approved by the Director of the D.Min. Program.

● Sustain an additional qualifying exam in the necessary language(s). This exam will be devised by the coordinator of each department.
Complete at a seminary or university a number of credit hours of language study in the language(s) in which the candidate is deficient. The institution and the number of hours must be approved by Director of the D.Min. Program.

Applicants lacking an M.Div. degree may be considered, but will not exceed more than 10% of Westminster's total D.Min. enrollment. In order to be considered these candidates must submit:

- A full transcript of their theological program, including an attestation of the attainment of a Westminster M.A.R. degree or its academic equivalent and the successful completion of sufficient, additional seminary-level study to give them a total of 92 semester hours approved by the Director of the D.Min. Program. The M.A.R. degree, or its academic equivalent, and the additional semester hours must include at least the following:
  - A total of 92 semester hours of seminary-level work distributed among biblical studies (minimum of 28 hours), historical and theological studies (minimum of 18 hours), and practical studies (minimum of 12 hours).
  - Evidence of knowledge in the original languages of Scripture including course descriptions of the Greek and Hebrew language courses completed in the theological degree. Applicants who lack evidence of the knowledge of Greek and/or Hebrew should see the exception noted in bullet points above.

Under exceptional circumstances an applicant may be admitted who holds a masters degree and who has demonstrated competencies in ministry, writing, and teaching. Only those who have demonstrated this through published writing and adjunct teaching in a graduate theological institution will be considered.

Special Level Student Admission Credentials
Those not seeking to earn a degree from Westminster may register for courses as a “special level student.” Students from other seminaries or graduate schools may also take courses as special level students for transfer back to their institutions. The applicant must seek approval from the Admissions Office before applying as a Special Level 1 or 2 student.

The following items must be submitted to the Office of Admissions:

- A completed Special Level Student Online Application Form
- Application fee
- Completed Essay as specified by the Admissions Office
- A completed Church Reference Form
- Evidence of having earned a baccalaureate degree (copy of transcript or diploma)
- Students whose native language is not English must meet the same TOEFL requirements as regular students.

Special Student Level 1 status permits the student to register for master’s level courses for the equivalent of one academic year only. Special Level 2 status permits the student to register for advanced level courses for the equivalent of one academic year only. To continue studies beyond one academic year, admission to a regular degree program of the Seminary is required. Financial Aid is not available to Special Level Students, and in most cases international students cannot be granted visas as Special Level Students.
Philadelphia Application Deadlines

Any applications received after these deadlines will not be processed without a late fee. Deadlines and late fees for special student applications are the same as for applications to regular programs.

Notification of Admission

After reviewing the credentials submitted, the Seminary will notify the applicant of their decision regarding admission by email. If the applicant is admitted, the notification will contain a student identification number and the name of the applicant’s assigned advisor. Matriculation for course work is contingent upon receipt of an official transcript showing completion of any prerequisite degree. Students will subsequently be granted access to all online library resources at Westminster’s Philadelphia campus.

London Th.M. Program Notification of Admission

Upon acceptance, students will receive notification from the Director of the London Program containing specific course registration instructions. U.S. students or students entering the United Kingdom from outside of the European Union will need a “student visitor” visa. Students must contact academicaffairs@wts.edu in order to obtain a letter of visitation to comply with visa regulations.

D.Min. Program Notification of Admission

Upon admission into the D.Min. program, each student will receive an acceptance letter containing specific course enrollment instructions.

Ph.D. Program Notification of Admission
The Director of Admissions will notify the applicant of the admission decision by email on or before March 15.

Advance Deposit
In order to confirm their intention to enroll in the Seminary, applicants who have been notified of their admission are required to submit an advance deposit prior to their matriculation. (See Chapter 11 for amount and due dates). If an applicant is admitted after the due date, the deposit is due immediately upon receipt of the admission letter. This deposit is applied to tuition when the student registers for classes. It is not refundable if the student does not enroll.

Deferment
An admitted student may defer matriculation for up to one year by notifying the Office of Admissions in writing. At the discretion of the Admissions Review Committee, a deferral may be denied.

Special Needs
If an applicant has any disability requiring special attention, he or she must submit documentation of his or her disability, along with details on specific needs to be accommodated, to the Dean of Students 60 days (two months) prior to matriculation. Westminster’s Policy for Addressing the Academic Needs of Students with Disabilities can be found online here or obtained from the Student Development Office.

International Students
Students of high academic standing from other countries are encouraged to apply to the Seminary. Applicants should note that, while some limited financial assistance for tuition may be awarded by the Seminary, complete financial support is not granted to any student. International students must seek additional means of support elsewhere.

Applicants from other countries should follow the application procedure outlined in the Admission Credentials section above. Applicants should note that because of United States banking restrictions, checks must be payable in U.S. dollars, drawn on a U.S. bank, with the bank’s computer code located in the lower left-hand corner of the check. Checks not meeting these requirements will be returned, which may delay admission.

In order for the applicant to receive from the International Student Coordinator the Certificate of Eligibility (Form DS-2019 for J visas or Form I-20 for F visas) necessary to obtain the visa for non-immigrant students, the applicant must have final approval of admission as a full-time student and financial documentation showing sufficient resources for his or her length of study in the United States. Sponsors documented on affidavit of support forms must be legitimate and committed to giving the amount indicated. If they fail to support the student, his or her tuition scholarship (if applicable) will be revoked, which may result in withdrawal from Westminster.

All students on either a J visa or an F visa are required to study full time, according to the Seminary and the United States government policies. For full details, contact the International Student Coordinator. The maximum number of semesters allowed to complete each degree program on a full-time basis (except as noted) is as follows: M.A.C, 4 semesters; M.A.R., 6 semesters; M.Div., 8 semesters; Th.M., 4 semesters; Ph.D., 12 semesters. D.Min. students are considered less than half-time from the start of the D.Min. degree. International students should always allow three years to complete a M.A.R. and four years to complete a M.Div., due to Greek and Hebrew requirements. A maximum of 3 semester credit hours may be taken through distance education in the fall and spring semesters.

Students coming to the United States for the first time are encouraged to arrange, while still in their home countries, health insurance coverage that will adequately cover them and any family members who will be accompanying them until they can determine what coverage they need and be enrolled in a plan in the United States (see Chapter 3 for health insurance requirements).

Non-Native English Speakers (TOEFL)

An applicant whose native language is other than English, or for whom English was not the language of instruction from the primary grades (regardless of U.S. citizenship or residency) must demonstrate proficiency in English. The minimum score for applicants on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) is indicated on the chart below. An official record of the test must be sent to the Seminary by the Educational Testing Center. Photocopies of test results will not be accepted. Only TOEFL test scores are accepted.

Students who are admitted to the Seminary but score less than 111 on the TOEFL iBT must take a test of academic writing prior to the first day of classes. Based on the results of this test, they must be registered for an Advanced Theological Writing (ATW) course in their initial semester/term. If the applicant’s native language is not English, but he or she has been educated in Standard English beginning in the primary grades through undergraduate school, he or she will be exempt from taking the TOEFL exam but will be required to register for ATW.

Applicants who do not meet the TOEFL score requirement for admission to Westminster but are otherwise qualified applicants and have a TOEFL iBT score of at least 68 may fulfill the English language Admissions requirement by passing Mastering Theological English (see Chapter 7). The Mastering Theological English program is not available for Ph.D. applicants.

To register for the TOEFL test, applicants should contact: TOEFL Services, P.O. Box 6151, Princeton, NJ 08541-6151, USA (609-882-6601, www.toefl.org). Westminster’s code number, 2976, should be noted on materials sent to TOEFL Services.

New Student Orientation

New Student Orientation is an essential and required first step to becoming integrated into the Westminster community. Orientation includes an online portion (Part 1), to be completed prior to arriving on campus, and an introductory on-campus event (Part 2). Both are mandatory.

Orientation introduces students to life at Westminster, casting a vision for how students can make the most of a seminary education, as well as provide essential policy and procedural information, allowing students to take care of administrative details and begin connecting with fellow classmates. If a student is not able to attend Orientation because of extenuating circumstances, special permission must be obtained from the Director of Admissions prior to Orientation.
6. Academic Policies and Information

Attendance
Students must be appropriately registered to attend classes. Each student is expected to attend every class session for which he or she is registered. Absences caused by illness or other justifiable causes will be permitted to a limited extent. If, in the judgment of the instructor, these permitted absences or other (unauthorized) absences endanger the standing of the student in the course, the instructor shall counsel the student concerning the situation. Further absences will normally result in a failing grade in the course.

Auditing
A limited number of auditors are permitted in most courses. Auditing privileges include regular class attendance, copies of all printed material distributed to the class, the opportunity to ask occasional questions in class, and full library privileges. Normally, auditors will not be permitted to participate in classroom exercises or recitations or to make seminar presentations, nor will assignments or examinations be reviewed or graded by the instructor.

Auditing Restrictions
Course availability for audit is subject to the approval of the instructor. A non-Th.M./Ph.D. student must obtain the instructor's approval in order to audit a Th.M./Ph.D. course. An M.A.C. student must obtain the instructor's approval in order to audit a non-M.A.C. course. Auditing of English Bible Survey, Advanced Theological Writing, Mentored Ministry Integration Seminar, D.Min. modules, Independent Study courses, hybrid courses and Distance Education courses is not permitted. For additional courses not available for audit, see Chapter 10. Permission to audit a biblical language course required for any degree (Greek, Hebrew, Aramaic) is given by the Registrar's Office only to current students who have previously taken the course or its equivalent and who, due to extenuating circumstances, have received approval from the professor. No more than 20 credits per semester (Fall or Spring) and no more than 5 credits per term (Summer or Winter) may be audited.

Church Leader Audit
The Church Leader Audit provides an opportunity for people in positions of church leadership to audit courses. Westminster offers one free course audit per semester/term for those in official ministry positions in the church who are approved for Church Leader Audit status. This status is available for four people per church per semester. Eligible courses are from the M.A.C., M.A.R. and M.Div. degree programs of study only. Restrictions mentioned above apply. An application form from the auditor and a Letter of Recommendation from the sending church is required. Please submit application materials as early as possible so that classes may be planned for space availability; some courses may be closed due to high enrollment. Contact the Admissions Office for further information and application forms.

Auditor Registration and Payment
Anyone seeking to audit is required to secure the permission of the Registrar, complete the necessary registration, and pay a non-refundable fee for each course audited.

Changes to Program/Emphasis/Concentration
A student enrolled in a Master’s program (M.Div., M.A.R., M.A.C., or Certificate) who is interested in changing to another Master’s program is required to contact the Dean of Students and his/her advisor before submitting a Change of Program form to the Registrar’s Office. The student’s overall academic standing may be a factor in approval of the requested change. A student in the M.A.C. program must have a minimum grade-point average (GPA) of 3.00 to be approved to change to the M.A.R. or M.Div. program. A student enrolled in an Advanced Degree program (ThM., Ph.D., or D.Min.) interested in transferring to another Advanced Degree program must submit an Advanced Degree Transfer of Program form to the Registrar’s Office after consulting his/her advisor. The student must have completed at least two courses to be considered for approval and may be required to submit additional documentation to the Admissions Office.

A student who wishes to change emphasis within an M.Div. or M.A.R. program must submit to the Registrar’s Office a Change of Emphasis form. A student who wishes to change concentrations within the ThM., Ph.D., or D.Min. program must contact the Registrar’s Office.

Program and emphasis changes become effective at the beginning of the semester following approval. There is a processing fee for each change in program or emphasis.

Course Changes

Adding or Dropping Courses
Once a student has registered for a semester or term, he or she is granted the privilege of dropping and/or adding courses within a defined Add/Drop “grace” period, beginning after the student has registered until the deadline specified below.

A dropped course does not appear on a student’s transcript. If a student drops all of his or her courses for any semester, that student is automatically withdrawn from the Seminary.

Since dropping and/or adding courses might affect financial aid eligibility, students receiving financial aid are required to notify the Financial Aid Office of their intention to drop and/or add a course(s).

Add/Drop deadlines:

<table>

</tr>
</tbody>

*If student is adding a course the student must attend the first day of the course.

If the length of a course is other than that specified above, an appropriate comparable time for dropping the course will be set.

Deadlines for the fall and spring semesters are listed in the catalog’s Academic Calendar. After the Add/Drop period, a student is not permitted to register for any course.

Procedure: For the fall and spring semesters, students permitted to register online should add/drop course(s) online and students not permitted to register online should submit to the Registrar’s Office a completed Add/Drop Form. For winter and summer courses, all students should submit to the Registrar’s Office a completed Add/Drop form.

Fees: Students are charged a Add/Drop fee per course change ().
Course Prerequisite Waiver

Certain courses have prerequisites that are required to be completed in order for a student to register for those courses. Other courses require that the prerequisites be taken concurrently. All prerequisites are listed in the Course Description section of the catalog under the individual course description. With compelling reason, students may submit a Prerequisite Waiver Request Form to the Registrar’s Office. All requests must be approved by the instructor who teaches the course and may also require approval from the department coordinator. Waiver approvals should be acquired prior to a student’s registration.

Withdrawing from a Course

After the Add/Drop period, a student may withdraw from a course(s) only with the written acknowledgement of the instructor and Registrar. For that course, the student will be assigned a ‘W’ (Withdrawn from course) grade on his or her transcript record. The student must submit a completed Course Drop/Add/Withdrawal Request form to the Registrar’s Office. The effective date for withdrawing from a course is the date on which approval is granted by the Registrar. Withdrawal under any other circumstances will result in a failing grade for the course. A student who withdraws from all of his or her courses for the fall or spring semester is automatically withdrawn from the Seminary. Exceptions will apply if approved by the Registrar’s Office. A student may apply for reinstatement if he or she desires to resume studies at a later time.

Deadline to withdraw from course(s):

<td>Post-modular assignment submission deadline 3rd day of module</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>All other programs:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>

If the length of a course is other than that specified above, an appropriate comparable deadline will be set to withdraw from the course. Course Withdrawal deadline dates for the fall and spring semesters and winter term are listed in the catalog’s Academic Calendar.

A student who withdraws from a course after the last eligible day to withdraw will be assigned a failing grade for the course.

See Chapter 11 for tuition refund schedule and information.

Credit Hour Assignment

Westminster’s academic year is defined as a minimum of two semesters (fall and spring), both 15 weeks in duration, including an exam period. For related information, see Chapter 13.

All Westminster courses must provide a minimum of 14 hours of instruction per credit hour, which may include a final exam. If an on-campus course is scheduled for less than 14 hours of on-campus instruction per credit, alternative instructional hours approved by the faculty must be added to total 14 hours of instruction. Hybrid courses include a combination of on-campus instructional hours and faculty-approved alternative instructional hours and may include a final exam. Distance education courses include a combination of synchronous instruction and/or asynchronous faculty-approved alternative instructional hours and may include a final exam. Instructional hours for all courses do not include student assignments, which require a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work per credit hour, for 15 weeks, or for summer and winter term courses, the equivalent amount of work.

Final Examinations/Assignments

Final examinations are given during an announced period at the conclusion of the fall and spring semesters. The final exam period is listed in the Academic Calendar and the final exam schedule is listed on the Registrar’s Office webpage. Any student who needs to take a final exam at a time different from the published schedule, but within the exam period, must submit a request form ten days prior to the beginning of the exam period. Request forms are available from the Student Development Office. Initial approval by the Dean of Students is required after which the professor’s approval must be obtained. The student must take the exam at the time approved; the time limit stated for the exam must be observed.

If theses, reports on assigned readings, or other special assignments are required—either in place of or in addition to a final examination—the deadline to submit such work is set by the professor in charge, which date shall not be later than the last day of classes of the semester, for M.Div., M.A.R., and M.A.C. courses. For Th.M. and Ph.D. courses, the submission deadline is indicated in the Academic Calendar. At the discretion of the professor, a student may receive permission to submit a paper after the deadline up until the last day of exams. The professor may choose to apply a penalty of a lower grade.

For one-week to four-week modular courses, final examinations are given at the conclusion of the course. If a final paper, report, or other assignment is required—either in addition to or in place of a final exam—the deadline to submit such post-modular assignment(s) for Masters level courses is set by the professor in charge, which date shall not be later than eight weeks from the last day of the course. For Th.M. and Ph.D. courses, the deadline to submit such assignment(s) is eight weeks from the last day of the course. For the D.Min. program, please see Chapter 8 for post-modular assignment submission.

An Incomplete Request must be submitted for permission to take a final exam after the exam date or to submit a paper or other assignment after the submission deadline. See Incomplete Requests section below.

Grading

A, B, C, and D are passing grades; F is a failing grade. The general standing for the year of every regular student is ascertained by the use of a grade point system. Grade points are assigned to grades as noted on the chart below. A student’s general standing is the result of the total number of grade points earned, divided by the total number of semester hours taken.

The faculty has adopted a four-point grading system with 12 levels for all programs as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>A</th>
<th>A-</th>
<th>B+</th>
<th>B</th>
<th>B-</th>
<th>C+</th>
<th>C</th>
<th>C-</th>
<th>D+</th>

<td>2.00</td>
<td>1.67</td>
<td>1.33</td>
<td>1.00</td>
<td>0.67</td>
<td>0.00</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

In addition to meeting due dates and using correct English, the following table will serve as general criteria for grade levels for all programs. Final grades for each course are awarded at the discretion of the member of faculty responsible for that course.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>An outstanding and thoughtful piece of work which shows evidence of reading and research beyond that which was assigned. The student has shown mastery of the subject and offers new insights which are well-supported by cogent and profound arguments.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>A standard, good piece of work which fulfills the assignment and shows a good grasp of the basic principles. There is substantial evidence of ability to analyze and utilize course content.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>This work is satisfactory but is lacking in a significant area and does not show a grasp of some basic principles.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>There are serious problems with this work, though it is still passable. It represents a poor performance in comprehending the course content and only meets the minimal standard of the professor.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>
<td>This work is unacceptable and fails to meet the requirements of the assignment.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unearned F grade (UF)

A student who does not attend or submit any coursework, or stops attending or submitting coursework, may receive an unearned F (UF) grade for the course.

Administrative F grade

One month after the grade submission deadline, if a professor has not submitted a final grade, the student will automatically be assigned a grade of “n.r.” (“not yet reported”). If no grade is submitted by the end of the following semester, the “n.r.” grade will automatically convert to a failing grade. The student and professor will both be notified when the “n.r.” grade and failing grade are assigned. If the student believes there are extenuating circumstances that warrant removal of the failing grade, the student has three weeks after the end of the following semester to submit a petition to the Registrar's Office, which will seek a decision from the Faculty Academic Affairs Committee.

Permission to Raise a Failing Grade

For a course in which a failing grade has been received (including a former incomplete “I” resulting in a failing grade) a student with extenuating circumstances (unusual and unavoidable circumstances which contribute to the failing grade) might, at the professor's discretion, be granted permission to take a re-examination or complete a reassignment of sufficient quality to raise the grade to an FD. Such work must be completed within a maximum of 28 days after notification of the failing grade. If the grade is raised to an FD, the student receives credit for the course, but no grade points are counted in calculating the student’s general standing.

Repeating a Course

When a student repeats a course with a failing grade of F, the F remains factored into the grade-point average (GPA), as does the new grade. If a student repeats a course that has been passed, the second grade will be shown on the transcript, but only the first grade will be factored into the GPA.

Incomplete Requests

If extenuating circumstances (i.e., unusual and unavoidable circumstances which hinder completion of assigned work) prohibit a student from completing a course on time, an interim-“incomplete” grade may be granted.
To petition for an interim “incomplete” grade: a student must submit an Incomplete Request form to the Registrar’s Office with the professor’s written approval and recommendation. The Registrar’s Office will seek the appropriate faculty committee approval.

If approval is granted: the student will be assigned an interim grade of “I” and an extension, up to a maximum of four weeks from the last day of exams or original assignment deadline, to complete all work. The completed work must be submitted by the extension deadline to the Registrar’s Office, not the professor. At the professor’s discretion the grade will or will not be reduced. The final grade assigned by the professor will replace the “I” grade on the student’s transcript. No incompletes will be granted to students for classes taken in the spring semester of their graduating year.

Incomplete Request Deadline:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

</tbody>
</table>

The deadline to submit an incomplete request is waived only if the extenuating circumstance occurs after the deadline.

Leave of Absence

Any student who encounters unusual and unavoidable career or family circumstances that cause interruption in participation in his or her program may submit to the Registrar’s Office a petition for a leave of absence (LOA), for a period of up to three years. The petition should specify the reason(s) the student believes warrants an LOA and the length of LOA desired. Supporting documentation might be required. The deadline to receive the petition is two months before the student’s next registration period. The student will be notified by the Registrar’s Office whether or not the LOA is approved. While on a leave, the student is considered a current Westminster student. However, since during a leave the student is not working on his or her program and is exempt from fees, it is expected that the student will not be using Westminster facilities, personnel or resources.

A student who is a member of a military reserve unit and whose studies are interrupted by a call to active duty must inform the Registrar of his or her call to active duty and the duration of the call. The student shall then be granted an LOA from his or her academic program. A student who returns to his or her academic program within one year of his or her release from active duty shall be reinstated and allowed to repeat, without charge, those courses in which he or she was enrolled when called to active duty, provided he or she enrolls in those courses the first time the courses are offered after his or her return. A student who fails to return within one year of his or her release from active duty shall be automatically withdrawn.

The student should notify the Registrar of any change of address while on leave and, no later than one month before the start of the semester that follows the leave, contact the Registrar that he or she will resume the program.

Students receiving government loans who wish to take an LOA should contact the Financial Aid Office for possible restrictions.
Matriculation
Matriculation into a program occurs on the first day of classes of one’s initial semester or term after having registered. However, if a new student drops all registered courses before the Add/Drop period deadline of the initial semester or term, that student will be considered as not yet matriculated.

Probation
Academic probation is a warning that the student’s academic work does not meet the Seminary’s Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) requirements. A student in the M.Div., M.A.R., M.A.C., or Certificate program will be placed on academic probation as follows:

1. For the student who has completed his or her first semester (having completed at least two courses taken but attempted less than 24 credit hours): the student’s cumulative grade point average (GPA) that is 1.75 or lower. This student must raise his or her GPA by the semester that he or she meets or exceeds 24 hours of coursework in an official program or be administratively withdrawn from his or her program.

2. For the student who has completed or attempted 24 credit hours: the student’s cumulative GPA is between 1.76 and 1.80. This student is required to raise his or her GPA to 1.80 or above to be approved to graduate.

A student on academic probation will be required to meet with the Dean of Students before the beginning of the following semester and take a reduced course load or withdrawal will result.

A student who has completed or attempted 24 credit hours and meets the minimum cumulative GPA requirement but whose term GPA falls below 1.76 and/or whose course completion rate is less than 67% (the student completes less than 67% of the courses he or she attempts) must meet with the Dean of Students before the beginning of the following semester and might be placed on academic probation. If the student’s term GPA is less than 1.76 for two consecutive terms, the student must meet with the Dean of Students a second time and might be administratively withdrawn.

Students in the Th.M., Ph.D. or D.Min. program: At the discretion of the appropriate field committee, a Th.M., Ph.D., or D.Min. student who might otherwise be academically withdrawn might be placed on academic probation. If a Th.M. or Ph.D. student is assigned remedial work for a Greek or Hebrew competency exam, but does not fulfill that requirement, the faculty maintains the right to place that student on academic probation, pending satisfactory completion of the requirement (see Chapter 8 - Master of Theology and Doctor of Philosophy).

A student required to fulfill the ATW requirement but who has not earned a passing grade by the end of the third semester/term in an ATW course is placed on probation. That student is permitted to take ATW a fourth and final time to earn a passing grade or be administratively withdrawn.

Registration Information
Registration is contingent upon receipt of an official transcript showing completion of any prerequisite degree. Except as otherwise noted, all students are required to register each semester to be enrolled as a current student. D.Min. candidates in coursework phase are required to register during the Spring for the following summer modules. Th.M., Ph.D. and D.Min. candidates who have completed all coursework are required to register during the Spring registration period for the following academic year. Registration period dates are stated in the Academic Calendar. No student is permitted to register after the Add/Drop period.
A late registration fee will be charged in the event that a student fails to register at the time designated for that purpose. See Withdrawal section regarding automatic withdrawal for failure to register.

Reinstatement/readmission to the Seminary

If a former student desires to resume studies in the semester following a withdrawal period of up to three consecutive semesters, he or she should submit a Reinstatement Request form, along with the reinstatement fee, to the Registrar's Office. The student will be notified by the Registrar's Office if he or she is approved for reinstatement. If a former student desires to resume studies after a withdrawal period of four or more consecutive semesters, he or she must apply for readmission through the Admissions Office.

Approval for reinstatement or readmission is at the discretion of the Seminary. A readmitted or reinstated student will be subject to all program requirements, as well as all financial and academic policies current at the time of return.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) measures the qualitative and quantitative aspect of a student’s academic work as being adequate to receive the desired degree. SAP requirements are as follows:

Students in the M.Div., M.A.R., M.A.C. or Certificate programs:

1. For students who have completed their first semester (having completed at least two courses but attempted less than 24 credit hours): the student's GPA must be 1.76 or higher.

2. For students who have completed or attempted 24 credit hours: the student’s cumulative GPA must be 1.80 or higher and the student must have a minimum completion rate of 67% (i.e., the student must have completed 67% of the credits attempted). Credits attempted but not completed are credits for courses from which the student withdraws or for which the student receives a failing grade. They do not include credits for courses that the student dropped during the Add/Drop period.

3. To be eligible to graduate, students must have a cumulative GPA of 1.80 or higher.

Students in the Th.M., Ph.D. or D.Min. program:

1. Th.M. and Ph.D. students required to take one or more competency exam must pass the exam(s).

2. Th.M. students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.00 after the completion of three courses. Ph.D. students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.00 during the program of residency study. In addition, Ph.D. students in the Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation field must maintain a 3.00 GPA in the four area seminars. D.Min. students must have a cumulative GPA of 3.00 in order to graduate.

Students in all programs: All students must complete the program within the maximum program time limit or be administratively withdrawn.

Students required to take Advanced Theological Writing (ATW): The student must take the appropriate ATW course every semester until a passing grade (“PN”) is earned. This grade must be earned by the end of the third semester/term in an ATW course.
A student who does not meet the SAP requirement(s) is either placed on probation or administratively withdrawn. Students receiving financial aid should refer to Chapter 12 for additional SAP requirements.

Students’ Rights of Privacy and Access to Records

Annual Notification of Rights under FERPA

Annually, the Seminary informs students of their rights under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), as amended, in the following ways: the annual notification is published in the Seminary’s catalog and on the Registrar’s Office webpage, and an announcement is made from Registrar’s Office during the fall registration period. The annual notification is:

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These rights include:

1. The right to inspect and review the student’s education records within 45 days of the day the Seminary receives a request for access.

A student should submit to the Registrar’s Office a written request that identifies the record(s) the student wishes to inspect. The Registrar’s Office will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected.

2. The right to request the amendment of the student’s education records that the student believes are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student’s privacy rights under FERPA.

A student who wishes to ask the Seminary to amend a record should write the Registrar’s Office, clearly identify the part of the record the student wants changed, and specify why it should be changed.

If the Seminary decides not to amend the record as requested, the Seminary will notify the student in writing of the decision and the student’s right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

3. The right to provide written consent before the Seminary discloses personally identifiable information from the student’s education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent (Ref: 34 CFR §99.31).

The Seminary discloses education records without a student’s prior written consent under the FERPA exception for disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the Seminary in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position; a person or company with whom the Seminary has contracted as its agent to provide a service instead of using Seminary employees or officials (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.

A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibilities for the Seminary.

Upon request, the Seminary also discloses education records without consent to officials of another school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.
4. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the Seminary to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA is:

Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20202-5901

Directory Information
FERPA defines directory information as “[i]nformation contained in an education record of a student that would not generally be considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if disclosed.” The Seminary designates the following as directory information, which it may disclose at its discretion: student’s name, spouse’s name, address(es), telephone listing(s), Westminster-assigned student email address, personal email address(es), photograph, program and year of study, enrollment status (e.g., full-time, part-time), dates of attendance, degree(s) awarded, most recent school attended, citizenship, and home town. The Seminary may choose to include the following directory information in a student directory: Student’s name, program of study, spouse’s name, Westminster-assigned student email address, address, phone number, photograph, and home town. According to FERPA, a student’s denomination/religious affiliation is not considered directory information and therefore would be included in a student directory only if the student has provided written consent.

Students may withhold free disclosure of directory information (on an “all or nothing” basis) to non-institutional persons or organizations. To do this, the student must submit a completed Request to Withhold Directory Information form to the Registrar’s Office. A photo ID may also be required. Though a request may be submitted to the Registrar’s Office at any time, it must be received by the first week of fall semester classes in order for the student’s directory information to be withheld from a student directory. The request will be honored until revoked by the student in writing.

If a student elects to withhold directory information, none of that student’s information, including name and photograph, would appear in a student directory. The student must make all address changes with a signed authorization or in person with an appropriate form of photo ID. In addition, no information for that student will be released such that a third party (e.g., loan company, prospective employer, church official, family member, etc.), will be informed that the Seminary has no record of the student’s attendance, unless the student submits to the Registrar’s Office a written authorization to release information to the designated third party.

Release of Academic Records
In addition to the student’s rights under FERPA, a student may authorize, by submitting a written request to the Registrar’s Office, release of academic information to a designated third party in the form of an official letter. Written authorization must include the specific information for release. The Registrar’s Office may require that the student submit instead an Official Transcript Request for release to the third party.

Limits to Academic Records Access
The Seminary is not required to permit students to inspect confidential letters and recommendations received prior to January 1, 1975, financial information submitted by parents, or records containing information about another student, unless all reference to the other student is redacted. Students who apply to Westminster automatically waive their right to view recommendations unless he or she emails the Admissions Office requesting the contrary before the application is submitted. Application materials, once submitted, become the property of the Seminary. Under no circumstances will a student be permitted to copy, photograph, or have returned any part of his or her academic records, including submitted application materials, recommendations and transcripts.
Solomon Amendment
The Seminary, which receives federal funding via the Federal Direct Student Loan Program, is required under the Solomon Amendment to provide “student recruiting information” to military recruiters from the twelve eligible units within the four branches of the Military Service. “Student recruiting information” consists of: student’s name, address, telephone listing, age or year of birth, place of birth, level of education or degrees received, academic major, and the most recent previous educational institution attended. “Student recruiting information” will be withheld only for those students who have submitted a signed Request to Withhold Directory Information form that is still current (i.e., not revoked by the student).

Transfer of Credit/Shared Credit
An official determination of transfer credit will be considered after admission to a degree program.

Steps to seeking transfer of credit
Step 1. Review the transfer credit policy below.

Step 2. Review the catalog’s description of programs and courses to compare work done at the other institution with Westminster’s requirements.

Step 3. Consult with appropriate office (Admissions Office for anticipated students and Registrar’s Office for current students) regarding any questions related to Steps 1 and 2 above.

Step 4. Submit the Transfer of Credit Request form to the Registrar’s office.

Approval for transfer credits must be secured from faculty department coordinators for M.Div., M.A.R., and M.A.C. students and from the advisor for advanced degree students (Th.M., Ph.D., and D.Min.), unless otherwise noted elsewhere. Transfer credit granted will reduce accordingly the number of credit hours required at Westminster.

Transfer of credit from accredited graduate theological schools

1. Credits normally must have been earned in an accredited graduate theological school and must be reported on an official transcript.

2. The number of credit hours earned via distance education courses will reduce the maximum number of credits eligible for transfer, since both are considered “off-campus” courses.

3. Transfer Credit (from an institution from which the student has not received a Master’s degree): The minimum number of credits hours of study that a student must complete on Westminster’s campus, excluding Greek, Hebrew, English Bible Survey and Advanced Theological Writing courses, is 46 hours for the M.Div. degree and 28 hours for the M.A.R., and M.A.C. degrees. For all of the degrees cited above, the final 24 credit hours must be Westminster courses unless a petition for an exception due to extenuating circumstances is approved. The maximum number of “off-campus” credits (transfer credit and distance education credits combined) that will be eligible for approval towards a student’s degree program is 46 for the M.Div. degree, 27 for the M.A.R. degree, and 28 for the M.A.C. degree.

4. Shared Credit (transfer credit from an institution from which the student has completed a Master’s degree): Ordinarily, the Seminary may accept up to one-half of the credits earned for a first theological master’s degree toward a degree at Westminster, not to exceed one-half of the credits required for the degree at Westminster. The minimum number of credit hours of study that a student must complete on Westminster's campus, excluding Greek, Hebrew, English Bible Survey and Advanced Theological Writing courses is 46 hours for the M.Div. degree, and 28 hours for the M.A.R., and M.A.C. degree. For all of the degrees cited above, the final 24 credit hours must be Westminster courses unless a petition for an exception due to extenuating circumstances is approved. The maximum number of “off-campus” credits (shared credit and distance education credits combined) that will be eligible for approval towards a student’s degree program is 46 for M.Div. degree, 27 for M.A.R. degree, and 28 for the M.A.C. degree.

5. Only courses in which a grade of C- or above was received will be considered for transfer credit to an M.A.C., M.A.R., or M.Div. degree program. Only courses in which a grade of B or above was received will be considered for transfer credit to a Th.M., Ph.D., or D.Min. degree program.

6. Credits on a quarter system are figured as a two-thirds equivalent of Westminster's semester system.

7. Courses may be transferred as required or elective credit. It is more likely that, if approved, course credit will be applied to elective hours rather than to required courses (since the content or perspective might not be the same).

8. The emphasis chosen in the M.A.R. or M.Div. program could make a difference in the number of credits that are transferred. For example, the M.A.R. and M.Div. General emphases allow more elective hours.

9. A special restriction applies to courses at other institutions in the areas of Old Testament, New Testament, and Systematic Theology, when the courses do not use the original languages. Such courses can normally be transferred for M.A.R. or M.Div. credit only as electives. But the coordinator of the department (Old Testament, New Testament, or Systematic Theology, as the case may require) may at his discretion allow up to a maximum of three hours to be transferred toward required credit for the M.A.R. or the M.Div. (for a total of nine hours in Old Testament, New Testament, and Systematic Theology combined).

10. Courses completed at Westminster or elsewhere that are more than ten years old prior to initial matriculation or readmission will not be considered for transfer credit or be applicable to a present Westminster M.Div., M.A.R., or M.A.C. program. Course work between five and ten years old will be accepted only with the approval of the appropriate department. This limitation does not hold in the case of reinstatement. However, please refer to the Seminary’s maximum time limit policy for individual programs.

11. Study completed more than five years prior to initial matriculation in the Ph.D., Th.M., or D.Min program cannot be applied for transfer credit to the program that the student is entering. This limitation does not hold in cases of reinstatement or readmission. Credit for study completed in Westminster’s Ph.D., Th.M., or D.Min. program prior to reinstatement or readmission is subject to the approval of the appropriate field committee.

12. A maximum of 2 courses may be accepted for elective transfer credit for the D.Min. program. See Chapter 8 for further restrictions.

13. No transfer credit is granted for the Certificate program.

14. Grades are transferred only from courses taken at Jerusalem University College (JUC) or from a Westminster program in which no degree was earned.
Transfer of credit from unaccredited institutions

Students in the M.Div., M.A.R., or M.A.C. program who seek transfer credit from courses earned in an equivalent degree program at an unaccredited, graduate level theological institution must supply the following:

- A copy of the course syllabus stating the instructor’s name and the course requirements for each course for which transfer credit is requested.

- At least one sample of coursework submitted in fulfillment of course requirements for each course for which transfer credit is requested.

All decisions are made on a course-by-course basis. Acceptance of one course from an unaccredited institution for transfer credit carries no implication regarding the acceptance of other courses from that institution.

Only courses in which a grade of B or above was received will be accepted for transfer credit.

No more than 15 semester credit hours from an unaccredited institution will be accepted for transfer credit toward a student’s degree program at Westminster.

Christian Counseling & Educational Foundation (CCEF)

Upon approval by the Registrar, credit earned for coursework completed at CCEF is transferrable to the M.Div., M.A.R., or M.A.C. programs.

Only courses in which a grade of C- or above was received will be accepted for transfer credit.

New and Readmitted students matriculating in the 2011-2012 academic year or later:

No more than 15 semester credit hours will be accepted for transfer credit toward a student’s degree program at WTS (a new policy implemented in the 2011-2012 academic year). The student must take at least one Westminster course in his/her final semester of coursework.

Returning and Reinstating students who initially matriculated prior to the 2011-2012 academic year:

Normally, up to two courses may be transferred without tuition payment. Students may request approval for two additional courses to be transferred. Full Westminster tuition is required for these additional courses. No more than four courses will be accepted for transfer credit. For any coursework to be considered for transfer from CCEF, the courses must be completed (including having been graded) prior to beginning any coursework at Westminster.

Transcription of credit from The Resurgence Training Center (Re:Train)

Upon approval by the Registrar, credit earned for coursework completed at Re:Train will be transcripted and accepted toward the M.Div. or M.A.R. programs.

Only courses in which a grade of B or above was received will be accepted for transcription.

Up to a maximum of 9 semester credit hours from Re:Train will be transcripted and accepted toward a student’s degree program at Westminster. The amount of transcribed credits will vary based upon the degree program requirements.
Courses which have been approved for transcription will be considered elective credit.

Please contact the Registrar’s Office for the current list of approved courses that may be transcribed from Re:Train.

Transfer of Credit for Courses Taken at Reformed Episcopal Seminary (RES)
The transfer credit policy agreement with RES is aimed at allowing WTS M.Div. students who are seeking ordination in CANA/ACNA or REC the ability to take the required coursework for licensure in their denomination.

1. Upon approval by the Registrar, credit earned for RES courses listed below is transferrable to the M.Div. (general emphasis) program for elective credit.
2. Only courses in which a grade of C- or above was received will be accepted for transfer credit.
3. The following courses may be transferred:
   a. AN 503 Liturgics - 2 hrs.*
   b. AN 512 Creeds and Councils - 2 hrs.
   c. AN 615 Anglican Studies - 2 hrs.
   d. AN 703 Thirty-Nine Articles - 2 hrs.*
   e. AN 603 Book of Common Prayer - 2 hrs.*
   f. AN 715 Anglican History and Polity - 2 hrs.

* May count towards the 12 out of 19 elective hours required in Practical Theology

Transcript Requests
Requests for an official transcript should be submitted in writing from the current or former student to the Registrar’s Office, accompanied by the appropriate fee. Transcript Request Forms are available in the Machen lobby and online. Altering a record is an act of fraud.

Withdrawal from the Seminary
It is expected that anyone on withdrawn status is not using Westminster facilities, personnel or resources.

Administrative Withdrawal
A student is administratively withdrawn for three reasons: if he or she has 1) not met satisfactory academic progress requirements, having a grade point average too low to continue, 2) not fulfilled financial payment obligations, or 3) violated the Seminary’s standards for student conduct, which includes violation of the Honor Code.

Academic Withdrawal
A student whose cumulative grade point average after the attempt or completion of 24 semester hours in the M.Div., M.A.R., M.A.C. or Certificate program is 1.75 or lower is withdrawn from the Seminary. However, if the faculty considers it probable that, in the future, the student will be able to meet SAP requirements, it may reinstate or readmit him or her to the Seminary on probationary status, upon petition, and grant whatever credit for work completed it deems appropriate. Students in the Th.M. and Ph.D. programs are required to maintain an academic average of 3.00 during the program. A student whose cumulative grade point average at the completion of three courses in the Th.M. or Ph.D. program is lower than 3.00 is not permitted to continue in the institution, except as detailed in the Probation section.
A student in the D.Min. program is required to have a cumulative grade point average of 3.00 in order to graduate, except as detailed in the Probation section.

If a student required to complete the ATW requirement does not pass ATW within the four semester/term deadline, that student will be withdrawn from the Seminary.

Personal Withdrawal

A student planning to withdraw from the Seminary, whether during or between an academic semester or term, should inform the Registrar’s Office in writing. If the “Personal Withdrawal” notification is received during a semester/term, the effective date of withdrawal will be the date of notification. If the notification is received between semesters/terms, the effective date of withdrawal will be the last day of exams of the previous semester. A student who withdraws from the Seminary after the final date to withdraw from a course will receive a failing grade for each course not completed.

A student is automatically withdrawn if he or she a) does not register by the end of the Add/Drop period for the semester (fall or spring) or, in the case of Th.M., Ph.D students in post-coursework phase and D.Min students, for the academic year, b) drops or withdraws from all of his or her courses during the progress of any semester, or c) fails to return after an approved leave of absence. Exceptions to this policy: 1) if a student in the Certificate program has already completed at least one course, that student is considered enrolled for two consecutive semesters following the last semester/term enrolled in courses beyond the Add/Drop period. In the semester following the two consecutive semesters, if the certificate student does not register and complete at least one course, that student is withdrawn by default. 2) A Th.M. Ph.D. or D.Min. student in coursework phase may request approval to remain enrolled as a current student for a given semester, with the intention of working on non-coursework degree requirements, by submitting a petition to the Registrar’s Office, which will seek approval from the appropriate faculty field committee. If granted, the student’s enrollment status for that semester would be considered “less than half time.”
7. Academic Requirements and Programs

Certificate in Christian Studies Program
A Certificate in Christian Studies program is offered for men and women who desire graduate-level courses from Westminster but do not desire to enter a degree program.

Upon graduation, the Certificate in Christian Studies student will:

1. Exhibit a deep love for the triune God, his word, his truth and his church and a Christ-like humility in relation with others.
2. Demonstrate basic knowledge of scripture, Reformed theology, biblical theology, church history and apologetics.
3. Demonstrate the ability to apply God’s word to a changing world in the student’s ministry context.

Admission to the certificate program requires the same qualifications as admission for the M.Div., M.A.R., or M.A.C. program. Registration, tuition charges, and all academic procedures and prerequisites are also the same.

The Certificate will be earned after the completion of 25 semester hours of M.Div., M.A.R., or M.A.C. courses. The following courses must be included: AP 101 Introduction to Apologetics and ST 101 Introduction to Systematic Theology. Greek and Hebrew are not approved for credit toward the Certificate program.

Students who have earned a Certificate in Christian Studies from Westminster and desire to apply this work toward an M.Div., M.A.R., or M.A.C. degree must surrender the Certificate prior to graduation. Before choosing to enter a program beyond the Certificate, students should consult with the Registrar’s Office in regard to which courses will transfer to the M.Div., M.A.R., or M.A.C. program.

In most cases, international students cannot be granted visas for participating in this program.

Time Limit: The maximum time limit to complete the Certificate is 10 years (including any leave of absence or withdrawal period). Petitions for an extension due to unusual circumstances or hardship must be granted by the Faculty Academic Affairs Committee.

Distance Education
The following courses are periodically offered as distance education courses in addition to their traditional residential format.

See the degree program requirements in Chapter 8 for the courses that may be applied to the master’s level degree programs. Students on either a J or F visa may take a maximum of 3 semester credit hours through distance education in the fall and spring semesters.

Courses taken through Distance Education are not considered courses taken on Westminster’s campus. The number of course credits taken through Westminster’s Distance Education will reduce the number of course credits approved for transfer into a degree program. See the transfer of credit policy in Chapter 6.
In order to take a distance education course, a student must be admitted to Westminster and register during the normal registration periods. A fee for distance education courses is required in addition to tuition. See Chapter 11 for current fee.

Students taking distance education courses must have regular, high-speed internet access. A student email address is provided by Westminster. For distance education courses, Westminster recommends that students use a computer that runs on Microsoft Windows 7 or later, or Mac OS X 10.9 or later.

Students Living Outside Pennsylvania
Westminster is mandated to meet the requirements of the state in which a student resides in order to offer distance education courses to those students. Requirements vary by state and Westminster is working to comply with regulations of each state’s department of education.

The Registrar’s Office needs to approve each student’s course registration for distance education courses to ensure Westminster is authorized to offer courses in the student’s state of residence. Please note, Westminster currently does not have authorization to offer distance education courses to students living in the following states:

- Alabama
- Arkansas
- Massachusetts
- Minnesota

This list is subject to change. Please email academicaffairs@wts.edu with questions regarding your state or to request an updated list.

English Bible Assessment for New Students
A thorough knowledge of the English Bible is expected of all recipients of the M.Div., M.A.R., and M.A.C. degrees at Westminster. Every student entering the Seminary should do so with as comprehensive a knowledge of the English Bible as possible.

The New Student English Bible Assessment will be administered online to all new students matriculating into the above degree programs and all new special level one students for evaluation purposes (see the Academic Calendar for dates). This examination will not count toward a student’s GPA because it will be used to measure a new student’s baseline knowledge and understanding of the Bible at the time of entry into the Seminary. In the event that a student receives a score of 80 percent or higher on the English Bible Assessment, the student will be exempt from the English Bible Exam.

English Bible Exam
Each student in the M.Div., M.A.R., or M.A.C. program is required to take the English Bible Exam (EBE). The exam cannot be taken prior to completing 24 credit hours, and cannot be taken later than the end of the winter term examination period of the year in which a student expects to graduate. If a student finishes coursework during the fall semester or winter term, the exam must be passed by the winter exam date prior to graduation. The examination will be administered four times each academic year. See the Academic Calendar and website for exact dates. All questions will be taken from the English Bible Study Guide. If the exam is not passed by the specified time, with a minimum score of 80 percent, the student will be required to take PT 013P English Bible Survey.
Hybrid Courses
A limited number of counseling courses are offered as hybrid courses.

In a hybrid course more than half of the course hours are taught in the traditional classroom format on Westminster’s campus, with less than half of the course hours taught in a distance education format. Normally course hours taught on Westminster’s campus are taught in intensive evening and weekend sessions. Since more than half of the course hours are taught in the traditional classroom format, hybrid courses are considered on-campus courses.

Students taking hybrid courses must have regular, high-speed internet access. A student email address is provided by Westminster. For distance education courses, Westminster recommends that students use a computer that runs on Microsoft Windows 7 or later, or Mac OS X 10.9 or later. All hybrid courses require a standard course material fee per course in addition to course tuition.

Holy Land Studies
The Seminary is associated with the Jerusalem University College (JUC). Students who participate in this program may receive academic credit upon approval by the Registrar, in consultation with the relevant department coordinator, and scholarship aid may be granted to help defray the costs of participation. Information concerning Holy Land studies may be secured from the Director of the Program for Holy Land Studies.

Students in the programs indicated below may complete part of their program at the JUC as indicated:

1. M.Div. and M.A.R. degree programs: Elective course work may be selected from approved Master’s-level courses at JUC. Approved JUC courses will be regarded as transfer credit when applied to the student’s Westminster degree program. Depending on the student’s program and emphasis, a student may request JUC transfer credit of up to 18 elective hours.

2. Th.M./Ph.D. degree programs: Up to one-third (two courses) of the course work for either the Th.M. in Old Testament or the Th.M. in New Testament may be selected from approved Master’s-level courses at JUC. Up to one-third (five courses) of the course work for the Ph.D. in Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation may be selected from approved Master’s-level courses at JUC. Normally, Th.M./Ph.D. students will need to complete additional work in each of the Master’s courses taken at JUC in order for those courses to be credited toward Westminster’s Th.M./Ph.D. programs. Arrangements for this additional work must be made in advance through the student’s advisor at Westminster and in consultation with the appropriate faculty member at JUC. The JUC course plus additional work will be considered an independent study, with the student receiving a grade that is a weighted average of the additional work and the grade for the JUC course.

Westminster students who, under provisions (1) and (2) above, pursue any work at JUC ordinarily will be expected to participate in an approved Reformed ministry in Israel.
Independent Study Courses
Qualified students may make arrangements with available faculty to take research courses on subjects of interest and value. These courses will be conducted by means of assigned readings, a paper, conferences with the professor, and, at the option of the professor, an examination. The faculty member and student must hold a minimum of four conferences during the course, either in person, by phone or through internet video conference. A student wishing to pursue an independent study course must also be registered for one or more on-campus or distance education courses, or have previously attained at Westminster a GPA of 2.80 or better. M.Div., M.A.R., and M.A.C. students are limited to taking a total of three independent study courses (not including PT 013P-English Bible Survey and Advanced Theological Writing courses). Independent Study courses are offered to students in all degree programs with the exception of certificate students, special students, and students in the London Th.M. program. Please refer to Chapter 8 for the independent study limit for students in the Th.M. and PhD. programs.

Registering for an independent study course: A student who has been admitted to Westminster should first get approval from his/her academic advisor (advanced degree students only) and secure approval from the faculty member who will supervise the course. The student must then submit an Independent Study Request form to the Registrar’s Office for approval. The form must be received no later than the registration or add/drop periods.

Taking independent study courses for required courses in the curriculum is strongly discouraged and will require approval of the faculty member who normally teaches the course and of the Provost. If a student encounters extreme career or family hardship that he or she thinks warrants taking a required course via independent study, the student must submit a petition form to the Registrar’s Office along with the Independent Study Request form.

Deadlines: All deadlines for regular courses (e.g., registration, add/drop, withdrawal, incomplete, etc.) and the normal tuition refund schedule will apply. Final examinations are due no later than the last day of the exam period for the fall and spring semesters.

Graduation

Application for Graduation
All students expecting to graduate with a degree or certificate are required to submit to the Registrar’s Office a Graduation Application in the spring prior to the expected graduation year.

The Graduation Application consists of both a completed Degree Completion Worksheet (DCW) and Application for Graduation Form. The deadline to submit these forms is June 1st prior to the year in which the student intends to graduate. The Registrar’s Office will review the application as part of a Degree Audit and notify the student (via an email to the student’s Westminster student email address) of the results, along with the Registrar’s recommended approval or denial for graduation. Students whose applications are received by the submission deadline will receive their Degree Audit results before the start of the following fall semester. Students whose applications are received after the submission deadline are not guaranteed degree audit results before the start of the following fall semester. The student is responsible for completing all program requirements, including registering for the appropriate courses, whether or not he or she receives the Registrar Office’s degree audit prior to the fall semester of the expected graduating year.

Commencement Ceremony
Students who are recommended by the Registrar’s Office for graduation should review the Commencement webpage for further requirements no later than February of their graduating year. All questions regarding commencement should be submitted to Academic Affairs.
Graduating in Absentia

Westminster has a strong heritage of learning in community. Our commencement ceremony, therefore, is a significant time in which this community assembles to send its graduates into the world to do the Lord’s work. Because of this, all graduates are to be present at the ceremony. However, if a student is not able to attend, he or she must request to receive his or her degree in absentia, which is granted only by permission. A student’s request to graduate in absentia will be considered if one of the following conditions applies:

1. The student has completed the requirements for his or her degree at the end of the winter term.
2. The student will be living outside the continental United States at the time of graduation.

Requests to graduate in absentia should be emailed to Academic Affairs.

Theological English

Westminster provides support for all students to excel in theological writing through the resources of the Theological English department, with its three subdivisions: Mastering Theological English, Advanced Theological Writing and the Center for Theological Writing.

Mastering Theological English

Mastering Theological English (MTE) is an intensive language course that equips international students with the high level of theological English skill required for study at Westminster. Students qualify for admission to a Westminster program—except for their TOEFL scores—may satisfy this requirement by successfully completing the appropriate level of MTE:

- MTE I is for students with TOEFL iBT scores of 68 - 87 iBT who are applying to the M.Div., M.A.R., M.A.C., or D.Min. programs; or applying to the Th.M. program and need to fulfill the prerequisite to enter MTE II.
- MTE II is for students with TOEFL iBT scores of 85 - 99 iBT who are applying to the Th.M. or Ph.D. programs. Entrance requirements can also be met through successful completion of MTE I.

To complete MTE successfully, a student must maintain a B average or better in all classwork and earn a passing score on the MTE qualifying exam. An MTE I student who passes this qualifying exam on the earlier of two test dates will also have the option of satisfying the classroom portion of the Advanced Theological Writing requirement in advance of the fall semester. (Please see the Advanced Theological Writing section below for more information about this requirement.)

For a sample schedule and a description of the current year's programming, please visit the MTE web page.

Advanced Theological Writing

Advanced Theological Writing (ATW) courses are specially designed to teach international students to write theological English clearly, succinctly, and comprehensibly at the high level of complexity required by seminary courses. Incoming students who score less than 111 on the TOEFL iBT are required to take an academic writing test to determine which ATW class will best help them meet the required writing proficiency level. According to the results, students are placed in an ATW class, as described below. Professors who have identified international students as needing improvement in their writing may require students to take ATW classes.

The normal sequence of classes is PT 031p, PT 033p, and PT 037p. An exceptionally well prepared student may exit the ATW sequence by earning a “PN” in any one of the courses. A “PN” is given to students who maintain a “B” average or better in class work and an average 3.5 grammar correction score (GCS).

Advanced Theological Writing I (PT 031P) orients students to theological genres, and thoroughly reviews advanced grammar. Citation styles used at Westminster are introduced and practiced. Additional focus is on mastery of core and high frequency academic and theological vocabulary. During their enrollment in ATW I, students are required to submit all of their written seminary course assignments to the ATW instructor for correction.

Advanced Theological Writing II (PT 033P) provides detailed instruction and practice in the most problematic areas of grammar. Frequent quizzes are given on core and high frequency academic and theological vocabulary. During their enrollment in ATW II, students are required to submit all of their written seminary course assignments to the ATW instructor for correction.

Advanced Theological Writing: Individualized (PT 035P) is an individualized study option used in rare cases when the students’ writing needs cannot be met in the normal class sequence. See instructor for details. During their enrollment in ATW III, students are required to submit all of their written seminary course assignments to the ATW instructor for correction.

Advanced Theological Writing III: Paper Correction (PT 037P) is intended for students who have earned a “B” average or better in the classwork portion of a previous ATW course, but still need to demonstrate, by earning a 3.5 grammar correction score (GCS), that they can apply this knowledge to writing their seminary course papers. During their enrollment in ATW III, students are required to submit all of their written seminary course assignments to the ATW instructor for correction.

Students required to take ATW must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress in ATW as outlined in the Academic Policies section. If a new or reinstating student had fulfilled the ATW requirement while previously a student at Westminster, the student is not required to do so again.

Center for Theological Writing
The Center for Theological Writing (CTW) equips students of theology with the tools to write clearly, correctly, cogently, and profoundly. To that end, the CTW offers writing classes and maintains over 100 online writing resources which are open to all current students without charge. In addition, we offer one-on-one consultations and editing for a fee as follows:

- Writing Consultations: Consultations are available for all students at all levels. The number of consultation hours available is limited, and an appointment is required. Please see the CTW page on Courses for more details.

- Events: All students are invited to participate in Writers’ Circles, workshops, faculty lectures, and Readers’ Group.

- Editing Service: We offer editing services for an hourly fee, and we also provide referrals to WTS-recommended editors. Please see the CTW page on Courses for details.

- PhD/ThM Roundtables and Forums: Roundtables offer students the opportunity to interact with faculty on contemporary issues and academic concerns. At forums, students present papers and engage in critical discussion in a conference style setting.

- Online and Print Materials: These include paper guides, sample papers, writing schedules, handouts on theological writing, study skills and time management, as well as audio-visual recordings of special events and faculty talks on writing.
8. Degree Programs

Greek & Hebrew Placement and Competency Exams

Any student who wishes to take a placement or competency exam should register online in advance. Placement exams are optional for M.Div. and M.A.R. students. Competency exams are required for Ph.D. and Th.M. students.

M.Div. and M.A.R. Placement Exam Information

Who should take a placement exam: Students are not required to have had previous training in Greek or Hebrew to begin the M.Div. or M.A.R. program at Westminster. Matriculating students who have studied Greek and/or Hebrew and who wish to place out of any level of either language must take the corresponding placement exam. The exam will determine which course(s) the student must take to fulfill the language requirement.

When to take a placement exam: Students should take the exam before initial matriculation in order to prevent complications in registering for courses that require language prerequisites. Exams are administered four times throughout the year in-person as well as online and each exam is two hours in length. For further information, to view upcoming exam dates and to register for an exam, please visit the Greek and Hebrew Languages page on the seminary’s website. Dates are also given on the Academic Calendar.

How often a student may take a placement exam: Students may only take one placement exam per language, regardless of which level exam they choose. Once a student has taken a placement exam, he or she may not take another placement exam in that language at any time in the future.

Greek Placement Exam Information

What is covered on the exam? The exam is designed to judge the student’s aptitude in Greek in relation to the Greek curriculum of Westminster Theological Seminary. The textbook used at Westminster is J. Gresham Machen’s New Testament Greek for Beginners (revised by Dan G. McCartney). Therefore, the placement exam corresponds to this particular textbook. The exams primarily cover three areas, though any part of Greek grammar may also be included.

Exam elements:

- Vocabulary: Students are primarily responsible for the vocabulary covered in Machen’s Grammar, though other New Testament words may be included.

- Paradigms: Students may be asked to reproduce (in Greek) paradigms covered in Machen’s Grammar (verbs, participles, nouns, etc.).

- Translation and Analysis: The exam will include Greek sentences that the student will be asked to translate and in which verbal forms should be parsed. Students may also be asked to analyze a passage. No lexical or grammatical helps, or any other helps, will be allowed.

Three levels of the exam are offered:
Level 1 covers New Testament Greek for Beginners (chapters 1–20).

Level 2 covers the entirety of New Testament Greek for Beginners (chapters 1–34).

Level 3 covers the entirety of New Testament Greek for Beginners, competency in Discourse Analysis, competency in intermediate Greek grammar, and words occurring 15 times or more in the New Testament. Only students who have previously had training in Discourse Analysis and intermediate Greek grammar should attempt this exam.

Exam results: M.Div. and M.A.R. students who take a Greek placement exam will be placed, based on the discretion of the professor, in the appropriate Greek course (NT 011a/aa, NT 012a/aa, or NT 013a/aa) depending on his/her performance on the exam. Students who demonstrate sufficient competence on the level 3 exam will be exempt from all three semesters of Greek.

IMPORTANT: A student interested in taking a higher-level placement exam should be aware that, if he/she is unable to demonstrate a high level of competence on the exam, he/she will not automatically be placed in the next highest level Greek course, unless sufficient mastery of the lower level material is clearly demonstrated on the exam. Students should therefore prepare carefully according to the specific level of exam they wish to take.

*It is not permitted to switch Greek tracks or sections within a Greek track, except for extenuating circumstances that would otherwise create severe hardship.

Hebrew Placement Exam Information

What is covered on the exam? The general Hebrew placement exam will test skills and concepts covered in all three semesters of Hebrew taught at Westminster. If a student wishes to try to test out of only Hebrew 1, he or she may take a special version of the placement exam for that purpose. In either case, the examination selected (general or Hebrew 1 only) will last two hours.

Basic (Hebrew 1) Knowledge: The exam may require both reproduction of memorized material and application of grammatical and syntactical matters including any of the following: the alphabet; identifying sewas and dageshim; characteristics of gutturals; the noun in absolute and construct, masculine and feminine, singular, dual, and plural; adjectives; prepositions; the names and functions of the major Masoretic accents; the independent personal and demonstrative pronouns; pronominal suffixes on both nouns and verbs; the complete strong verb (i.e., the perfect, imperfect, imperative, participles, and infinitives of all stems) and translation of sentences containing any of the preceding elements, as well as a knowledge of words that occur five hundred times or more in the Hebrew Bible. (Note: the exam for placing out of Hebrew 1 only will not test material beyond this point.)
Intermediate (Hebrew 2) Knowledge: parsing/recognition and explanation of the inflectional patterns of any/all of the various types of "weak" verbs, types and functions of waws, issues of basic syntax above and below the clause level, translation of narrative and direct discourse, and a knowledge of words that occur one hundred times or more in the Hebrew Bible.

Further (Hebrew 3) Knowledge: translation of challenging narrative and non-narrative Biblical texts and a knowledge of words that occur fifty times or more in the Hebrew Bible.

Please note the following:

Paradigms: Students may be asked not only to recognize, but also to reproduce paradigms in Hebrew of items in the lists above.

Parsing: Students will be asked to parse some verbs in isolation and some in the context of the short passages they will translate. (Parsing will include both strong and weak verbs and at points may ask for explanations of the inflectional patterns of particular weak verbs in comparison with strong verbs.)

For the online format of the exam, unless students can type in Hebrew, they will need to write the names of the Hebrew consonants using English letters (e.g. “aleph”). Therefore, students should review the names of the Hebrew letters before taking the exam.

Translation: On the last passage of the general exam, M.Div. and M.A.R. students will be allowed to use a standard, non-analytical lexicon. The rest of the translations must be done without any lexical helps, and Th.M. and Ph.D. students may not use a lexicon on any part of the exam.

Exam results: Based on the results of the exam, M.Div. and M.A.R. students will be placed into Hebrew 1, 2, 3, or exempted from Hebrew coursework altogether. To be exempted from a level, a student must demonstrate complete mastery of that level’s content. For planning purposes, students should know that exemption from all three levels is exceedingly rare.

* Students should be aware that the intensive language terms demand a full-time commitment and should plan to limit their job and ministry commitments accordingly or choose to take the non-intensive course offerings.

The June course may begin as early as the last week of May depending on the calendar year.

 Sequence D (fall/spring/following fall) is not recommended except for students whose life commitments do not allow them to choose one of the other tracks. Students starting Hebrew in the fall semester should follow either the fall/winter/spring or the fall/spring/June sequences if at all possible.
Since the language courses build upon one another (e.g., Hebrew 3 builds on Hebrew 2), having long gaps of time between terms is inadvisable. Furthermore, students cannot start any Old Testament classes (except for OT 113) until after Hebrew 3 is completed. Hence, if they choose Sequence D, they will not be able to take any OT classes during the fall in which they are taking Hebrew 3, which will likely delay their progress in a degree program.

Th.M. and Ph.D. Competency Exam Information

Admitted Th.M. students in Old Testament must demonstrate knowledge of grammar and reading proficiency in Hebrew at an advanced M.Div. level prior to matriculation. Admitted Th.M. students in New Testament must demonstrate the same level of expertise in Biblical Greek prior to matriculation. Such expertise will be demonstrated by means of a competency exam.

Admitted Ph.D. students in Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation must demonstrate knowledge of grammar and reading proficiency at an advanced M.Div. level in both Biblical Hebrew and New Testament Greek prior to matriculation. Such expertise will be demonstrated by means of a competency exam in each language.

Failure to demonstrate competence on the required examination will result in remedial language study and evaluation which must be completed during the first semester of enrollment. If a modular Th.M. student fails in the first attempt of a language competency exam, remedial language study and evaluation must be completed prior to registration for the student’s second module. The competency exams are similar to the placement exams described above, except that the Greek competency exam tests translation in significantly greater depth than the M.Div./M.A.R. Greek placement exam, and does not include discourse analysis.
M.Div./M.A.R./M.A.C. Program General Requirements

Beginning the Program
Entering students are strongly advised to follow one of the recommended course schedules given in Chapter 9. The schedules specify the appropriate sequencing of courses for each degree and emphasis.

M.Div. and M.A.R. students only: Due to the sequencing of courses with language prerequisites, entering M.Div. students who hope to complete the degree in three years (three-year plan) and M.A.R. students who hope to complete the degree in two years (two-year plan) are strongly advised to begin their Greek or Hebrew language studies in the summer term prior to their initial Fall semester, unless they anticipate receiving advanced placement based on the results of the Greek and/or Hebrew placement exam. If the student cannot begin Greek or Hebrew in the summer and does not expect to receive advanced placement in either Greek or Hebrew, but still wants to follow the three-year plan (M.Div.) or the two-year plan (M.A.R.), the student is advised to take the Hebrew Sequence C in order to avoid taking both intensive Greek and intensive Hebrew during the same Winter term.

Students will be permitted to begin their program in the winter term or in the spring semester; however, by starting mid-year, students will usually need to extend the length of time for completion of the degree requirements.

Program Requirements
The following academic requirements apply to the M.Div., M.A.R., M.A.C., and Certificate programs:

- Twelve credit hours during the fall semester, and twelve credit hours for the winter term and spring semester combined, is the minimum required for full-time enrollment status. Three credit hours during the winter term would be considered full-time, but the full-time status for the winter term alone is not reported. No student may take more than 20 credit hours during a semester without the permission of the faculty. Not more than five credit hours may be taken during the winter term.

- No student will be granted a degree or certificate whose cumulative grade point average at the completion of the program is lower than what is required for Satisfactory Academic Progress (see Chapter 12). A degree or certificate shall be granted only to persons enrolled at Westminster at the time of the completion of their program of study. A student who has completed requirements by the end of the winter term of the year of graduation may receive the degree in absentia. No student in the M.Div. and M.A.R. program who lacks the equivalent of the courses in the original languages of Scripture will be granted a degree.

- The policies pertaining to all non-native English speakers are the same for all degree programs. Students needing to take an Advanced Theological Writing course must register for the course during their first semester on campus.

- International students must be full-time each semester; see Chapter 5 for the number of semesters allowed to complete the degree program. International students should always allow for three years to complete an M.A.R. and four years to complete an M.Div. due to Greek and Hebrew requirements.

M.Div. and M.A.R. students only:
- M.Div. and M.A.R. students who have obtained credit for 24 hours of the curriculum or give evidence of possessing exceptional qualifications may elect to take advanced level courses (Th.M. and Ph.D.). These courses fulfill three hours of elective credit toward the M.Div. or M.A.R. degrees. Such students shall have maintained a cumulative grade point average of 3.20 or its equivalent for the preceding academic year, whether in this institution or elsewhere. Additional prerequisites for admission to particular courses may be required by the professor in charge. There will be an additional tuition charge for these courses.

- Shared credit toward the Th.M. or Ph.D. degree, for work pursued before the completion of requirements for the M.Div. or M.A.R. degree, shall be limited to two courses.

- Students who already possess a Westminster M.A.R. degree may receive an M.Div. by completing the following:
  a. all of the course requirements for the M.Div. (many of which will have been met in the M.A.R. program);
  b. the M.Div. Mentored Ministry requirements;
  c. a total of at least 120 semester hours of academic work at the M.A.R./M.Div. level, not including Hebrew and Greek, or a total of at least 139 semester hours of academic work at the M.A.R./M.Div. level, including Hebrew and Greek.

Master of Divinity (M.Div.) Degree Program

A student who holds a baccalaureate degree from an approved institution receives the degree of Master of Divinity (M.Div.) on the completion of the prescribed program of study. The purpose of this program is twofold: (1) to prepare men for the pastoral ministry and to equip them to meet ecclesiastical requirements for ordination (Pastoral Ministry Track); (2) to train men and women for gospel ministries of a more specialized sort (General Ministries Track). Such ministries might include counseling, Christian education, youth work, college and university student ministries, and urban service.

Students planning to seek ordination for pastoral ministry should be aware that completion of the M.Div. degree in a General Ministries Track may not satisfy the requirements for ordination in certain denominations. This is particularly the case if the sequence of courses in preaching is not included. One should check with the appropriate denominational judicatory.

The program of study prescribed for the M.Div. degree provides two tracks for training, in keeping with the twofold purpose of the program: (1) a Pastoral Ministry Track and (2) a General Ministries Track which has two emphases: General Studies or Counseling. The degree requirements for both tracks are the same except for certain Practical Theology courses. Courses in both tracks are arranged to provide for orderly progress within the work of each department and for coherence within each semester of study.

M.Div. Student Learning Goals

Upon graduation, the student will:

1. Exhibit a deep love for the triune God, his word, his truth and his church and a Christ-like humility in relation to others.

2. Be able to exegete the text of scripture as given in the original languages.

3. Be able to understand and articulate the system of doctrine contained in the Westminster Standards and its importance for biblical, systematic, and practical theology, and integrate this system of doctrine into life and ministry.

4. Be able to understand the particularity of cultural context and apply God’s eternal word to a changing world and to particular individuals and congregations.
5. Understand the biblical principles of leadership and demonstrate potential for becoming a future leader in the church.

M.Div. Program Length and Time Limit

M.Div. students pursuing full-time study should choose either the three-year or four-year plan, using that plan’s recommended course schedule for their emphasis. The recommended course schedules presume matriculation in the summer term or fall semester and indicate the order in which students should take required courses and the course load in a given semester/term. The course load varies from 14 to 19 credit hours per semester in the three-year plan, and from 12 to 14 credits hours per semester in the four-year plan. (During the academic year(s) that the student is taking language courses, the number of credits can vary depending upon the language track/sequence the student chooses.)

It will take a minimum of three years of full-time study to complete the degree if no credits are transferred from another institution and no advanced placement in either Greek or Hebrew is awarded. Normally, students follow the four year plan of full-time study to complete the degree in order that they may take Greek and Hebrew in different years. The four-year plan is also recommended to balance course load with work, family and church obligations. Students pursuing full-time study who matriculate in the winter term or spring semester should use as a guide the three-year or four-year plan, expecting to complete the degree in three and one half years or four and one half years respectively. Students who are taking courses on a part-time basis due to employment or other reasons should adjust their course work plans and extend their program length accordingly using either plan’s recommended course schedule as a guide for their emphasis. The Registrar and Dean of Students are available for counsel concerning individual student needs. Students should consult the Registrar’s Office before deviating from a plan’s recommended course schedule for their emphasis.

Time Limit: The maximum time limit to complete the M.Div. degree is 10 years (including any leave of absence or withdrawal period). Petitions for an extension due to extenuating circumstances or hardship must be granted by the Faculty Academic Affairs Committee.

M.Div. Degree Requirements

A total of at least 92 credit hours plus Hebrew and Greek language requirements is required for the M.Div. degree.

M.Div. Mentored Ministry Requirements

A biblical understanding of wisdom prevents us from separating knowing and doing, learning and practice, since wisdom unites the facets of knowledge, character, and skill. It results from academic learning and practical experience when accompanied by supervision and self-examination. Candidates for the M.Div. degree are therefore required to participate in mentored field experience in ministry. All arrangements for Mentored Ministry requirements are handled through the Academic Affairs Office. See the Mentored Ministry site on WTS Courses for more information.

The M.Div. curriculum (except for M.Div. Counseling) requires the two-hour course PT 111 - Orientation to Ministerial Formation. This course introduces Mentored Ministry and is a prerequisite for any approved field experience.

Field experience: The M.Div. candidate must complete four units of field experience to qualify for the degree. The four units must be completed before March 1st in the academic year the student expects to graduate. Several formats are available. The units may be taken concurrently during the academic year, during summer, or as a year-long internship. The Mentored Ministry experience for M.Div. Counseling students will ordinarily occur in a counseling setting. It is strongly recommended that at least one unit be completed in a cultural setting different from the student’s own.
Units: One unit of Mentored Ministry is received for 100-120 hours of mentored field experience under an approved mentor. Units of Mentored Ministry are not assigned credit hours and no grades are given. Approval for any unit may be withheld by the Director of Mentored Ministry if ministry proposals are not fulfilled or if evaluations and other requirements are not completed by proposed dates.

No units may be given for ministry experience prior to matriculation at Westminster. Transfer of up to two units of Mentored Ministry may be given to students who transfer from other seminaries with approved programs of mentored field experience.

Integration seminars: The M.Div. student (including the M.Div. Counseling) must participate in at least two integration seminars. These are semester-long, weekly one-hour sessions in which no more than 12 students meet with faculty to analyze and discuss the student’s field experience. The seminars are offered each semester and are not assigned academic credit. However, each student must participate in two seminars to complete the requirements of Mentored Ministry.

M.Div. Core Courses (for all emphases)
All M.Div. students must take the same core courses (plus Hebrew and Greek language requirements) as follows:

Master of Arts (Religion) (M.A.R.) Degree Program

A student who holds a baccalaureate degree from an approved institution receives the degree of Master of Arts (Religion) (M.A.R.) on the completion of the prescribed program of study.

This program is designed for men and women who desire a theological background and training for various callings other than the gospel ministry or for advanced study in religion or other disciplines.

The M.A.R. is an academic program which may serve either as a terminal degree or as a degree leading to further academic work. In the former case, it is especially appropriate for Christian professionals (such as physicians, attorneys, teachers, administrators, writers, and other laypeople) who desire simply to provide for themselves a solid biblical foundation for the work in which they are or will be engaged.

When the M.A.R. is conceived of as a terminal degree, the choice of one of three possible emphases will depend upon the individual’s aptitudes, interests, and career direction. Individuals who desire thorough and extensive familiarity with the biblical materials themselves should choose the Biblical Studies emphasis. Those whose interests and concerns involve overall theological or historical perspectives would probably be better served with a Theological Studies emphasis. A General Studies emphasis allows a student to individualize the program even more and thereby make it directly relevant to his or her own situation.

All of those for whom the M.A.R. is a terminal degree receive thorough grounding in the Scriptures, Reformed theology, church history, and apologetics. All graduates of the program, therefore, possess tools for bringing the lordship of Christ to bear directly upon that part of God’s world in which they are called to serve. This satisfies one of the purposes of the program.

Another purpose of the M.A.R. is preparation for further academic work. An individual taking the M.A.R. in Biblical Studies is particularly well prepared for further masters or doctoral work in that field (either at Westminster or elsewhere) and the same would be true for an individual taking the M.A.R. in Theological Studies.
M.A.R. Student Learning Goals
Upon graduation, the student will:

1. Exhibit a deep love for the triune God, his word, his truth and his church and a Christ-like humility in relation to others.

2. Understand and articulate in writing a foundational knowledge of theological disciplines, including the scriptures, Reformed theology, church history and apologetics.

3. Understand and articulate in writing a more focused knowledge of the student’s area of emphasis as preparation for advanced academic work.

4. Understand and articulate the system of doctrine contained in the Westminster Standards and its importance for biblical and systematic theology and integrate this doctrine into life and ministry.

5. Be able to exegete the text of scripture as given in the original languages.

M.A.R. Program Length and Time Limit
The M.A.R. degree is designed as a two-year or three-year program. M.A.R. students pursuing full-time study should follow the two-year plan’s recommended course schedule for their emphasis. The recommended course schedules presume matriculation in the summer term or fall semester. The two-year plan course load varies from 14 to 19 credit hours per semester. During the first academic year, when the student is taking language courses, the number of credits can vary depending upon the language track/sequence the student chooses. It will take a minimum of two years of full-time study to complete the degree if no credits are transferred from another institution and no advanced placement in either Greek or Hebrew is awarded. Normally, students take three years of full-time study to complete the degree in order that they may take Greek and Hebrew in different years.

Students who are seeking to complete the degree in three years and matriculating in the winter term or spring semester or taking courses on a part-time basis due to employment or other reasons should use the two-year plan as a guide, adjusting and extending their program length accordingly.

The Registrar and Dean of Students are available for counsel concerning individual student needs. Students pursuing full-time study should consult the Registrar’s Office before deviating from the two-year plan’s recommended course schedule for their emphasis.

Time Limit: The maximum time limit to complete the M.A.R. degree is 10 years (including any leave of absence or withdrawal period). Petitions for an extension due to extenuating circumstances or hardship must be granted by the Faculty Academic Affairs Committee.

M.A.R. Degree Requirements
The student chooses one of the following emphases: Biblical Studies, Theological Studies, or General Studies. A student desiring to proceed to the Ph.D. in Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation should choose the M.A.R. Biblical Studies, and a student desiring to proceed to the Ph.D. in Historical and Theological Studies should choose the M.A.R. Theological Studies.

A total of at least 55 credit hours, including the Summative Evaluation Exam, plus Hebrew and Greek language requirements, is required for the M.A.R. degree. Courses are to be selected from the three categories below.
M.A.R. Core Courses (for all emphases)
All students must take the same core courses (plus Hebrew and Greek language requirements) as follows:

M.A.R. Emphasis Courses, Electives, or Other Requirements
M.A.R. students take the remainder of their required hours in major courses or electives, and fulfill additional requirements, as follows:

1. A student choosing the Biblical Studies emphasis needs all M.Div. OT, and NT courses as listed in the sample schedules.

2. A student choosing the Theological Studies emphasis needs all M.Div. CH, ST, and AP courses as listed in the sample schedules.

A student choosing the General Studies emphasis may complete the remaining hours of the program by choosing any courses offered in the M.A.R. or M.Div. programs, except where limitations are noted in the course descriptions.

M.A.R. Summative Evaluation
To provide students in the various M.A.R. programs with an opportunity to review and draw the material of the curriculum's different courses into a comprehensive unity, there will be a concluding examination in the spring semester of the student's final year, which allows for a summative evaluation of the student's total program. Students finishing their course work by the end of December or January in the year of the student’s graduation will take the exam in the fall semester. Exam dates are posted in the Academic Calendar.

The examination consists of three questions. For the Biblical Studies emphasis, there will be one in Old Testament, one in New Testament, and one in hermeneutics. For the Theological Studies emphasis, there will be one in systematic theology, one in apologetics, and one in church history. For M.A.R. General Studies, there will be a choice of any three from the six topics above. This is an ‘open book’, take-home examination to be completed within a 32-hour period.

Students must register for the M.A.R. Summative Evaluation during the normal registration period. The examination will count for one semester hour of credit (taking the place of one hour of elective credit in the current curriculum). It will be graded on a Pass/Fail basis. Research will not be necessary for answering these questions. Rather, the questions will be designed to allow the student to draw upon their Westminster coursework. The examination is administered on WTS Courses through the Academic Affairs Office.

If a student fails the exam, a petition for a retake examination within a three-week period may be considered. Students who fail two or more courses in their final semester will be required to repeat the M.A.R. Summative Evaluation during the semester in which courses are retaken.

Master of Arts in Counseling (M.A.C.) Degree Program

The Master of Arts in Counseling is a degree program designed to give a rich foundation in theology and counseling on which men and women can build various vocations other than ordained Gospel ministry.

Westminster graduates have established themselves successfully in a wide range of occupations that do not require a professional licensure. With a Westminster counseling degree, graduates have pursued occupations in various fields of specialization such as campus ministry, adoption agencies, missions, church staff, counseling centers, youth work, human services, and educational institutions. Numerous Westminster graduates have also used their counseling training to enhance prior medical or nursing training for service in various missions and ministries.

A student who holds a baccalaureate degree from an approved institution receives the degree of Master of Arts in Counseling on the completion of the prescribed program of study. The program requires at least two years of full-time study for completion.

Building on a basic foundation in the disciplines of biblical studies, theology, church history, and apologetics, this program provides comprehensive instruction and active involvement in the specific area of biblical counseling.

M.A.C. Student Learning Goals

Upon graduation the student will:

1. Exhibit a deep love for the triune God, his word, his truth and his church and a Christ-like humility in relation with others.

2. Demonstrate basic knowledge in scripture, Reformed theology, biblical theology, church history and apologetics.

3. Demonstrate understanding of the broad context of counseling and apply God’s eternal word to a changing world in a counseling context.
4. Demonstrate skill in the practice of biblical counseling.

M.A.C. Program Length and Time Limit

Fifty-six credit hours of coursework are required for completion of the program. M.A.C. students pursuing full-time study should follow the two-year plan’s recommended course schedule. The schedule presumes matriculation in the fall semester, and indicates the order in which students should take required courses and the course load in a given semester/term. The course load varies from 12 to 16 credits per semester. Part-time students should expect to complete the degree in a minimum of three years.

Time Limit: The maximum time limit to complete the M.A.C. degree is 10 years (including any leave of absence or withdrawal period). Petitions for a program extension due to extenuating circumstances or hardship must be granted by the Faculty Academic Affairs Committee.

M.A.C. Degree Requirements

A total of 56 credit hours is required for the M.A.C. degree.

M.A.C. Core Courses

All M.A.C. students must take the following core courses:

M.A.C. Practicum Cluster Courses

In addition to the courses listed above, students are required to take PTC 371P, PTC 432, and PTC 673—three of the four Practicum Cluster Courses listed below—for a total of six credit hours. Each course within the cluster is intended to either provide oversight of the student’s own counseling cases or provide the student with practical counseling experiences. Students pursuing licensure in Pennsylvania are required to take all four courses listed below to meet the requirement of 100 hours of practicum experience (refer to State Licensure below)

M.A.C. Electives

The student is required to take PTC electives, totaling a minimum of 3 credit hours.

M.A.C Mentored Ministry

Every course within the M.A.C. program emphasizes practical application. There is no course which is purely theory because we are persuaded that all theology must be applied theology. But there are aspects of the curriculum, such as the Mentored Ministry program, that are intended to maximize the counseling experience. All arrangements for Mentored Ministry requirements are handled through the Mentored Ministry Office. See the Mentored Ministry site on WTS Courses for more information.

Students are required to complete a Mentored Ministry experience in the area of biblical counseling. They are expected to be involved in at least 100 face-to-face ministry hours over the course of their program. As early in their program as possible, they will fill out a formal Mentored Ministry proposal with a ministry mentor. The mentor can be a pastor, elder, or leader in the specific area that a student wants to emphasize in personal ministry (for example, campus ministry, social work, missions, women’s ministry, etc.). Students will meet with their mentor at least monthly. The Mentored Ministry proposal should be submitted and approved before the mentorship begins. Students and their mentors will submit respective evaluations at the conclusion of the Mentored Ministry experience. Ministry proposal and evaluation forms are available on the Mentored Ministry site on WTS Courses. All documentation of hours should be submitted to this site by March 1st of the student’s expected graduation year to the Mentored Ministry Office and will be recorded on the student’s transcript.

State Licensure
The primary purpose of the M.A.C. degree is to prepare students for non-ordained positions that do not require licensure. Students desiring to use the M.A.C. degree as a step towards state licensure as a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) should be aware of further requirements in addition to the M.A.C. degree. Westminster makes no guarantees that a licensing board will accept the M.A.C. degree for licensure. The prerequisites for licensure vary from state to state, and interested students should consult their state’s website for specific requirements. The state of Pennsylvania has required:

- At least twelve additional credits beyond the M.A.C.
- 100 hours of supervised practicum experience: Each course within the Practicum Cluster satisfies 25 hours toward the 100 hour supervised practicum experience requirement for the state of Pennsylvania.
- 600-hours of supervised internship experience: 100 hours of required Mentored Ministry counts toward the supervised internship experience. An additional 500 hours is needed to meet the 600-hour supervised internship experience requirement.

The student is responsible to establish the supervisory relationship and setting. Students should contact the Mentored Ministry Office by the end of their first semester in the M.A.C. program to declare their intent to complete 600 hours and to begin documentation of hours. All documentation of hours should be submitted by March 1st of the student’s expected graduation year to the Mentored Ministry site on WTS Courses and will be recorded on the student’s transcript.
Master of Theology (Th.M.) Degree Program

A student who holds a baccalaureate degree and the M.Div. degree or first graduate theological degree providing equivalent theological background—or its educational equivalent from approved institutions—receives the degree of Master of Theology (Th.M.) on the completion of the prescribed program of study.

To satisfy the biblical languages requirement for the Th.M. program, the applicant must have the equivalent of the Greek and Hebrew requirements for the M.Div. or M.A.R. programs at Westminster prior to admission.

The purpose of the Th.M. is to increase the student’s knowledge of a major field of theological learning, particularly through training and practice in the use of the methods and tools of theological research, and thus to further his preparation for a pastoral ministry, or for his or her teaching ministry, or for more advanced graduate study. The following concentrations are offered: Old Testament, New Testament, Church History, Systematic Theology, and Apologetics.

The minimum length of time to complete the Th.M. program is one academic year of full-time study. Normally a student requires an additional year to complete the thesis and comprehensive examination. Each candidate who has completed all coursework must indicate continuation in the program by registering for each succeeding academic year (fall through spring semesters) and paying the continuation fee. If the last course is completed in the fall semester, the candidate must register for the following spring semester and pay half the continuation fee.

Th.M. Student Learning Goals
Upon graduation, the student will:

1. Demonstrate a breadth of knowledge in the student’s chosen field of study and cognate fields.
2. Demonstrate the ability to produce a scholarly work that makes an original contribution to the student’s chosen discipline.
3. Demonstrate further preparation for pastoral ministry, teaching ministry, or for more advanced graduate study.
4. Demonstrate, in addition to Greek and Hebrew, a working knowledge of one language for scholarly research.

Th.M. Degree Requirements

Th.M. Fields
The Th.M. degree is offered in two fields: Biblical Studies and Historical and Theological Studies. Each candidate must select a concentration within his or her chosen field. The following concentrations are offered: Old Testament, New Testament, Church History, Systematic Theology, and Apologetics.

Each candidate is assigned an academic advisor by their corresponding field committee. The Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation Field Committee supervises the work of the candidates in the Biblical Studies field. The Historical and Theological Studies Field Committee supervises the work of the candidates in the Theological Studies field.
Th.M. Courses
Six courses are required for the Th.M. degree. At least three courses must be in the candidate’s concentration. The candidate may choose the remaining courses from any of the advanced level courses (Th.M. and Ph.D.) or from approved graduate courses in other institutions of higher learning. Up to two of the six courses may be taken as directed readings or independent studies. Normally, the candidate may transfer a maximum of two graduate courses from other institutions, only one of which may count towards the three required courses in the candidate’s concentration. A candidate who has completed the M.Div. degree at Westminster may petition the appropriate Field Committee for permission to transfer a third graduate course from another institution of higher learning. However, each student will be required to take at least two courses in his or her chosen field at Westminster. A maximum of three “non-classroom” courses (such as directed reading, independent studies, and transfer credit from other institutions) is allowed.

For credit transfer limits from a first theological degree, see Chapter 6.

When planning to take a course at another school, the student should consult his or her advisor, make arrangements for enrollment at the other school, and report to the Registrar at Westminster in writing before the beginning of the semester when he or she will enroll at the other school. Failure to conform to these stipulations may result in withdrawal of the student from the program and in the refusal of Westminster to count these courses toward degree requirements. If no Westminster course is taken in the semester a student is enrolled elsewhere, the student will not pay a fee to Westminster.

The policies pertaining to Advanced Theological Writing are the same for all degree programs.

In addition to the six required courses, each candidate must complete PT 421P Theological Bibliography & Research Methods. Candidates must take this course (on a pass/fail, non-credit basis and without tuition charge) in the year that they matriculate.

Th.M. Languages
While knowledge of the original languages of Scripture is required of all Th.M. students, special aptitude in Hebrew is requisite for concentration in Old Testament and in Greek for concentration in New Testament. For more information about this refer to subsection Greek & Hebrew Placement and Competency Exams above.

The candidate must demonstrate a working knowledge of one language for research. Students in the Biblical Studies field should know either French or German. Students in the Theological Studies field should know French, German, Dutch, or ecclesiastical Latin. If another language is of particular value for the candidate’s studies, the Field Committee, upon request, may approve its substitution. An examination in the language chosen must be sustained prior to the submission of the thesis. If the examination has not been sustained, the candidate cannot submit the thesis to the Academic Affairs Office.

Th.M. Thesis
A master’s thesis on an approved subject within the candidate’s concentration is required. Approval of the thesis proposal by the academic advisor and/or the Field Committee should be obtained within the semester after coursework is completed. Upon approval of the thesis proposal, the Field Committee will appoint a faculty member to share with the academic advisor the responsibility of reading and approving the thesis.

The master’s thesis must be submitted within four and one-half years after the completion of all coursework (based on half-time enrollment). The thesis receives a letter grade and accounts for the final 12 credit hours (equivalent of four courses) of the Th.M. degree. A high standard of scholarly research and writing is expected, and its specific word limit is 50,000 words (excluding bibliography). The thesis must also conform to the format and bibliographic style requirements in “Format Guidelines for WTS Theses, Dissertations and Projects,” which is available at the Center for Theological Writing and online. As an aid for formatting, students are also required to complete the online Format Guidelines Check-in form prior to submission. Three copies of the completed thesis must be submitted to the Academic Affairs Office by March 1 for graduation in the following May. The corresponding thesis fee must be paid prior to submission.

The faculty committee approves theses by May 1. If approved, some minor corrections may be required. The student must submit two copies of the approved thesis in final form to the Academic Affairs Office by May 15th.

Th.M. Comprehensive Examination

Either an oral or written comprehensive examination is administered after submission of the completed thesis. The comprehensive examination must be sustained at least two weeks before the commencement at which the degree is to be conferred.

If the comprehensive examination is oral, it shall be conducted by the appropriate Field Committee under the direction of the coordinator of the department in which the student is concentrating. All current faculty members shall have the opportunity of taking part. To be sustained, the oral examination must be approved by a majority of the faculty members present. If the comprehensive examination is written, it must be approved by the faculty members of the department in which the student is concentrating, in order to be sustained.

Th.M. Program Time Limit

The program time limit to complete all work for the degree of Th.M. is six years from the date of matriculation including any leave of absence or withdrawal period. For a comparison of the number of semesters required to complete the degree based on enrollment status, please refer to the Th.M./Ph.D. Program Timeline. If the student has transferred from the Ph.D. program, the date of the student’s matriculation into the Ph.D. program will be used to determine the length of time the student has been working on Th.M. degree requirements. Students are responsible to report to the Registrar when actions have been taken to meet deadlines in their program. International students must be full-time each semester and are allowed four semesters from the date of matriculation to complete the degree program.

Students who do not expect to graduate within the program time limit must petition for a program extension by contacting their advisor, who will bring the petition before the Field Committee for approval/denial. International students on F/J VISA must first contact the International Student Advisor about obtaining an Extension of Stay Request form. The deadline to submit the petition is January 30.
The Th.M. degree shall be granted only to persons enrolled at Westminster at the time of the completion of their degree requirements.

Modular Th.M. Program

The general regulations governing the Th.M. degree program apply to Modular Th.M. program. All other relevant sections of the catalog should be read in association with the information below.

Purpose of the Modular Th.M. Program

The purpose of the Modular Th.M. program is to increase the student’s knowledge of a major field of theological learning, furthering preparation for ministry, or more advanced graduate study. Designed for pastors or others who are unable to relocate, the program offers courses in a week-long modular format. Students are able to complete the Modular Th.M. program in three years. Housing and other accommodations are included for those who elect the travel package.

Modular Th.M. Program Admission and Credentials

See “Th.M. Program Admissions and Credentials” in the previous section. See Westminster’s website for the admissions deadlines for the Modular Th.M. program.

Modular Th.M. Registration and Academic Policies

See “Th.M. Registration and Academic Policies” in the previous section. A modular Th.M. student who wishes to take a course not categorized as a modular Th.M. course should contact the Registrar’s Office.

After the registration deadline, students are permitted to register late up to three weeks before the course start date. A late registration fee will apply. Students who register late are responsible for completing all pre-course requirements prior to the course start date. No student is permitted to register after the late registration deadline.

Modular Th.M. Degree Requirements

Modular Th.M. Fields

The Th.M. degree is offered in two concentrations: Biblical Studies and Historical and Theological Studies. The Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation Field Committee has supervision of the work of the candidates in the Biblical Studies concentration. The Historical and Theological Studies Field Committee has supervision of the work of the candidates in the Historical and Theological Studies concentration. The Field Committee will assign each candidate an academic advisor.

Modular Th.M. Courses

See “Th.M. Courses” in the previous section, for all requirements. Modules are typically offered three times per year, in June and August with the travel package, and in January without the travel package. See the website for the course schedule.

Any Apologetics, Church History, or Systematic Theology course counts toward the Historical and Theological Studies concentration. Any Old Testament or New Testament course counts toward the Biblical Studies concentration. Students must take at least three courses in their area of concentration.

Each course normally requires readings to be completed prior to the beginning of the course. The details of pre-course requirements are made available online approximately six weeks prior to the course. Post-course assignments are due, at most, eight weeks after last day of each module.
In addition to the six required courses, each candidate must complete PT 421P Theological Bibliography & Research Methods prior to taking their third course. PT 421P is offered at least two times per year, during a module.

Modular Th.M. Languages: Students admitted to the Modular Th.M. program in Biblical Studies are required to take a competency exam in either Greek or Hebrew when they register for their first course. Students must register for the exam that corresponds to the area of their thesis. The competency exam must be sustained in the same calendar year as the student’s first module and before the student’s second module. Exams are offered four times per academic year, both online as well as on campus. For the language exam schedule and registration, see the Greek and Hebrew webpage.

See “Th.M. Languages” in the previous section for the research language requirements (German, French, etc). The research language exam may be completed during the week of a modular course, or arrangements may be made to take the exam remotely by establishing a local proctor. In either case, students should coordinate their examination through the Academic Affairs Office.

Modular Th.M. Thesis
See “Th.M. Thesis” in the previous section, for all requirements.

Modular Th.M. Comprehensive Examination
See “Th.M. Comprehensive Examination” in the previous section for all requirements. Video and phone conferencing may be used for Comprehensive Oral Examinations.

Modular Th.M. Program Time Limit
Normally, students complete all six module courses, including PT 421P or its equivalent, in no more than the first three years of study, taking a minimum of two courses per year, and complete all other degree requirements in the last three years of study. The maximum length allowed to complete all work for the degree of Th.M. is six years from the date of matriculation including any leave of absence or withdrawal period. Students who do not expect to graduate within the program time limit must petition for a program extension by contacting their advisor, who will bring the petition before the Field Committee for approval/denial.

Students in the coursework phase of their program who do not take at least one course within an academic year will be withdrawn from the program, unless they petition for a leave of absence (see Chapter 6).

The Th.M. degree shall be granted only to persons enrolled at Westminster at the time of the completion of their degree program.

London Th.M. Program

The general regulations governing the Philadelphia Th.M. degree program apply to the London-based Th.M. program in Historical Theology at the John Owen Centre for theological study (JOCTS). All other relevant sections of the catalog should be read in association with the information below. This program is overseen in consultation with both the Director of the London Program and the Director of the John Owen Centre for theological study.

Purpose of the Program
The London Th.M. is open to all qualified students. The modular format of this Th.M. has been established to provide Reformed theological education in a spiritually needy area of the world with a purposeful design to accommodate United Kingdom and European pastors involved in full-time ministry. A reduced tuition rate is available to U.K. and European citizens.

Benefit to Students

- Students from Europe and the United Kingdom have the unique opportunity to learn Westminster's Reformed theological teaching through the expertise of the Philadelphia faculty.
- Students are afforded the opportunity to experience daily integration of theological study and pastoral ministry.
- Students from North America are given the special opportunity to study in a different culture and to interact with students in the wider Church, thus enhancing Westminster’s mission.
- Unique resources are available to students in London such as access to the Evangelical Library and the leading library of Protestant nonconformity, Dr. Williams' Library.
- Students benefit from teaching by UK professors with expertise in historical theology.
- Students are provided an opportunity for spiritual support, intellectual interaction, and close fellowship due to the intensity of the modular teaching.

London Th.M. Degree Requirements

London Th.M. Courses

Six modular courses are required for the Th.M. in Historical Theology. These courses are offered at the John Owen Centre for theological study at the London Seminary in Finchley. Five courses are normally offered each calendar year. Each module normally meets for four or five consecutive days in January (Winter term), March/April (Spring term), June/July (Summer term), and August/September (Fall term). These courses deal with a range of topics and themes in Reformation and post-Reformation history and theology and are published in advance on the London Program webpage.

In addition to the six modular courses, students must complete a course equivalent to PT 421P Theological Bibliography and Research Methodology, which is offered each year.

Each course normally requires readings to be completed prior to the beginning of the course. The details of pre-course requirements are available from the Director of the John Owen Centre. Registered students receive a reading list from the Centre approximately eight weeks prior to the course, following course module registration.

London Th.M. Program Length

Students enrolled in the London Th.M. program must complete six modules plus a non-credit equivalent PT 421P - Theological Bibliography and Research Methodology.

*Student enrollment status is half-time except during a semester in which only one course is taken. At that point a student is considered less than half-time.
Time Limit
It is expected that candidates will complete all of the requirements for the London degree within six years of the date of matriculation including any leave of absence or withdrawal period. Requests for an extension should be submitted to the chairman of the London Field Committee before the sixth anniversary of the candidate joining the program.

Students can complete all six module courses, including PT 421P or its equivalent, in the first three years of study, and complete all other degree requirements in the last three years of study. Students should be aware that modular courses are offered on a rotating basis. Course registration should be planned accordingly to ensure time-limit deadlines are met. To see all program requirements for planning, students should utilize the Th.M. Degree Completion Worksheet (DCW).

Course Registration
All students in the London program are required to register, including students who are not taking modules. The deadline to register for a course is six weeks in advance of the course start date. To register, all students must register for courses through the Registrar’s Office at the Philadelphia campus. Students should be certain to complete the appropriate registration form for the term in which they are registering. All students must also contact the John Owen Centre by email at johnowen@londonseminary.org to inform the Centre of their intentions in order to ensure proper accommodations.

Late Registration
After the registration deadline, London program students are permitted to register late up to three weeks before the course start date. A late registration fee will apply. Students who register late are responsible for completing all pre-course requirements prior to the course start date. No student is permitted to register after the late registration deadline.

Post-Modular Course Assignment Submission
London program Post-modular course assignments should be submitted electronically in Westminster’s online Course Management system: courses.wts.edu. The deadline for submission is eight weeks after the last day of the module.

Incomplete Requests (Extension for Completion of Course Requirements)
If extenuating circumstances (unusual and unavoidable circumstances) or hardship due to registration in more than one course in the same term prohibit the student from completing a course on time, a grade of “Incomplete” may be given. To receive a grade of 'Incomplete’, a student must submit an Incomplete Request prior to the post-modular course assignment deadline by:

- Securing the approval of both the course professor and the Director of the John Owen Centre.

- Contacting the Westminster Registrar at registrar@wts.edu detailing the course name and grounds for the Incomplete Request, along with documentation confirming approval from both the course professor and the Director of the Centre.

The deadline to contact the Registrar is the post-modular course assignment deadline. If an Incomplete Request is granted by Westminster, students will be notified by the Registrar and be given an “Incomplete” grade with a new deadline. It is important to note that the professor may, at their discretion, reduce the course grade. If an Incomplete Request is not granted, and the student does not submit the course assignment by the submission deadline, the student will be assigned a grade of “W” (withdrawn). If an Incomplete Request is submitted to the Registrar after the deadline, the student will receive a failing grade for the course.

Course Withdrawal

Students in the London Th.M. program may withdraw from a course at any point from course registration until the post-modular course assignment submission deadline. In order to formally withdraw, students must inform the Director of the John Owen Centre and contact the Westminster Registrar at registrar@wts.edu. Following this, students will be assigned a “W” (withdrawn from course) grade on their transcript record. The effective date for withdrawing from a course is the date on which approval is granted by the Registrar. No refund will be given if the course was attended. If a formal withdrawal request is not submitted by the deadline, the student will receive a failing grade for the course.

Language and Comprehensive Oral Examinations

Requirements for the London Th.M. Language and Comprehensive Oral Examinations are congruent with those of the Philadelphia Th.M. program. Video and phone conferencing may be used for Comprehensive Oral Examinations.

London Th.M. Thesis

Approval of Thesis Proposal

Students should consult the Director of the John Owen Centre prior to applying for thesis topic approval. Upon approval, students must contact the Westminster Director of the London Program, who will assign a first reader and a second reader. The role of the second reader will vary. In certain cases, the role will involve reading the thesis at the marking stage; in other cases it may involve some supervision.

Thesis Format

The master’s thesis must reflect a high standard of scholarly research and writing. The thesis must conform to the format and bibliographic style requirements in Format Guidelines and Submission Requirements for WTS Theses, Dissertations and Projects, available online. Format guidelines are revised and re-posted each September. In addition, the London Seminary library contains copies of previous theses that can serve as excellent examples to students of high quality, proven standards.

Thesis Supervision

Candidates in the London Th.M. program should be aware that members of the Philadelphia faculty will be available in person in London at least twice each year to consult about the thesis subject and the candidate’s progress towards completion of the thesis. This time generally coincides with the time the Philadelphia faculty member teaches a module course.

From the beginning stages of thesis work, open communication between the student and the advisor is encouraged in order to guide student progress. Students should freely communicate with their advisor regarding feedback and need for clarification. Students may contact the Director of the John Owen Centre if in need of more detailed expectations from their advisor.

Thesis Submission

Students submitting Th.M. theses from London should follow the instructions outlined under “Th.M. Thesis” above. However, the following exceptions apply: by March 1 the thesis fee should be paid to the John Owen Centre. Regarding submission of the ‘completed thesis’ by March 1, if one of the student’s readers is located in the U.K., the student must submit one of three total copies to the John Owen Centre for the U.K. reader. Furthermore, regarding submission of the final ‘approved thesis’ by May 1, students must send an additional copy electronically or by mail to the John Owen Centre in order to be shelved in the London Seminary library.
Please see the “Format Guidelines and Submission Requirements” available online for more information.

Graduation
A graduation service is typically arranged in London for those graduating from the London Th.M. London degree program, normally in September. U.S. students may choose to graduate at the Philadelphia service in May. The Academic Affairs office in Philadelphia orders graduation regalia and diplomas for London students, which are shipped to students in June of the graduation year. Therefore, London Students are required to follow Westminster’s commencement instructions by submitting related forms and fees.

Billing
U.K. and European students: The John Owen Centre will send students a bill from Westminster. All bills should be paid directly to the Centre in British Pounds.

U.S. and non-EU students: All bills should be paid directly to Westminster’s Finance Office in U.S. Dollars.

Continuation Fees
For candidates who have completed all of the required courses, a continuation fee will be due September 1 for each year in which no new course work will be taken, until a student has been fully approved to graduate. If the last course is completed in the fall semester, one half of the fee amount is due February 1.

Auditing
It is possible for those not enrolled in the London Th.M. program to attend lectures at a reduced fee. Accommodation, if required, will be available (single study bedrooms) during the teaching weeks. Contact the John Owen Centre for more information.
Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.)

The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) is an advanced, professional degree program designed for those engaged in the full-time practice of ministry. It is the highest professional degree offered by Westminster. It differs from a Ph.D. degree in that its focus is on competence in the practice of ministry rather than on advanced academic research. In this sense, it is better compared to other professional doctorates, such as those awarded in medicine (M.D.) or law (J.D.). Therefore, the purpose of the D.Min. program is to develop reflective practitioners in ministry who will grow not only in ministry comprehension and competence, but also in character. Because it is a doctoral degree program, the student is expected to pursue a high standard of expertise in ministry reflection and practice.

While the D.Min. is built upon the biblical, theological, and professional foundations of the M.Div. degree, the student benefits from the integration of the rich practical experiences gained from years of prior ministry. Thus a prerequisite for admission is at least three years in full-time pastoral ministry or Christian service along with the requisite M.Div. or its equivalent. Application of theory and methodology must be evident in the applicant’s history of professional ministry.

The D.Min. is one degree with three concentrations based upon the interests and ministry goals of each student. The student chooses a concentration in Preaching, Pastoral Ministry, or Counseling.

Preaching Concentration

The purpose of the Preaching Concentration is twofold:

The concentration seeks primarily to make good preachers better. This is achieved through intensive evaluation and peer review of the student’s preaching and expository skills. Coursework in the concentration reinforces and develops these skills through a foundational exploration of biblical exposition through extensive reading, as well as specialist courses in various aspects of biblical genre, including narrative, wisdom and poetry, apocalyptic, parable, and epistles. The student will also craft a personal philosophy and practicum for expository preaching.

The concentration also thereby seeks to enable the student to make a significant scholarly contribution to the field of homiletics through an applied research project. The program culminates in the completion of this project, through which the student is expected to demonstrate mastery in a particular area in the field of homiletics.

Pastoral Ministry Concentration

The purpose of the Pastoral Ministry Concentration is twofold:

First, the concentration aims to build on the shepherding skills and competencies gained through previous M.Div. studies, while integrating subsequent ministry experience for the purpose of sharpening and deepening those skills. Foundational areas such as pastoral nurture, preaching, leadership, and evangelism will be studied. Students will be encouraged to examine personal strengths and weaknesses and also to improve competencies in each of these areas. The challenges presented by the contemporary cultural context of ministry will also be considered. Careful attention will be given to the relationship of biblical theology to ministry practice.

Second, the concentration strives to enable the student to make a significant contribution to the field of pastoral ministry through the Applied Research Project. The program culminates in the completion of the project, through which the student is expected to demonstrate mastery in a particular area of practical theology. Ideally this work is accomplished in the student’s current ministry context. Identifying a problem, challenge or question, proposing and applying a ministry model, and evaluating this model are essential aspects of the project. This work must be built upon a biblical foundation, taking into account both historical precedents and contemporary influences on the area in view.

Counseling Concentration
The purpose of the Counseling Concentration is twofold:

First, it aims to equip students for a high degree of competence in skill areas associated with pastoral counseling. Competence includes effective functioning not only in the professional areas of relating, assessment, and problem-solving skills, but also in conceptual abilities related to personality, learning, integration, and other theoretical constructs. Underlying these performances must be the foundational abilities to do self-analysis, to discern and relate cultural patterns to ministry, and to bring all practice under the judgment of a biblical-theological philosophy of ministry.

Second, the concentration aims to enable the student to make a contribution to the field of pastoral counseling through a D.Min. project. The project is the student's actual counseling done in an unexplored, skill-enhancing, or problematic area of counseling ministry. The project must rest upon a biblical base, take into account any previous work done in the particular area of research, define in repeatable steps the course of the project, and evaluate its conformity to biblical principles and effectiveness in reaching its goals.

Counseling Concentration Prerequisite: Students within the D.Min. Counseling Concentration are required to take the following prerequisite courses within the first year in the program:

- PTC 151 Dynamics of Biblical Change
- PTC 261 Human Personality

Students may choose to complete these courses either through Westminster or through the Christian Counseling and Education Foundation (CCEF). If the student completes these courses prior to matriculation, either through Westminster or CCEF, this requirement will be waived.

Urban Mission Concentration
Westminster is not accepting applications for the urban mission concentration. This concentration seeks to develop skills for leadership and disciplined self-analysis in ministry in urban settings in North America and overseas. The student will learn to interact theologically with insights drawn from the behavioral and social sciences for a better understanding of urban cultures and urban ministries. A constant effort will be made to coordinate all the phases of the program with the concrete particular needs arising out of each student’s particular place of ministry.

D.Min. Student Learning Goals
Upon graduation, the student will:

1. Exhibit a deep love for the Triune God, his word, his truth and his church; and a Christ-like humility in relation with others.
2. Demonstrate the ability to be a reflective practitioner in ministry through interrelating theory and practice.
3. Demonstrate an advanced understanding of the integration of ministry with the various theological disciplines.
4. Have made a contribution to the understanding and practice of ministry through the completion of a doctoral-level project.
D.Min. International Students
D.Min. students will not be able to obtain a full-time student visa through this program since the Doctor of Ministry does not require full-time residency and is intended to be a part-time program concurrent with a student’s ongoing ministry.

D.Min. Non Native English Speakers
The policies pertaining to all non-native English speakers are the same for all degree programs. Those students for whom an Advanced Theological Writing course is required must take the course in the week prior to the Orientation module.

D.Min. Registration
Students can view details about the D.Min. program in the D.Min. Module Preview on Westminster Courses. The D.Min. Module Preview contains course offering information, course syllabi, and a weekly schedule layout.

Registration opens late March/early April. Students are encouraged to register as early as possible to ensure that all pre-module assignments are completed by the first day of the module. Students must register for D.Min. modules no later than July 11. After the registration deadline, late registrations must be approved by the D.Min. program director. If approved, a late fee will apply. Registration is contingent upon receipt of a transcript showing completion of any prerequisite degree. Registration deadlines are stated in the Academic Calendar. No student in the D.Min. program is permitted to register after the first day of the module.

D.Min. Drops, Withdrawals and related issues
All requests to drop or withdraw from a module, withdraw from the program, or any other request that may affect a student’s academic record or enrollment status must be communicated in writing to the Registrar’s Office for consideration of approval. If the Registrar’s Office does not receive written communication, that request will not be recognized by the administration. Written communication may be in the form of email, fax, or letter.

D.Min. Incomplete Requests (Requests for extension to complete post-modular assignments)
If extenuating circumstances (unusual and unavoidable circumstances which hinder completion of assigned work) prohibit students from submitting post-modular assignments by the deadline, a grade of incomplete may be requested.

Incomplete Request Petition: In order to request a grade of incomplete, the student must submit to the Registrar’s Office a written petition by the deadline indicated below. The petition must include the extenuating circumstances which the student believes warrant an incomplete and written approval from both the professor and Director of the D.Min. program. (Approvals emailed by the professor and D.Min. director to the Registrar’s Office are acceptable.) Upon receipt of the petition, the Registrar’s Office will seek the appropriate faculty committee approval. If the incomplete request is granted, the student will be assigned an interim grade of “I” and a new deadline (up to 4 weeks maximum from the original deadline) to submit all post-modular assignment work. At the professor’s discretion the grade will or will not be reduced. The final grade assigned by the professor will replace the “I” grade on the student’s transcript. If the assignment is not submitted by the new deadline, the student will receive a failing grade for that module. If the request for an incomplete is not granted, the Registrar’s Office will automatically assign a grade of “W” for the module.

The deadline to submit an incomplete petition is December 15 for the PR 1 module only and November 15 for all other August modules. If offered, the deadline for a January module is April 15. If a petition is submitted after the deadline, a failing grade for that module will be assigned.
D.Min. Degree Completion Worksheets

A Degree Completion Worksheet (DCW) indicates the requirements necessary to complete a particular degree program and is designed to aid in student academic planning and advising. It is important that students become familiar with and make use of the DCW for their particular D.Min. concentration. DCW’s are available on the Registrar’s Office section of the Seminary’s website.

D.Min. Financial Information

Tuition/fee payment for the D.Min. program is based on a yearly fee structure. The yearly fee remains the same regardless of the number of modules or credit hours taken in a given academic year and does not include any prerequisite courses that are taken at Westminster while enrolled in the D.Min. program.

For information regarding how to submit payment, please contact the Finance Office.

D.Min. Degree Requirements

D.Min. Course Work

The D.Min. modules are designed to accommodate the schedules of those who are active practitioners in ministry and Christian service. Eight modular courses are required for the D.Min. degree. Therefore, the eight modules will require no more than eight weeks of residence in total. D.Min. Counseling students must complete their prerequisite requirement beforehand.

Each module contains the following elements: theoretical issues, skills, and practicum. Students will be required to complete an assignment before attending the module, as well as after the module. Post-modular work must be uploaded electronically to Westminster's course management system by the following deadlines:

- November 15 following August modules (except for PR 1 core module)
- December 15 following PR 1 core module
- April 15 following January modules

No credit will be given until all assignments are completed successfully. All work will be graded by the course instructor. Students may not enroll in new modules until work in the previous course has been completed. A minimum grade-point average of 3.00 must be maintained for the student to graduate.

The student must successfully complete eight modules including the following:

I. Core Modules - Four Required Modules*:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Pastoral Ministry / Counseling</th>
<th>Preaching</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(1)</td>
<td>PR 1: Introduction and Orientation to Graduate Work</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(2)</td>
<td>PR 2: Pastoral Theology</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(3)</td>
<td>PR 3: Counseling and Christian Ministry</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(4)</td>
<td>PR 4: Theology of Missions and Evangelism</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Core modules are offered in August.
II. Concentration Modules – Two Modules: Choose two D.Min. modules offered by Westminster in your area of concentration that fulfill this requirement.

III. Elective Modules – Two Modules (these options are designed to allow the student flexibility in supporting their choice of concentration):

1. Choose any module not already taken.
2. Take a module at another institution and receive transfer credit.
3. Take a module through independent study.
4. Choose an elective offering through the D.Min. Program.
5. Choose a Ph.D. course adjusted to the D.Min. requirements.

Concentration and Elective Modules are offered in August and may also be offered in January. Students in the D.Min. program may take a Ph.D. and Th.M. course offered in January or during the summer for elective credit upon the approval of the D.Min. director and the professor of the course.

IV. D.Min. General: The D.Min. General option is designed to meet the needs of students who are not ordained ministers, but desire the education offered in the D.Min. program. This option allows students to replace two required courses with two electives in their area of interest. In order to be approved for this option, the applicant must submit to the D.Min. Director an Academic Plan Proposal, listing the eight modules that the student plans to take. All students will be required to take PR 1 and one other required PR module in his or her area of interest. The remaining six modules can be comprised of modules within the pastoral ministry and counseling concentrations. A maximum of two “non-classroom” modules (via transfer credit and/or independent studies) is allowed. The Academic Plan Proposal must be approved by the D.Min. Director and the Practical Theology field committee.

An example of an academic plan for a D.Min. General student interested in the area of counseling:

PR 1: Introduction and Orientation to Graduate Work
PR 3: Counseling and Christian Ministry
6 counseling modules

Applied Research Project

Each student will complete the Applied Research Project in his or her area of concentration. This will account for the final six credit hours of the degree. Please see the D.Min. Manual for a detailed guide describing the project.

The Applied Research Project is the culmination of the D.Min. program. It enables the student to conduct thorough research and develop expertise in a specific area of interest. It is designed to focus on a particular problem within the discipline of Preaching, Pastoral Ministry, Counseling, or Urban Mission and to make a contribution to the student’s understanding in that area. During PR 1 Introduction and Orientation to Graduate work, the student will be introduced to project design.

The Project Proposal describes the project’s intended research, ministry model, and timetable. The proposal is developed in consultation with the student’s faculty advisor and the D.Min. Director. Ordinarily, the proposal is submitted as part of the PR 1 module and should be approved within the first year of the program. More detailed guidelines and elements of the project proposal can be found in the Applied Research Project and Proposal Guide, available on WTS Courses. The Applied Research Project must conform to the format and bibliographic style requirements found in the Format Guidelines and Submission Requirements for WTS Theses, Dissertations and Projects, available from the Center for Theological Writing and online. As an aid for formatting, students are required to complete the online
Format Guidelines Check-in form prior to submission. Further guidelines can be secured from the student’s advisor.

Four copies of the completed project, along with the external reader fee, must be submitted to the Academic Affairs Office no later than November 15 for graduation in the following May. The project will be reviewed by the student’s academic advisor, a second reader from within the Westminster faculty, and by an individual unaffiliated with Westminster who is actively engaged in ministry related to the topic of the research project.

A project “defense” will be scheduled on campus usually before March 15. The Practical Theology Department, taking into consideration the recommendation of all readers, will make the final determination on the project and the degree program as a whole. This will be communicated to the student by April 1 unless otherwise notified. If approved, some minor changes may be required.

The student must submit two copies of the approved project to the Academic Affairs Office by May 1. NOTE: The project will not be accepted for review unless all examinations have been sustained.

D.Min. Enrollment Status, Program Length and Time Limit

The D.Min. degree program commences in August and requires no fewer than three years to complete. The program is designed to meet the needs of ministry professionals. As such, students enrolled in the D.Min. program, whether in the coursework or post-coursework phase, are considered to be engaged in part-time study, with a “less than half-time” enrollment status.

The D.Min. program time limit is six years, in which the eight modules should be completed in the first four years, and the research project in the remaining two years. Students who do not expect to graduate within the program time limit must petition for a program extension by contacting their advisor, who will bring the petition before the Field Committee for approval/denial. Deadline to submit the petition is November 15. See D.Min. Program Length chart below.

Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) Degree Program

A student who holds a baccalaureate degree and a first theological degree from approved institutions receives the degree of Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) on the completion of the prescribed program of study. A minimum of two years of full-time residence study and a dissertation are required.

To satisfy the biblical language requirement for the Ph.D. programs, the applicant must have the equivalent of the Greek and Hebrew requirements for the M.Div. or M.A.R. programs at Westminster.

The purpose of the program is to develop in a limited number of advanced students of high intellectual ability the capacity for independent inquiry and criticism required for doing original research in a particular area of theological study, teaching in a theological seminary or college, or providing specialized leadership in the church.

The degree of Ph.D. is offered in two fields: (1) Historical and Theological Studies and (2) Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation. Faculty Field Committees bear general responsibility for the direction of the program, admitting students, supervising the curriculum, setting area examinations, and recommending candidates for the degree.

Ph.D. Student Learning Goals
Upon graduation, the student will:

1. Demonstrate a breadth of knowledge in their chosen field of study and cognate fields.

2. Demonstrate the ability to produce a scholarly work which makes an original contribution to the student’s chosen discipline.

3. Demonstrate a sense of and commitment to the vocation of theological education.

4. Demonstrate, in addition to Greek and Hebrew, a working knowledge of two languages for scholarly research.

Ph.D. International Students
For policies pertaining to international students, including the full-time status and program time limit requirement, please refer to Chapter 5. International students must maintain full-time status.

Ph.D. Registration
The doctoral student will be assigned an academic advisor by the Field Committee, who will advise the student regarding the program of study throughout the period of residence. The entire program must achieve an appropriate balance between specialization and breadth whereby the student may need the academic advisor’s approval for courses taken each semester.

Ph.D. Degree Requirements
1. Language Competency examinations in Biblical Languages: see Chapter 8.

2. Preliminary examinations in Old Testament (including Biblical Hebrew), New Testament (including New Testament Greek), Church History, Systematic Theology (and Ethics), and Apologetics are set by the particular departments. In each case, the examinations may be oral or written or both, as determined by the department coordinator. These examinations must be sustained within one year after initial registration in the Ph.D. program, except for Hebrew and Greek proficiency, which must be demonstrated upon entry into the program. Sustaining these examinations admits the student to the status of prospective candidacy.
3. Language Exams: The student must demonstrate a reading knowledge of two languages designated by the Field Committee in consultation with the student. All Ph.D. students are strongly encouraged to enter the program with reading proficiency in one research language, normally either German or French (exceptions can be made for another language if deemed appropriate by the Field Committee). The first research language examination should be sustained by fall of the second academic year. The second research language examination should be sustained by fall of the third academic year. Both exams must be sustained prior to comprehensive exams. Examinations are administered by the Academic Affairs Office.

4. Course Work: In addition to the course work indicated for either field, each candidate must complete PT 421P Theological Bibliography and Research Methods (on a pass/fail basis and without tuition charge) in the year that he/she matriculates.

For any required external courses at another school, the student should consult his or her academic advisor, make arrangements for enrollment at the other school, and submit to the Westminster Registrar a Request for External Course Form before enrolling at the other school. Failure to conform to these stipulations may result in withdrawal of the student from the program and in the refusal of Westminster to count these courses toward degree requirements. If no Westminster course is taken the semester a student is enrolled elsewhere, the student will not pay a continuation fee to Westminster.

For courses completed in Westminster’s Th.M. program, transfer credit is given depending on the nature and quality of the work; however, individuals who have actually obtained the Th.M. degree from Westminster may be given credit for up to five courses of the residence requirements. For the transfer credit policy regarding courses completed in Westminster’s Th.M. program and general transfer of credit requirements and for information on limitations in credit for coursework pursued before the completion of requirements for Westminster’s M.Div. or M.A.R degrees, please see Chapter 6 – Transfer of Credit/Shared Credit.

5. Comprehensive examinations are set by the Field Committees and are to be sustained within five years after initial registration in the Ph.D. program for the Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation field, four years for the Historical and Theological Studies field. An oral examination of two hours on the basis of earlier written examinations shall complete the series of comprehensive examinations. The comprehensive exams may only be taken after all other residency requirements are fulfilled (see 1 through 4 above).

6. Dissertation Proposal: The academic advisor shall encourage the student to give thought to the choice of a dissertation topic from the very beginning of his or her residency. Approval of the dissertation proposal can only be granted when the student has successfully completed both written and oral comprehensive examinations. The dissertation proposal must be approved within a year of sustaining comprehensive exams in the Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation field; within a semester of sustaining comprehensive exams in the Historical and Theological Studies field. Sustaining these examinations and approval of the dissertation proposal admits the student to the status of full candidacy.

7. Dissertation: The student must submit a dissertation. After approval of the dissertation proposal, the student has three years to write the dissertation. Upon admission to full candidacy, the Field Committee will appoint a dissertation advisor and one additional member of the Dissertation Committee. In making their plans, students should be aware that faculty will not ordinarily supervise dissertations while on professional advancement leaves. A schedule of faculty leaves can be obtained from the Academic Affairs Office. At least one member of a graduate school faculty other than Westminster will be added later as an external reader upon the recommendation of the Dissertation Committee. International students on F-1 or J-1 visas should consult the regulations concerning full-time status for international students (see Chapter 5) and the deadline for submitting dissertations.

One copy of the completed dissertation is to be submitted for the advisor's approval by the December 15 deadline that follows this three-year period. If the advisor approves, the student inserts any small changes recommended by the advisor and presents four copies of the reviewed and completed dissertation to the Academic Affairs Office by the January 30 deadline. (See below for the January 30 procedure for submission.)

Explanation: The copy submitted on December 15 should include all appropriate grammatical and typographical editing, and should be checked for clarity of expression and conformity to Format Guidelines and Submission Requirements for WTS Theses, Dissertations, and Projects. As an aid for formatting, students are required to complete the online Format Guidelines Check-in form prior to the January 30th submission. Dissertations that still have problems in any of these areas will not be approved, but will be returned to the student for further work. (Students who are less skillful in written expression in English should consider employing a professional editor in preparing this copy. Since many students are seeking editing help at just this time of year, students must be prepared for a correspondingly long turn-around time on editing jobs.)

The dissertation must be a contribution to the knowledge of the subject worthy of publication and must show the candidate's ability to conduct independent research, to deal constructively with theological problems, and to communicate clearly and effectively in written English. The Ph.D. dissertation specific word limit is 100,000 (excluding bibliography).

The dissertation must conform to the format and bibliographic style requirements in the Format Guidelines and Submission Requirements for WTS Theses, Dissertations, and Projects, available from the Library and online. Four copies of the completed dissertation, four copies of an abstract of 350 words or less, and the external reader fee must be submitted to the Academic Affairs Office by January 30 for the following May graduation.

The dissertation will be submitted for review to an individual who is unaffiliated with Westminster but who is an expert in the field addressed in the dissertation and, in most circumstances, presently teaches in a Ph.D. program. Taking into account the evaluation provided by this individual, the appropriate Field Committee will make a final decision regarding approval of the dissertation by April 1 for May graduation. If approved, some minor corrections may be required.

The student must submit the two copies of the approved dissertation, including the abstract, to the Academic Affairs Office by May 1. One copy of the dissertation will be bound and shelved with the bound periodicals in the Montgomery Library. The second copy will be sent to UMI/ProQuest to be published. The publication requirement will not be satisfied by any other form of publication, although microfilming does not preclude later publication by other methods, such as the mandatory publication of the abstract in the Westminster Theological Journal. Forms for UMI Dissertation Publishing and the Survey of Earned Doctorates, previously distributed by the Academic Affairs Office, must be returned with the approved dissertation by May 1.

8. Dissertation Defense: Upon approving the dissertation, the student’s Field Committee will set the time for a final examination both on the dissertation and on areas of knowledge cognate with it. This examination shall be conducted by faculty members of the relevant Field Committee, and the external reader may be invited to participate. To be sustained, this examination must be approved by a majority of the faculty members present.

Ph.D. Program Time Limit

All work for the Ph.D. must be completed within three years after admission to full candidacy. International students must be full-time each semester and are allowed 12 semesters from the date of matriculation for the completion of the Ph.D.

For all other students, the program time limit to complete all work for the Ph.D. degree is eight years from the date of matriculation (including any leave of absence or withdrawal period). For a comparison of the number of semesters required to complete the degree based on enrollment status, please refer to the Program Length table. If the student has transferred from the Th.M. program, the student’s matriculation into the Th.M. program will be used to determine the length of time the student has been working on Ph.D. degree requirements. Students who do not expect to graduate within the program time limit must petition for a program extension by contacting their advisor, who will bring the petition before the Field Committee for approval/denial. International students on F/J VISA must first contact the International Student Advisor about obtaining an Extension of Stay Request form. Deadline to submit the petition is January 15.

The Ph.D. degree shall be granted only to persons enrolled at Westminster at the time of the completion of their program of study.

Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation

Students in the field of Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation must also demonstrate competence in Biblical Aramaic in one of two ways: 1.) passing an examination or 2.) passing OT 461 or OT 761 with a grade of B- or better no more than three years prior to initial matriculation into the Ph.D. or Th.M.

Course Work
A total of fifteen graduate-level courses is required, plus PT 421P. This includes the following:

1. Four seminars: NT 941 New Testament Use of the Old Testament; NT 981 History of Interpretation; NT 993 Hermeneutical Foundations; and OT 903 Critical Methodologies. NT 941 and NT 981 are offered in the fall semester in alternating years. NT 993 and OT 903 are offered in the spring semester in alternating years. A full-time student should plan to take each of these four seminars the first time it is offered during the student’s time of residence.

2. Three directed reading courses: OT 981 Readings in Old Testament Introduction and Theology, NT 921 Readings in New Testament Introduction and Theology, and NT 791 Readings in the Literature of Post-Biblical Judaism (Part 1: Early Judaism). Either OT 981 or NT 921 must be completed by the end of the second semester of full-time residence. A second reading course, either OT 981 or NT 921, must be completed by the end of the third semester of full-time residence. The third reading course, NT 791, may be taken at any time during a student’s time of residence.

3. Eight elective courses: May require approval by the student’s academic advisor. These electives must be NT or OT courses or courses in other concentrations (AP, CH and ST) that are on the approved list to count as an NT or OT course. Only with written permission of the advisor may a student take a course in another concentration that is not on the approved list. With the written permission of the advisor, a student already matriculated at Westminster may take courses at other graduate institutions for elective credit, including courses at Jerusalem University College. Ordinarily students will not be granted transfer credit for courses completed at other institutions prior to enrollment. Study completed at Westminster more than five years prior to enrollment will also not be counted for credit. See Chapter 6 for the Seminary’s transfer of credit policy. A maximum of four elective courses may be independent studies.

Comprehensive Examinations
The written comprehensive examinations in Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation will be administered three times a year: the last full week in September, February, and April. The Coordinator of the Field Committee should be notified in writing one month in advance of the student’s intention to take the comprehensive examinations (neither earlier nor later). There may be no more than one day between the two written examinations. The first written examination covers the area seminars; the second written examination covers the student’s area of concentration in the canon. Each written examination will be five hours long.

All students in the Ph.D. Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation program will be tested on both the written and oral comprehensive examinations and on the original language of that corpus of material which they have declared as their concentration. Students will be expected to translate and parse passages selected at random. It is strongly suggested that students decide early in their course work what their concentration will be and begin serious work on mastering that corpus in the original language.

An oral examination of approximately two hours normally will be given two weeks after the written examinations.

Historical and Theological Studies
This is a single degree program, within which are offered the following three concentrations: 1) Church History, 2) Systematic Theology, and 3) Apologetics.

Each person should choose one of these concentrations at the time of application.

Course Work
For students in all of these concentrations, twelve doctoral-level courses are required. Normally, ten of these courses must be taken at Westminster and two must be taken at the doctoral level at another accredited university or seminary. Of the ten courses to be taken at Westminster, five must be in the student’s concentration (the concentration within which the dissertation will be written), one must be in each of the other two concentrations, and three may be electives from either the Ph.D. Historical and Theological Studies program or the Ph.D. Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation program. It is expected that students will maintain a balance between classroom/seminar courses and independent/directed reading courses. Up to five of the twelve courses may be directed reading or independent studies. Courses may require approval from the student’s academic advisor.

Because of their interdisciplinary nature, many courses count toward more than one concentration. A full listing of courses that may count toward one of the Historical and Theological Studies concentrations are given in Chapter 10.

All course work must be completed within three years of the student’s initial registration in the Ph.D. program. The residency requirement of two years is an absolute minimum length of time that the student should expect to study on campus for course work. Only students who already have reading knowledge of French and German, who are able to waive the preliminary exams, and who are able to devote full time to their studies will actually be able to complete all the necessary requirements within a two-year period. If students need to complete preliminary studies or work to finance their education, they should plan to spend a longer period of time in residence.

Students who have taken advanced work beyond a first theological degree at another institution may be given transfer credit by their advisor for up to four courses of the residence requirement, depending on the nature and quality of the work. Credit for work pursued before the completion of requirements for the first theological degree shall be limited to two courses. No courses credited toward the first theological or other degree (with the exception of work toward Westminster’s Th.M. as noted in the Ph.D. Degree Requirements section) may be a part of the program for the Ph.D. degree.

Students who have attained the first theological degree at Westminster may, upon petition to the Field Committee, be granted permission to take up to two additional courses of their twelve courses at another accredited, doctoral-level institution, for a total of four external courses.

A student who is granted permission to receive credit for four external courses must still take five doctoral courses at Westminster in the chosen concentration, one doctoral course in each of the other two concentrations in the field, and one elective as a directed reading course, or elective course from among the doctoral course offerings in either the Historical and Theological Studies field or the Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation field.

Comprehensive Examinations
The written comprehensive examinations test the student’s knowledge of each of the three concentrations within the field. In the student’s chosen concentration, extensive and in-depth knowledge is expected. The student will be required both to analyze and to evaluate the central documents and ideas within that concentration, and an ability to contribute creatively to discussion of the fundamental problems in the concentration must be demonstrated. In each of the other two concentrations in the field, the student is expected to show a general familiarity with basic issues and trends and to be aware of the contributions of specific individuals. In all three concentrations, the student must reflect on the Seminary’s own heritage and perspective, although no student is ever required to agree with the Seminary’s position on any issue. Detailed descriptions of the requirements for all of the examinations, including recommended reading lists for the examinations, are available to matriculated students from the Academic Affairs Office.

The written comprehensive examinations in Historical and Theological Studies will be administered only three times a year: the last full week of October, the second full week of February, and the first full week of April. A written request should be sent to the Coordinator of the Field Committee one month in advance. of the student’s intention to take the comprehensive examinations. This means that the requests to schedule an examination may come only in the last week of September, the second week of January, and the first week of March. Once the examinations are scheduled, the student may not change the date or time. The written examinations are on two days—eight hours for the students’ concentration on the first day and six hours for the other two concentrations within the field (three hours each) on the second day. There may not be more than one day between the two written examinations. The oral portion of the comprehensive examination will be scheduled as soon as possible after the written comprehensive examinations have been accepted.
9. Recommended Course Schedule Charts

Students are advised to follow the Recommended Course Schedule for their degree and emphasis to gain maximum benefit from the curriculum. A student who follows the schedule should not encounter course scheduling conflicts or course prerequisite issues. However, for all schedules, students are not required to take elective credits in the semester or term indicated. Students may take elective credits during any semester or term, as long as prerequisite requirements are met and there is no scheduling conflict with a required course.

Course credit hours in parentheses.

1. Spring matriculation will necessitate degree completion in 3 1/2 years for the MDiv and 2 1/2 years for the MAR.
2. Students matriculating in the Fall semester could choose to take both Fall Greek and Hebrew B. This combination is not recommended, however, as it requires taking both Greek and Hebrew in the Winter term. Students interested in pursuing this combination should first consult their Greek and Hebrew professors.
10. Course Descriptions

Course codes for all courses are to be interpreted as follows: The letters indicate the department, division within the department, or major: Old Testament, New Testament, Church History, Systematic Theology, Apologetics, Practical Theology. Courses indicated as ‘PTC’ are primarily counseling courses; ‘PTE’ are primarily evangelism courses; and ‘PTM’ are primarily Urban Mission courses.

Except for D.Min. modules, the first digit indicates the level of the course:

- 0 Propaedeutic and non-credit courses
- 1-6 M.A.C., M.A.R., or M.Div. courses
- 7-9 Th.M. and Ph.D. courses

Th.M., Ph.D., and D.Min. courses are three credit hours each. All other course credit hours vary. The letter “p” following a course number indicates that the course is graded on a pass-fail basis. A hyphenated number is appended to the course number for courses that can or must be taken more than once.

The Seminary reserves the right to add, withdraw, or change courses without prior notice.

Apologetics

Apologetics is a theological discipline that seeks to defend and commend the Christian faith. The apologetic tradition of Westminster attempts to apply Reformed theology to the challenges that confront Christianity and the church. Apologetics is an indispensable preparation for gospel ministry and for evangelism.

To that end, the Apologetics curriculum enables students:

- To understand biblical religion as a world-and-life view, rather than a set of isolated truths
- To develop arguments which address the deepest levels of various worldviews
- To articulate biblical principles for the defense and commendation of the gospel of Jesus Christ in evangelism
- To understand the patterns and cultural trends of our times
- To develop answers to some of the most frequent challenges raised against Christian faith
- To know something of the history of thought, Western and non-Western
- To be familiar with some of the most significant apologists throughout history
- To articulate the relationship between faith and reason
Apologetics Masters Level Courses

AP 101 Introduction to Apologetics (on-campus and DE)
Purpose:
- To introduce students to Christian apologetics
- To learn the art of Christian persuasion
- To learn how to lift up Christ and give reasons for the hope that we have (1 Peter 3:15)
- To develop tools in order to understand the surrounding culture

Topics covered include the biblical basis for apologetics, developing a world and life view, the issue of meaning, covenantal, engaging contemporary culture, and highlights in the history of apologetics. We will give special attention to the problem of meaning, the problem of evil, world religions (including Islam), science and faith, reason and revelation, and aesthetics.

Fall semester, three hours. Dr. Edgar, Dr. Oliphint, Dr. Wynne.

AP 213 Principles of Christian Apologetics
Purpose:
- To build on the principles established in AP 101
- To establish the Scriptural warrant for the Christian faith
- To understand the place and importance of evidences in apologetics
- To establish biblical principles necessary for a defense of Christianity

Topics covered include the nature and structure of arguments, an in-depth analysis and critique of some of the traditional proofs for the existence of God, and the necessity of a Reformed doctrine of revelation for apologetics.

Spring semester, three hours, Dr. Oliphint.
Prerequisites: AP 101 and NT 013, or equivalent, completed or in progress.

AP 403 Reformed Objection to Natural Theology
See AP 703. Fall semester, two hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Oliphint.

AP 413 Christianity in Conflict I
See AP 713. Winter term, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Edgar.

AP 473 Christianity in Conflict V
See AP 773. Winter term, two hours. Dr. Edgar

AP 511 Christianity and Film
Purpose:
· To learn how to “read” a film (in general)
· To explore the role of film in contemporary culture (i.e., how film reflects and shapes culture)
· To develop a Christian framework for looking at film
Topics covered include film and culture; the idea of “story” and representation in film. A key question: What do we learn through film of other human beings, of our own hearts, and even of God himself?
Students will watch and journal about one film per week. The weekly film will be watched outside of class time.
Fall semester, two hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Edgar.

AP 522 Music and Worship in the Changing Church
Purpose:
· To acquaint students with several issues surrounding music and worship in today’s church
· To arrive at certain solutions for the challenges involved
· To look at these issues from the point of view of the pastor, worshipers, and musicians
· To understand the balance between preaching, music, and liturgy
Topics covered include Bible study, the history of music in worship, comparative evaluations of church worship styles, field work in several churches, and discussions of hymns and other worship music.
Winter term, two hours. Mr. Ward.

AP 541 Secularization Theory
See AP 841. Fall semester, two hours. Dr. Edgar.

AP 543 Intercultural Apologetics
See AP 843. Spring semester, two hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Park.

AP 663 Warrant and Christian Epistemology
See AP 963. Spring semester, two hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Oliphint.

AP 681 Theology of Science
See AP 981. Spring semester, two hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Poythress.
Prerequisites: ST 113, and AP 101, completed or in progress.

AP 693 Topics in Science and Apologetics
Purpose:
• To introduce principles of apologetics of science
• To enhance skills in analysis and research in apologetics and theology of science
• To enhance skills in communicating issues in science and apologetics to a broader public

Topics covered may include both perennial issues (miracle, providence, "natural law," general revelation) and issues of current interest, such as cosmology, Darwinism, human origin, days of creation, Noah’s flood, environmentalism, science education, and the "new atheism." Topics may vary depending on student interest. The course will be conducted mostly as a discussion and seminar, interacting with student research. This course may be taken more than once.
Spring semester, one hour. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Poythress.
Apologetics Th.M./Ph.D. Level Courses

AP 703 Reformed Objection to Natural Theology
Purpose:
- To focus on the discussion of Natural Theology from a Reformed theological perspective
- To interact with various analyses of Reformed objections to Natural Theology
- To analyze and work toward the development of a Reformed approach to Natural Theology.
Topics covered include twentieth century philosophical analyses of the Reformed objection to Natural Theology, objections of Natural Theology from within the Reformed theological context, as well as the apologetic dimension of Natural Theology.
Fall semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Oliphint.

AP 713 Christianity in Conflict I
Purpose:
- To study the major apologetics texts of the church in the first thousand years of its history
- To compare the methods and arguments used
- To assess those methods in relation to the needs in apologetics today
Topics covered include texts by Justin Martyr, Tertullian, Iranaeus, Origen, Augustine, and Boethius. The approach will generally be inductive, based on the actual texts. Some lectures will be given.
Winter term. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Edgar.

AP 721 The Apologetics of Cornelius Van Til
Purpose:
- To study in-depth the principles, method, and content of Van Til’s apologetic
- To develop and critique Van Til’s apologetic approach
- To apply the insights of Van Til’s apologetic to current challenges to the Christian faith
Topics covered include the impact of Van Til’s apologetic in the context of its development. There will be some attention given to critical analyses of Van Til’s position. Seminar discussions will focus on the content of Van Til’s thought.
Spring semester. (Offered as summer module in 2016-2017.) Dr. Oliphint.

AP 733 Christianity and the Arts
Purpose:
- To understand the dynamics of art
- To arrive at a Reformed view of aesthetics
- To learn how Scripture speaks about the arts
- To develop convictions about the proper role of the arts in daily life
- To explore the role of the arts in worship
Topics covered include the present state of the arts, the character of beauty, art as a vocation, the arts in the Bible, and the special dynamic of evil and redemption in the arts. Sessions will integrate guest artists; a museum visit; discussions of music, poems, novels, and paintings.
Fall semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Edgar.
AP 743 Christianity in Conflict II
Purpose:
- To study the major apologetics texts of the church in the Medieval period
- To compare the methods and arguments used
- To assess those methods in relation to the needs in apologetics today
Topics covered include texts by Anselm, Thomas Aquinas, Peter Abelard, John Duns Scotus, Ockham, and Buridan. The approach will generally be inductive, based on the actual texts. Some lectures will be given.
Winter term. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Edgar.

AP 753 Christianity in Conflict III
Purpose:
- To study the major apologetics texts of the church in the early modern period
- To compare the methods and arguments used
- To assess those methods in relation to the needs in apologetics today
Topics covered include texts by Luther, Calvin, Descartes, Pascal, Butler, Hume, Kant, Schleiermacher, Groen, and Kuyper. The approach will generally be inductive, based on the actual texts. Some lectures will be given.
Winter term. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Edgar.

AP 763 Christianity in Conflict IV
Purpose:
- To study the major apologetics texts of the church in the last two centuries
- To compare the methods and arguments used
- To assess those methods in relation to the needs in apologetics today
Topics covered include texts by Machen, Chesterton, Küng, von Balthasar, Schaeffer, Carnell, the Talbot School, Tillich, Clark, and Pannenberg. The approach will generally be inductive, based on the actual texts. Some lectures will be given.
Winter term. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Edgar.

AP 773 Christianity in Conflict V
Purpose:
- To study the major apologetics texts of the church in the contemporary period
- To compare the methods and arguments used
- To assess those methods in relation to the needs of apologetics today
We will study the apologists from the contemporary period. The textbook is, Christian Apologetics Past & Present, edited by William Edgar & K. Scott Oliphint, Crossway, 2011, pp. 581-721. The seminar will combine introductory lectures with guided discussions of the primary texts in the anthology. There will be a research paper.
Winter term. Dr. Edgar.
AP 771 Apologetics in a Global Setting
Purpose:
· To understand the phenomenon of globalization
· To examine the application of Reformed apologetics in a global context

Church History

It has been well said that people make history, but they do not make the history that they choose. All human beings act in particular times, in particular places, and for a variety of different reasons. The aim of the Church History department is to teach students to understand the way in which human action is shaped by historical, social, economic, cultural, and theological concerns; and by so doing to allow the students to understand better their own positions as those who act in context. Though we live in an anti-historical age, the Church History department is committed to helping students realize the liberating importance of having a solid grasp of those historical trajectories which shape, often in hidden ways, the life of the church in the present.

To that end, the Church History curriculum enables students:

- To recognize the ambiguities and complexities of human history
- To examine themselves in the light of the past
- To engage with an epistemologically self-conscious historical methodology
- To see how the church’s testimony to Christ has been preserved and articulated through the ages
- To recognize turning points in the history of the church
- To identify major types and paradigms of Christian vision in societies past and present
- To be well acquainted with the Reformed heritage
- To recognize global patterns in the spread of the gospel through missions
- To cultivate a modesty with regard to their own times and cultures by setting these within the perspective of the great sweep of church history
- To be inspired by what they learn to proclaim God’s grace to today’s world

Old Testament

Nothing is more foundational to Christian ministry than a full-orbed knowledge and embrace of the gospel. The Old Testament department is committed to teaching the first thirty-nine books of the Bible, with all the aspects entailed, as the anticipation of the glorious climactic fulfillment of redemption in Jesus Christ.

To this end, the Old Testament curriculum enables students:
- To acquire a reading knowledge of biblical Hebrew
- To acquire a knowledge of the content of the Old Testament
- To grapple with the challenges of biblical interpretation
- To evaluate the ways in which the Old Testament has been interpreted in the past
- To perceive the unity of the Old and New Testaments and the hermeneutical significance of their unity
- To understand and value the historical context in which God gave his redemptive revelation, how it began in the Old Testament period and then culminated in the glorious and extraordinary climax to that history in Christ and his work in Christ as interpreted in the New Testament
- To identify the major biblical-theological themes of the Old Testament and to recognize their importance for understanding the gospel
- To develop skill in understanding and applying each of the books of the Old Testament
- To learn to communicate the gospel through the Old Testament
- To be encouraged to embrace the gospel in continuing and vital ways through the glory of God’s self-disclosure and to fear the Lord and love him with the whole heart

Holy Land Studies
Students may elect to take a course for credit at the Jerusalem University College in Jerusalem. For more information see Chapter 7. Course offerings are available in the Registrar’s Office.
Old Testament Masters Level Courses

OT 011, 012, 013 Biblical Hebrew

Purpose:
· To teach students elements of the Hebrew language
· To expose the student to a significant amount of biblical Hebrew through extensive translation of portions of the Hebrew Bible
· To prepare the student for further exegetical work in Old Testament courses

Topics covered include orthography, phonemics, morphology, and syntax. The third semester is devoted to extensive reading and translation of narrative and poetic materials from the Hebrew Bible. See Chapter 8 for possible sequences and Chapter 6 for auditing restrictions. Mrs. Groves.

OT 113 Old Testament Introduction

Purpose:
· To introduce students to the complex hermeneutical, theological, and doctrinal issues surrounding Old Testament interpretation

Topics covered include the history of the Hebrew text; the use of the Old Testament in the Pseudepigrapha, Apocrypha, and New Testament; the major critical methods and postmodern interpretation; and Biblical Theology.

Spring semester, three hours. Dr. Duguid.

Prerequisites: OT 011 (or equivalent), completed or in progress.

OT 131 Biblical Theology I

Purpose:
· To show how responsible interpretation and application of any biblical text does not begin with the question “How do I apply this passage to my life?” but with “How does this passage connect to the great narrative of redemption which climaxes in the gospel, the story of Christ, and his people?”

Topics covered include the nature of the Bible and its coherence; continuities and discontinuities in various major themes, such as the kingdom of God, definitions of the people of God, the Spirit and the New Covenant; the centrality of the gospel in application.

Fall semester, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Duguid.

Restrictions: Not available to M.Div. or M.A.R. students.
OT 141 Old Testament for Ministry

Purpose:
· To expose the student to specific interpretive issues in Old Testament historical, prophetic and wisdom books
· To demonstrate how Old Testament historical, prophetic and wisdom books are to be interpreted and applied in light of the gospel
· To engage in close reading and apply to specific books the principles of biblical-theological interpretation learned in Biblical Theology I and Biblical Theology II

Topics covered include redemptive-historical interpretation and the question of application; critique of various popular methods of application of biblical material; the nature of biblical history-writing; the office, function, and theology of the prophet in the Old Testament; understanding wisdom literature in light of the gospel; the specific theologies and redemptive-historical trajectories of several specific biblical books; and the use of the Old Testament in ministry.

Fall semester, three hours. Faculty.

Prerequisites: OT 131 completed or in progress.

Restrictions: Not available to M.Div. or M.A.R. students.

OT 211 Old Testament History and Theology I

Purpose:
· To provide an introduction to the theology of the Pentateuch
· To engage in the exegesis of selected passages from the Pentateuch with particular attention to their relationship to ancient Near Eastern literature, the theology of the Pentateuch as a whole, and to the history of redemption as it reaches its climax in the gospel

Topics covered include the narrative structure of the Bible, the Pentateuch and the history of redemption, Genesis 1-3 as an entry point to biblical theology, and the book of Exodus.

Fall semester, three hours. Dr. Duguid.

Prerequisites: OT 013 (or equivalent) and NT 123.

OT 223 Old Testament History and Theology II

Purpose:
· To explore the relationship among literature, history, and theology in the books of Deuteronomy through Ezra/Nehemiah
· To provide a knowledge of the content of this section of canon
· To give a biblical-theological framework for applying these books in life and ministry

In addition to laying out the theology and content of each of these books, we will cover such topics as the relationship of Deuteronomy to the other books. Additional topics covered include OT historiography; OT theology; the relationship between revelation, history, and theology; and covenant.

Spring semester, three hours. Dr. Gibson.

Prerequisites: OT 013 (or equivalent) and NT 123.
OT 311 Prophetic Books
Purpose:
- To provide knowledge of the content of this portion of the canon
- To study the role of the Hebrew prophets in Israelite society and the nature of Israelite prophecy
- To give a biblical-theological framework to understand the prophetic books in life and ministry
Topics covered include the structure, content, and theology of the prophetic books and Daniel; the ancient Near Eastern setting of prophecy; the history of interpretation of the prophetic literature; and the role of the prophets in redemptive history. A portion of the course involves seminar discussions with the professor.

OT 703 The Minor Prophets
Purpose:
- To investigate the unique content, form, and theology of each of the twelve Minor Prophets
- To review recent contributions regarding the unity of the Minor Prophets
- To engage in original research on unifying motifs and themes through the Minor Prophets
Topics covered include the contribution of the Minor Prophets to the canon and to redemptive historical hermeneutics, the history of scholarship on the unity of the Minor Prophets, and evaluation of purported redactional activity in the Minor Prophets.
Spring semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Faculty.

OT 731 The Book of Psalms
Purpose:
- To read the Psalms with attention to poetic language, literary forms, and in the context of the thought world of the ancient Near East
- To read the Psalter in the context of Israel’s covenantal relationship with God
- To reflect on the Psalter’s function as Scripture
- To develop a Christian interpretation of the Psalms
Topics covered include the history of interpretation of the Psalms including recent research on the shape and shaping of the Psalter; theological themes in the Psalms; the Psalms and redemptive history; kingship and the psalms; messianic interpretation.
Fall semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017). Faculty.

OT 743 Hebrew Text-Linguistic Seminar
Purpose:
- To introduce Hebrew syntax and macro-linguistic structuring of the Hebrew texts of the Bible (that is, structuring beyond the level of the clause)
Topics covered include the study of the relationship between formal and functional linguistic approaches. While extensive use of computerized databases and electronic tools will be part of the course, only general familiarity with the computer is needful. Prior experience with the databases and programs is not required. The necessary computing facilities are available on campus. This seminar is sponsored in cooperation with the J. Alan Groves Center for Advanced Biblical Research.
Fall semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Lowery.

OT 751 Ugaritic I
Purpose:
- To obtain basic reading competence in Ugaritic
- To compare Ugaritic to Hebrew and other Semitic languages to better understand Hebrew as a West Semitic language
- To enter the thought world of an ancient Near Eastern culture
- To show how the study of Ugaritic enriches Old Testament interpretation
Topics covered include the place of Ugaritic among Semitic languages; introduction to Ugaritic grammar and syntax; translation of selections from Ugaritic mythological texts.
Fall semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Faculty.
Prerequisites: OT 013 (or equivalent).
OT 753 Ugaritic II
Purpose:
· Advanced study of the Ugaritic language
· Further study and in-depth analysis of Ugaritic mythological texts

Spring semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Faculty.
Prerequisites: OT 751.

OT 761 Biblical and Inscriptional Aramaic
Purpose:
· To gain a competence in reading biblical Aramaic texts
· To provide linguistic background to the study of Biblical Aramaic with an introduction to Inscriptional Aramaic

Topics covered include a survey of biblical Aramaic grammar, with an emphasis upon translation of the Aramaic portions of the Old Testament, and a brief introduction to Inscriptional Aramaic, including translation of two or three texts from Syria-Palestine and Mesopotamia, dating from the ninth and eighth centuries B.C.

Fall semester. Faculty.
Prerequisites: OT 013 (or equivalent). Students enrolled in the Ph.D. program in Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation will need to obtain a final grade of B- or better in this course to satisfy the requirement of demonstrating competence in Biblical Aramaic.

OT 773 Explorations in Biblical Hebrew Poetry
Purpose:
· To review recent theories on parallelism and prosody in biblical Hebrew
· To investigate recent advances in biblical Hebrew text-linguistics, and apply text-linguistic theory to biblical Hebrew poetic texts
· To engage in original text-linguistic research in the book of Jeremiah

Topics covered will include the nature of the grammar of Hebrew poetry, formalist and functional text-linguistic theories and their application to narrative and non-narrative genres in the Hebrew Bible, and text-linguistic structure of the book of Jeremiah. A portion of the course will involve seminar discussions led by students.

OT 803 Bible Translation
Purpose:
· To reflect on issues involved in translating biblical texts.
· To evaluate modern translations.
· To develop skills in the art of translation.

Topics include a discussion of the possibility of translation given linguistic non-isomorphism, the nature of translational decision, and the role of precedent in translation. In addition to lectures and discussion, students will work together to produce three translations of the biblical book of Jonah: “inter-linear”, “essentially literal”, and “fluid.”

Spring semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Putnam.
Prerequisites: OT 012 (or equivalent).
OT 850 The Book of Ezekiel
Purpose:
· To engage in a grammatical-historical reading of selected passages from the book of Ezekiel
· To explore its structure, themes, and theology
· To develop a distinctly Christian interpretation of this book, with a view to teaching and preaching its message in a contemporary context
Topics covered include a study of the history of the critical approaches, the structure and content of the book, motifs in the prophecy, and an orientation to Old Testament prophetic literature. Special attention will be given to the book’s role in redemptive history.
Summer module. Dr. Duguid.

OT 903 Critical Methodologies
Purpose:
· To explore various methods and approaches of biblical criticism and study
· To learn to be critical about the nature of one’s assumptions concerning the nature of the Bible, its coherence, and its study
Topics covered include the traditional critical methods (source, form, redaction) as well as the more contemporary approaches (e.g., literary, canonical, reader-response, ideological, etc.)
Spring semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Duguid.

OT 913 The Book of Proverbs
Purpose:
· To provide an inductive and exegetical orientation to the book of Proverbs
Topics covered include Proverbs’ purpose, organization, provenance and interpretation, emphasizing the Spring semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Putnam.

OT 923 Lamentations
Purpose:
· To engage in a close reading of the Hebrew of Lamentations, its poetic features and acrostic form, literary and rhetorical structures, theological content and reception.
Topics covered include Lamentations’ theology of sin and suffering, its explanation of why the fall of Jerusalem occurred, and its portrayal of disillusionment with Yahweh’s willingness to intervene for his people’s deliverance. In light of God’s sovereignty, justice, and ultimate mercy in Christ, students will reflect on the role of prayer, meditation, complaint, and repentance in Lamentations as a way of handling catastrophe.
Spring semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Faculty.

OT 931 The Book of Isaiah
Purpose:
· To engage in a grammatical-historical reading of the book of Isaiah
· To explore its structure, themes, and theology
· To develop a distinctly Christian interpretation of this book
Topics covered include a study of the history of the critical approaches to Isaiah, the structure and content of the book, motifs in the prophecy, and an orientation to Old Testament prophetic literature. Special attention will be given to the issue of the book’s unity and its role in redemptive history.
Fall semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Faculty.
OT 940 Biblical Theology of Worship
Purpose:
· To discuss the sacred places, people, offerings and festivals of the Old Testament.
· To trace the redemptive-historical development of forms of worship from the Garden of Eden to the exilic period and beyond into the New Testament.
Topics covered will be primarily exegetical, interacting with the Biblical materials rather than with historical-critical approaches. The goal of the course is to form a solid Biblical basis from which to address the issues of worship which face the contemporary church.
Summer term. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Duguid.

OT 944 Metaphor in Scripture
Purpose:
· To understand and be able to explain various theories of metaphor, from Aristotle to cognitive science
· To apply the cognitive theory of metaphor to literary texts and to Scripture
· To identify, describe, and explore the theological and ministerial implications of a biblical metaphoric world
· To provide an inductive exploration of metaphoric “worlds” in Scripture
Topics covered include the identification of textual metaphors and their underlying root metaphors in Scripture, the alignment of those metaphors with others that belong to the same metaphoric “world”, and discerning the theological and pastoral implications of those different “worlds.”
Fall semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Putnam.

OT 963 Judges
Purpose:
· To engage in a close reading of the Hebrew text of the book of Judges.
· To understand the book of Judges in the broader context of the Deuteronomistic History.
· To explore redemptive-historical interpretation of the book of Judges and the proper application of its message in the contemporary church through preaching and counseling.
Topics covered include the history of interpretation of the book of Judges; matters of special introduction to the book; the use of literary methods in reading the book of Judges; the relationship between literature, history and theology, in service of Christ-centered application
Fall semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Duguid.

OT 981 Readings in Old Testament Introduction and Theology
Purpose:
· To introduce the broad spectrum of Old Testament introduction and theology
Topics covered include general introduction (canon, text, historical background, and language); special introduction (background to the individual books); critical methodologies; and Old Testament theology. Required of all Ph.D. candidates in Hermeneutics and Biblical Interpretation.
Fall and spring semesters. Faculty.
Restrictions: Students may take only one semester for credit.

Courses listed for other majors which may be counted as major courses for the Th.M. degree in Old Testament: NT 793, NT 941, NT 981, NT 993
New Testament

The New Testament is the account of the presence of the kingdom of heaven, and centers in the person of Jesus Christ. This is the cornerstone for all Christian ministry. The New Testament department is committed to teaching the New Testament as the full revelation of the covenant of God’s grace in Jesus Christ.

To this end, the New Testament curriculum enables students:

- To acquire a reading knowledge of New Testament Greek
- To understand and value the historical context in which God accomplished his work in Christ, and through which he gave us the New Testament
- To perceive the unity of the Old and New Testaments and the hermeneutical significance thereof
- To grapple with the challenges of biblical interpretation
- To recognize major biblical-theological themes of the New Testament and their importance for understanding the biblical message
- To evaluate the ways in which the New Testament has been interpreted in the past
- To develop skill in understanding and applying each of the books of the New Testament
New Testament Masters Level Courses

NT 011a, 012a, 013a New Testament Greek

Purpose:
- To prepare students for further work in the New Testament by giving them a reading knowledge of Koiné Greek

The course is designed for beginners; no prior knowledge of Greek is assumed. The students will cover the basics of grammar and acquire a core vocabulary. During the last semester students will do recitations from the Greek New Testament and be introduced to the issues of syntax.

See Chapter 7 for sequencing and Chapter 6 for auditing restrictions. Faculty.

NT 011aa, 012aa, 013aa New Testament Greek

This course is identical in content with NT 011a, 012a, 013a.

See Chapter 7 for sequencing and Chapter 6 for auditing restrictions. Faculty.

NT 101 General Introduction to the New Testament I

Purpose:
- To provide students with the historical and literary framework requisite for responsible New Testament interpretation.

Topics covered include introductory matters that apply to the New Testament as a whole, especially inscripturation, canon formation, textual transmission, and textual criticism. The general approach to these issues is historical, but with an underlying concern for the theological dimensions of each.

(Prior to 2013-2014, combine with NT 103 as NT 111 Introduction to the New Testament, three hours.)

_Fall semester, two hours. Dr. Crowe._

Prerequisites: NT 011a (or equivalent), completed or in progress.

NT 103 General Introduction to the New Testament II

Purpose:
- To continue to provide students with the historical and literary framework requisite for responsible New Testament interpretation.

Topics covered include some introductory matters that apply to the New Testament as a whole: historical background in Judaism and the Greco-Roman world, and especially how the Old Testament forms the most important background for the New. Some attention will also be paid to linguistic background. The general approach to these issues is historical, but with an underlying concern for the theological dimensions of each.

(Prior to 2013-2014, combine with NT 103 as NT 111 Introduction to the New Testament, three hours.)

_Spring semester, one hour. Dr. Beale._

Prerequisites: NT 013 (or equivalent) completed or in progress, and NT 101.
NT 123  Biblical Hermeneutics: Old and New Testaments
Purpose:
· To grow in skill in understanding, interpreting, and applying the Bible
Topics covered include prolegomena to biblical interpretation, principles and practice of biblical interpretation, and the question of hermeneutics in the historical-critical tradition. Prerequisites, OT 012 completed or in progress, NT 013 or equivalent completed or in progress, and NT 101 completed, and NT 103 completed or in progress.
Spring semester, four hours. Dr. Poythress.
Prerequisites: NT 013 (or equivalent) completed or in progress, NT 101 completed, and NT 103 completed or in progress.

NT 133  Biblical Theology II
Purpose:
· To show how responsible interpretation and application of any biblical text does not begin with the question “How do I apply this passage to my life?” but with “How does this passage connect to the great narrative of redemption which climaxes in the gospel, the story of Christ, and his people?”
Topics covered include the nature of the Bible and its coherence; continuities and discontinuities in various major themes, such as the kingdom of God, definitions of the people of God, the Spirit and the New Covenant; the centrality of the gospel in application.
Spring semester, three hours. Dr. Keene.
Restrictions: Not available to M.Div. or M.A.R. students.

NT 143  New Testament for Ministry
Purpose:
· To understand better the content and theology of the New Testament, with particular focus on how the Gospels, Acts, Epistles, and Revelation are helpful sources in counseling contexts
· To gain skill in moving from interpretation to application of New Testament texts
Topics covered include NT ethics, the Kingdom of God, the life and ministry of Jesus, the early church community, and major themes of the Gospels, Acts, Epistles, and Revelation.
Spring semester, three hours. Dr. Crowe.
Restrictions: Not available to M.Div. or M.A.R. students.

NT 211  New Testament Interpretation: The Gospels
Purpose:
· To develop a framework of understanding for interpreting and applying the canonical Gospels
· To familiarize students with the Gospels’ description of the earthly ministry and teaching of Jesus Christ, and to enable them to understand and apply the theology of the Gospels in ministry
Topics covered include a selective survey and critique of historical-critical investigation of the Gospels, questions of special introduction, an overview of the content and theology of Jesus’ actions and teaching, and an examination of the character and special emphases of each canonical Gospel.
Fall semester, four hours. Dr. Crowe.
Prerequisites: NT 013 (or equivalent), OT 013 (or equivalent), NT 101, NT 103, and NT 123.
NT 223 New Testament Interpretation: Acts and the Pauline Epistles

Purpose:
· To deepen understanding of Acts and the letters of Paul and apply them to students’ lives and ministry
Topics covered include questions of special introduction, exegetical method, exegesis of selected texts, and basic themes in the theology of Acts and the letters of Paul.

Spring semester, four hours. Dr. Beale.
Prerequisites: NT 013 (or equivalent), OT 013 (or equivalent), NT 101, NT 103, and NT 123.

NT 311 New Testament Interpretation: Hebrews to Revelation

Purpose:
· To introduce the particular character of Hebrews through Revelation
· To enable students to understand these books so that they can apply their teaching to their own lives and in their ministry

The course will deal with questions of special introduction, and will include the exegesis of selected passages in order to establish the structure and distinctive themes of these books.

Summer module, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Mr. Brown.

Module PM 4 Leadership
Purpose:
- To clarify the biblical calling and job description of a pastor in the light of contemporary cultural, church, and kingdom developments
- To glean principles of spiritual leadership from Nehemiah
- To help students lead their homes, gain and impart vision to their churches, establish workable structures for fulfilling the Great Commission in their churches and communities, train and work with their elders as a team, and set priorities and manage their time

This module is designed so that in class discussion, students can apply these principles in very practical ways to their particular situations. Topics include the dynamics of spiritual renewal, cell church model for pastoring, discipling, evangelizing, and individual philosophy of ministry.
Summer module, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Faculty.

Module PM 6/PU 6-Church Revitalization
Purpose:
- To address the contemporary church profile and the pressing need of church revitalization in North American along with the related issues
- To acquaint the student with specific quality literature that deals with the issues of church renewal and revitalization
- To determine biblical models and theological principles applicable to church revitalization.
- To identify those factors which bring church stagnation and decline
- To develop a plan to initiate church revitalization in the student’s ministry that is faithful to the Scripture, relevant to a specific situation and clearly prioritized for practical application

Summer module, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Mr. Reeder.
Module PM 51  Pastor as Physician of the Soul
Purpose:
· To revisit a neglected aspect of pastoral care which views the pastor as the “physician of the soul,” whose work was called “the cure of the souls”
· To understand the dynamics of conversion experiences and how churches can foster an environment in which sincere inquirers are genuinely welcomed
· To understand the dynamics of spiritual growth, with particular focus on the importance of community in genuine growth
· To study the doctrines of salvation from the perspective of how they actually impact the hearts as well as the heads of parishioners

Topics covered will constantly press the issue of experiential use of the doctrines of grace. This will include a “case study” approach to Christian experience.

Summer module, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Faculty.

Module PM 54 Biblical Conflict Resolution
Purpose:
· To equip students with the knowledge and skills of a biblical systematic theology of conflict resolution that can be immediately employed in a practical manner in the local church or para-church organization

Biblical conflict resolution is a sub-discipline of biblical counseling and, therefore, students are expected to work with counseling issues and participate in role-play cases in class.

Summer module, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Faculty.
Counseling Concentration

Module PC 1  Biblical Models of People and Change
This module is divided into the following segments:

• Dynamics of Biblical Change
  Purpose:
  · To equip students to teach a biblical model of counseling in their church
  · To build a firsthand understanding of the progressive sanctification process
  · To enable students to connect biblical truth to the case study realities and details of lives lived
Topics covered include the nature of idolatry and faith; the relationship between motive and action; the way Christ’s past, present, and future grace intersects with and affects how people live their daily lives; and the interplay of situational factors with a person’s actions and reactions.

• Human Personality
  Purpose:
  · To deepen students’ understanding of biblical doctrine as it applies to the person
  · To examine what doctrines are especially important to apply in this generation
  · To understand how to apply biblical doctrine in personal ministry
  · To be able to uncover the implicit theology in other models of personal ministry and dialogue effectively about these issues
Topics covered include a review of systematic theological categories with a commitment to developing multiple applications, an examination of both Christian and non-Christian counseling case studies with an eye to enrich them with our theological work, and the practical application of a biblical-theological approach to the study of people.

Summer module, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Faculty.

Module PC 2  Methods of Biblical Change and Interacting with Psychology
This module is divided into the following segments:

• Methods of Biblical Change
  Purpose:
  · To equip students to teach counseling methods in their church
  · To help students develop a functional biblical counseling worldview
  · To help students understand the importance of heart change as a methodological goal
  · To develop an understanding of the role of Scripture in biblical counseling
  · To highlight and practice the critical skills of effectiveness in biblical counseling
Topics covered include how to build a counseling relationship, how to gather and interpret data, how to function as an agent of repentance, and how to guide and assist others as they seek to apply change to daily life.

• Theology and Secular Psychology
  Purpose:
  · To teach students how to understand psychologists’ observations, theories, and practices, and how to engage them critically, humbly, and lovingly
  · To reinterpret through a redemptive gaze the things that psychologists see most clearly and care about most deeply
  · To understand where biblical counseling fits in our cultural context, both within the evangelical church and within the surrounding mental health system
Topics covered include the skills of reinterpretation and redemptive interaction; historical overview of the biblical counseling and the evangelical psychotherapy movements; the lay of the land in contemporary counseling; assessment of motivation theories and self-esteem theory; and primary source readings from a half dozen representative psychologists, ranging from high culture to self-help.

Summer module, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Faculty.

Module PC 3 Family Counseling, Public Ministry of the Word, and Lay Ministry

This module is divided into the following segments:

• Marriage Counseling
  Purpose:
  · To help students develop a rich, biblical theological view of marriage and relationships that challenges popular goals for marriage/relationship counseling and provides powerful hope and direction
  · To provide students with conceptual and methodological tools for marriage counseling that are rooted in a biblical worldview of marriage and that recognize the unique challenges of marriage counseling
  · To interact with prevailing secular models of marriage counseling within a biblical worldview
  · To begin to develop the ability to offer relational skills within a larger context of heart change
  · To consider current marriage problem areas impacting the church

Topics covered include a biblical theological review of marriage and relationships; and an introduction to systems theory, gender differences, communication, conflict, divorce counseling, spouse abuse, and step-families. Counseling videos will be used to help the student gain a sense of the counseling process.

• Counseling in the Local Church
  Purpose:
  · To broaden students' understanding of counseling to include all relationships
  · To build a thoroughly biblical understanding of the local church as a ministering community where everyone plays a part
  · To help students find their place of ministry within the context of the local church and to help others do the same
  · To see the importance of both public and private ministry of the Word and how they interrelate
  · To examine present ministry opportunities

Topics covered include a biblical foundation for private ministry of the Word; the role of community and relationships in the process of sanctification; developing a practical ecclesiology; and developing an eye of ministry opportunities such as conflict resolution, evangelism, and church discipline.

Summer module, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017). Faculty.

Module PC 4 Counseling Problems

This module is divided into the following segments:

• Counseling Problems and Procedures
  Purpose:
  · To identify the essential features of biblical counseling
  · To identify current counseling issues that are apparent in the church
  · To appreciate Scripture’s depth as it addresses common problems such as suffering, anger, and anxiety
  · To prepare students to move toward people with any type of struggle in a way that is helpful and Christ-centered

Topics covered include: abuse, guilt and legalism, fear, anger, bipolar, schizophrenia, anorexia and bulimia, and addictions.
• Counseling and Physiology

Purpose:
- To equip with a nuanced and practical biblical anthropology that will help distinguish between spiritual and physical issues in the lives of counselees
- To deepen understanding of a select group of acute and chronic problems having physiological manifestations, particularly those that affect intellect and mood
- To develop biblical strategies for pursuing counselees with such problems
- To sharpen abilities to critique the reigning presuppositions of biological psychiatry that serve to undermine Scripture's authority in the counseling process

Topics covered include biblical anthropology and its counseling implications on neuropsychology, psychopharmacology, dementia, traumatic brain injury, psychiatry, obsessive-compulsive disorder, panic attacks and hallucinations, attention deficit disorder, addiction, homosexuality, and autism.

Summer module, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Faculty.

Module PC 7 Biblical Peacemaking in the Church and the Home

Purpose:
- To study conflict and how church leaders and biblical counselors can address and resolve conflict in the church and the home (marital, parent-child, in-law conflict).

Topics include gaining a biblical understanding of relational conflict, a working grasp of key Scripture passages dealing with relational conflict, and a biblically-based model for how to address conflict in various interpersonal relationships (e.g., church, marriage, family, inlaws, and roommates); coaching and mediating counselees and congregants who face relational conflict; and helping to prepare church congregants to prevent and resolve relational conflict when it arises.

Summer module. three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Jones.

Module PC 8 Grief and Trauma

Purpose:
- To explore the pastoral counseling process of helping people mourn losses that are common to normal human experience, as well as the psychological impact of traumatic experiences that are outside the range of normal human experience. Counseling strategies are explored for assisting people through the process of grieving from loss, along with strategies for preventing, assessing, and understanding post-traumatic stress reactions to various kinds of trauma and catastrophe.

Topics include identifying the multiple factors (biological, cultural, historical, generational, spiritual, and familial) that influence the grief and mourning process for individuals; assessing the difference between traumatic and normal grief and applying the necessary skills in helping counselees progress in the mourning process; exposure to the criteria for Disorders of Extreme Distress and Post Traumatic Stress Disorder to understand a counselee’s world; understanding the chemical reaction of the human body when under significant stress, trauma and grief; and becoming aware of the distress of persons who are considering suicide and developing skills to assess suicidal persons.

Summer module. three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Mr. Smith.

Module PC 9 Marriage Counseling Methods and Issues

Purpose:
- The course presents a biblical understanding of a wide range of common marriage problems along with a basic marriage counseling model and various counseling methods for individuals and couples who face these problems. We also address marriage-related issues such as singleness, premarital training, and divorce and remarriage, and we explore ways to carry out all of these ministries in the context of the local church.
Topics:
- To grasp more fully what God’s Word says about marriage, singleness, divorce, remarriage, and in-law relationships.
- Know more clearly and carry out more faithfully God’s will for you in the specific family role(s) he has given you, or may give you, as a husband, wife, single person, parent, son, daughter, ex-spouse, etc.
- Understand how a biblical approach to marital and premarital counseling differs from other approaches and gain greater confidence in the superior wisdom and power of God and his Word for your ministry.
- Minister more effectively to your friends and family members in their specific God-given family situations to help them follow Christ and to help Christ’s church build stronger marriages and families.

Summer module. three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017). Dr. Jones.

Module PC 10 Depression and Anxiety
Purpose:
- To survey and evaluate current views on the causes and treatments for depression and anxiety and to build a model for counseling depressed and anxious counselees from a biblical anthropology.

Summer module. three hours. Dr. Forrey.

Module PC 11 Equipping Church Counselors
Purpose:
- To provide an in-depth study of the theoretical foundations and practical implementation of a biblical counseling ministry within the local church.

Topics include biblical counseling vision for the church; roles of members and leaders in counseling ministries; strategies and methods to recruit, equip, and oversee designated counselors; using counseling as an outreach ministry; and counseling in relation to other ministries such as small groups, preaching, and restorative church discipline.

Summer module, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Jones.
Urban Mission Concentration

Module PU 1 Mission Strategies and Globalization
Purpose:
· To learn what globalization is and how it affects virtually all contexts
· To understand the connection between urbanization and globalization as interlocking forces affecting life circumstances
· To be able to strategize as to how best to reach the people in the student’s ministry context with the transforming power of Christ

Summer module, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Faculty.

Module PU 2 Contextual Theology
Purpose:
· To sketch the history and recent developments revolving around contextualization
· To outline issues involved in contextualization and sample current responses to these issues
· To provide the student with opportunities to test his or her theories by sample attempts at the contextualization of theology
· To critique current attempts at contextual theology in order to highlight strengths and weaknesses and determine challenges to the student’s own growth

Summer module, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Faculty.

Module PU 3 Community Analysis and Demographics
Purpose:
· To understand the major factors involved in urbanization in the developing countries and ethnicization of North American cities
· To develop an in-depth knowledge of one particular community, including its place in the various political, economic, educational, and health, etc., systems in which it is a part and the nature of the people living there
· To analyze the demographic information from the standpoint of Christian evangelism and the church, and begin to integrate this information into mission strategy
· To become adept in handling surveys, questionnaires, and field research techniques with a view to using them for urban ministry
· To be able and motivated to interpret demographic realities to fellow Christians so that the churches where the students attend and minister may be moved to action

Summer module, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Faculty.

Module PU 4 Mission Anthropology
Purpose:
· To acquaint students with anthropological concepts, particularly culture and worldview
· To expose students to anthropological methodology, particularly participant observation and ethnographic interviewing
· To challenge students in their understanding of themselves and others as culturally-formed beings
· To teach students the proper method of cross-cultural analysis
· To guide students into learning when to use the etic and when to use the emic perspective in studying culture

Summer module, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Faculty.
Module PU 5 How Cities Change

Purpose:

- To understand and begin to contribute to the emerging field of theological city-change.
- To grasp several models for city-change – and why the gospel is central to them.
- To conceptualize and develop a plan for gospel-change in their city balancing local work with collaborative ministry.
- To think creatively about how the gospel might be spread in his or her city.

With increasing worldwide urbanization and globalization, the theological reflection and methods of reaching the city are becoming more important. This course is for pastors and urban theorists who want to explore how gospel dynamics can affect renewal in a city through components of gospel-fundamentals, gospel community, movement and networks. Attention will be given to new and significant literature on the subject. A trip to NYC to study various models is included.

Summer module, three hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Mr. Dennis.
Systematic Theology

Systematic theology seeks rightly to divide the Word of truth, particularly the holy Scriptures. It aims at formulations which correctly understand the Scriptures, through proper exegesis, and applies those formulations to the needs of the church and the issues of the day. To that end, the Systematic Theology curriculum enables students:

- To understand and be able to articulate “the whole counsel of God” in the form of the system of doctrine taught in Scripture
- To grasp the way this system of doctrine derives from sound interpretation that does justice to the unity of Scripture in its historical and authorial diversity
- To understand the history of doctrine, primarily the theological heritage of the Reformed Churches and their confessional documents, especially the Westminster Standards
- To recognize within the theological heritage of the Reformed Churches what is perennial and undoubted and what is not yet settled
- To value the Westminster Standards as a summary of the system of doctrine taught in Scripture and, where appropriate, be prepared ex animo to subscribe to them as such
- To embrace the system of doctrine taught in Scripture in a way that enhances devotion to God and service to the church and the world, and so, in all, “to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge”
Systematic Theology Masters Level Courses

ST 101 Prolegomena to Theology
Purpose:
· To provide foundations for the study of theology, particularly for deepening understanding of the teaching of Scripture as a whole and in its unity
Topics covered include nature, method, and sources of theology; revelation and the inspiration of Scripture; biblical and systematic theology; theological encyclopedia.
Fall semester, two hours. Dr. Garner.

ST 113 Doctrine of God
Purpose:
· To grasp that we can know nothing of God except he first revealed himself to us
· To recognize that the doctrine of God (theology proper) seeks to unpack the teaching of Scripture and not directly the problems set by philosophy
· To value those ecumenical creeds of the church which give classic expression to vital elements of the doctrine of God, and whose doctrine is evident in the Westminster Standards
· To embrace the doctrine of God not as a bare set of propositions but as the very personal knowledge of God so essential to worship and service and so characteristic of a Reformed world and life view
Topics covered include revelation, names and attributes of God, and God as Trinity.
Spring semester, two hours. Dr. Oliphint.

ST 131 Survey of Reformed Theology (on-campus and DE)
Purpose:
· To learn the basic doctrines upheld in mainstream Reformed theology
· To grasp the coherency of the system
· To understand the biblical basis for Reformed doctrine
· To appreciate the distinctiveness of Reformed theology
Topics covered include the inspiration and authority of Scripture, covenant theology, creation of man in the image of God, the person and work of Christ, and the application of redemption in Christ.
Fall semester, three hours. Dr. Tipton, Dr. Wynne (DE).
Restrictions: Not available to M.Div. or M.A.R. students.

ST 211 Doctrine of Man
Purpose:
· To deepen understanding of biblical anthropology in its redemptive-historical and Reformed context
Topics covered include the theology of creation days; the nature of man, particularly as a psycho-somatic unity created in the image of God; the covenant of creation; the epistemological implications of Reformed anthropology; the fall and its implications; the imputation of Adam’s sin; the intermediate state; the nature of free moral agency; and total depravity and inability. Special attention will be given from an exegetical perspective to the redemptive-historical character and systematic theological implications of Reformed anthropology. Prerequisites, OT 011, or equivalent, completed or in progress, and NT 013, or equivalent.
Fall semester, two hours. Dr. Wynne.
ST 223 Doctrine of Christ

Purpose:
- To deepen understanding of the salvation accomplished by the triune God in Christ in both its central focus and comprehensive scope

Topics covered include plan of salvation, covenant of grace, and person and work of Christ.

Spring semester, three hours. Dr. Tipton.

Prerequisites: OT 012 (or equivalent) and NT 013 (or equivalent).

---

ST 231 Christian Ethics (formerly ST 333)

Purpose:
- To study the redemptive-historical, covenantal, confessional, and biblical-theological foundations for Christian life and ethics
- To arrive at certain convictions about key moral issues facing the church today
- To grow in wisdom, the ability to discern good and evil in every situation

Topics covered include the biblical foundation for ethics, an introduction to different types of ethical systems, hermeneutical questions, Christians and the public square, sanctification, the clash of obligations, calling, stewardship, and selected ethical subjects.

Fall semester, two hours. Dr. Garner, Dr. Wynne.

Prerequisites: OT 011 (or equivalent, completed or in progress) and NT 011 (or equivalent, completed or in progress).

---

ST 313 Doctrine of Salvation

Purpose:
- To deepen understanding of the application of the salvation applied by the triune God in Christ in both its central focus and comprehensive scope

Topics covered include the relationship between eschatology and soteriology; the meaning of, and relationship between, historia salutis and ordo salutis; the function of union with Christ in Reformed soteriology; the distinct-yet-inseparable benefits of union with Christ (e.g., justification, sanctification, and adoption); a survey of biblical eschatology; and theology of the sacraments. Special attention will be given from an exegetical perspective to the redemptive-historical character and systematic theological implications of Reformed soteriology and eschatology.

Spring semester, four hours. Dr. Tipton.

Prerequisites: OT 013 (or equivalent) and NT 013 (or equivalent).

---

ST 343 Doctrine of the Church (formerly PT/ST 211)

Purpose:
- To explain the Reformed doctrine of the church, the sacraments, and the means of grace
- To appreciate the biblical priority of the church, its structure and its spiritual vitality
- To discern the meaning of the spirituality of the church for ministry in the twenty-first century
- To strengthen the student’s commitment to and service in the visible church

Topics covered include a biblical theology of the church; the relationship between church, the covenant of grace, and the kingdom of God; the marks, attributes, and mission of the church; the form of government; church office; and church discipline.

Spring semester, two hours. Dr. Garner.

Prerequisites: OT 013 (or equivalent, completed or in progress), NT 013 (or equivalent, completed or in progress), and ST 101.

ST 672 Reformed Spirituality

Purpose:
- To acquaint students with the distinctives of Reformed spirituality
- To encourage students toward greater communion with God in faith and life
- To highlight the relationship between Reformed spirituality and the piety that dominates much of the evangelical world and popular religion

Topics covered include the doctrine of the church; sanctification; worship; the Lord’s Day and its observance; the means of grace (preaching, prayer, the sacraments of baptism and communion); family worship; Christian liberty; the doctrines of vocation and providence; the Reformed world and life view; and the Christian in society.

Winter term, two hours. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Troxel.

ST 690 Reformed Ecclesiology

See ST 990. Winter term, two hours. Dr. Troxel.
Systematic Theology Th.M/Ph.D. Level Courses

ST 701 Topics in Medical Ethics
Topics covered include bioethics, medicine as a Christian calling, in vitro fertilization, AIDS, genetic engineering, and euthanasia.
Fall semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Edgar.
Prerequisites: ST 333.

ST 702 Law and Gospel in Reformed Theology
Purpose:
· To deepen the understanding of a biblical, theological, and historical study of the Law in relation to covenant and the Gospel
Topics covered include the historical-theological development of the Law within the Canon; covenant and Law; the relationship of law to justice; merit, conditionality, and unconditionality; and the Law in the Christian life and ethics. A theme throughout the course is the relationship of Law and Gospel in history and theology.
Winter term. Dr. Garcia.

ST 733 Trinitarian Theology Ancient and Modern
Purpose:
· To exhibit a deeper love for the absolute and personal triune God, His word, and His church.
· To become acquainted with key primary sources from church history on the doctrine of the Trinity.
· To grasp the key theological terms, debates and doctrinal developments related to the doctrine of the Trinity.
This seminar surveys primary sources from church history on the doctrine of the Trinity. Students will sharpen their own understanding of trinitarian dogma as they trace the history of trinitarian reflection from the patristic era to fourth century debates up through Aquinas and the Reformers, to the Puritans and Old Princeton, to Van Til, concluding with the modern trinitarian theologies of Karl Barth and Wolfhart Pannenberg.
Spring semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Wynne.

ST 761 Topics in the Doctrine of Man
Purpose:
· To deepen understanding of man, and our theological method, through use of biblical theology and linguistics
Topics covered include the relation of classical theological anthropology to biblical-theological method, including theology of sonship in Paul and John; special attention to the image of God; dichotomy and trichotomy; the covenant with Adam; and the nature of sin.
Fall semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Poythress.
ST 773 Studies in Historical Theology II
Purpose:
· To provide opportunity for reading and seminar reflection on important theologians from the Reformation to the early twentieth century
Topics covered include representative writings of Luther, Calvin, Turretin, Schleiermacher, and Barth.
Seminar presentation is required.
Spring semester. Dr. Tipton.

ST 781 The Theology of Romans
Purpose:
· To examine aspects of the teaching of Romans for their bearing on systematic theological issues
Topics covered include some prolegomena for systematic theology and for studying the theology of Romans, and exegetical-theological comments on selected passages.
Fall semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Tipton.

ST 791 Issues in Theology Proper
Purpose:
· To introduce students to current discussions in theology proper
· To develop a response to challenges to a Reformed doctrine of God
Students will be expected to analyze and critique both classical and contemporary essays that look at language about God, God and evil, God and morality, as well as God’s necessity, omnipotence, omniscience, eternity, providence, foreknowledge, and simplicity. Seminar discussions will be held in these and related areas.
Fall semester. Dr. Oliphint.

ST 803 The Theology of Karl Barth
Purpose:
· To understand the place of Barth in his western European post-Enlightenment context
· To evaluate the foundations of Barth’s theological approach
· To gain exposure to some of Barth’s theological writings
· To reflect on the critique of Barth offered by Cornelius Van Til Spring semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Tipton, Dr. Wynne.

ST 811 Covenant Theology
Purpose:
· To provide a thorough understanding of critical issues in the development of Reformed covenant theology
Topics covered include Trinity and covenant, the pactum salutis, the covenant of works, the covenant of grace, covenant theology and justification, and covenant theology and epistemology. Special attention will be given from an exegetical perspective to the development of Reformed covenant theology.
Fall semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Tipton.
ST 901 The Trinitarian Theology of Cornelius Van Til
Purpose:
- To investigate the context, structure, and significance of Cornelius Van Til’s trinitarian theology
- To encourage the student to engage critically central issues in trinitarian theology from a Van Tilian perspective
Topics covered include the architectonic significance of the Trinity, both in Van Til’s theology and apologetics. Special attention will be given to Van Til’s historical and theological context, his theology of triune personhood, the structure and function of the representational principle, the distinctively trinitarian character of the transcendent method, and his place in contemporary discussions of trinitarian theology, ranging from the theological function of perichoresis to the notions of relationality and temporality within the Godhead.

ST 921 The Theology of Adoption
Purpose:
- To investigate in detail the importance of adoption in Pauline, biblical, and historical theology
Topics covered include the historical neglect of the doctrine, its renewed treatment in contemporary theology, and its place in pastoral theology. Course work includes the preparation and presentation of detailed investigative papers.
Spring semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Garner.

ST 923 The Theology of Wolfhart Pannenberg
Purpose:
- To critically examine the systematic theology of Wolfhart Pannenberg from a historically Reformed perspective
Pannenberg has been called one of the most important theologians since Karl Barth. His thought has not only influenced disciplines as diverse as anthropology and cosmology, but also helped to propel the open theist movement within the evangelical world. This seminar explores a variety of epistemological, hermeneutical, and theological challenges related to Pannenberg’s post-Enlightenment theology in a way that underscores the significance of orthodox biblical theology.
Fall semester, two hours. Dr. Wynne.

ST 930 Union with Christ
Purpose:
- Union with Christ will cover predestinarian, past-historical and present personal union with Christ
Topics will include the distinction between the historia and ordo salutis, the resurrection structure of the ordo salutis, and the bearing of Christ’s own death and resurrection on those united to Him by faith. The course will also examine the context, nature, pattern and benefits of present personal union with Christ in historical, theological and exegetical perspective. Special attention will be given to exegetical concerns in an attempt to develop a theology of union with Christ that is sensitive to pneumatology and eschatology as the broader context in terms of which we situate the church’s union with Christ.
Summer term. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Tipton.
ST 932 The Westminster Standards
Purpose:
- To expost the theology of the Westminster Assembly by means of a study of the Westminster
  Confession of Faith
Topics covered include the origin, convening, and theology of the Westminster Assembly.
Spring term. Dr. Garner, Dr. Jue.

ST 944 The Philosophical Theology of Thomas Aquinas
Purpose:
- To begin to understand some of the basic elements of Thomas’ philosophical theology
- To evaluate Thomas’ philosophical theological view of knowledge and cognition
- To critically assess Thomas in light of historic, Reformed orthodoxy
- To appreciate those elements in Thomas’ philosophical theology that have their basis in Scripture
Topics covered will include, primarily, the doctrine of God, but will also include Thomas’ view of knowledge, the metaphysics of the Incarnation, and the doctrine of providence and suffering.
Fall semester. (Not offered in 2016-2017.) Dr. Oliphint.

ST 972 Calvin’s Doctrine of the Holy Spirit
Purpose:
- To research Calvin’s teaching on the person and work of the Spirit, with attention to his expositions in the Institutes, Commentaries, and Treatises
Seminar presentation required.
Winter term. Dr. Garcia.

ST 990 Reformed Ecclesiology
Purpose:
- To familiarize students with the theological foundations, principles and practices that embody the Reformed tradition’s understanding of the doctrine of the church through its contributions in biblical, systematic and historical theology, by acquainting the student with a variety of the best expressions of ecclesiology in the wider Reformed family
- To consider the relationship between the church and the state, the world, and the kingdom of God
- To provide the student with resources to answer the ancient and modern challenges of sacramental, ecumenical, consumeristic and postmodern views of the church Winter term. Dr. Troxel.

11. Tuition and Financial Information

Tuition Policy and Guidelines

Payment Deadlines
A student’s registration is fully finalized upon payment of tuition. Students who are not able to pay tuition and fees by the last day of the add/drop period will be withdrawn from the Seminary, unless satisfactory arrangements for payment have been made with the Finance Office.

Installment Payment Plans
Students who are enrolled for at least seven credit hours per semester may request an installment payment plan for that semester's tuition charges, subject to the following limitations:

- Room charges and student fees are not eligible for installment payments and must be paid in full at the beginning of the semester.
- If approved, a payment of a minimum of 50% of the tuition is to be paid by the add/drop deadline and the execution of a promissory note confirming the student's financial obligations.
- Installment payments are available for the fall and spring semesters only.
- International Students – consistent with the terms of their student visas and their underlying affidavits of support, international students (on F1 or J1 visa status) are not eligible to pay their tuition in installment.
- All students whose only courses are Distance Education, Independent Studies or courses through the Institute of Theological Studies are not eligible for Installment plans and must provide payment information at time of registration for the course.

Government Loans
If using this option to pay tuition, please note that the loan must be approved before the first day of the semester or term. Direct and Graduate PLUS loans are approved in the form of a letter from the Financial Aid Office. Those students who have applied for a government loan and have not received written approval before the first day of the semester or term will be required to pay their tuition and fees in full or to pay their tuition via an installment payment plan according to the terms outlined above. For more information see Government Loans.

Westminster Scholarships
Students who have been awarded a Westminster scholarship will see their grant and scholarship amounts shown as “anticipated aid” on their account. If a student loses scholarship eligibility during the semester for any reason, the balance owed for tuition and fees will be calculated and payable upon receipt of statement.

Outstanding Financial Obligations
Students are strongly encouraged to abide by the terms of their promissory notes. A financial hold shall be placed on the record of any student with a payment to the Seminary outstanding after the due dates contained in the promissory note, or if the student has any other unpaid financial obligations to the Seminary (including the library). That student shall not be permitted to register for a subsequent semester, to receive grade reports, to have transcripts sent, or to receive a diploma.
If the account balance has not been paid in full by the conclusion of the semester/term, the student will be withdrawn from his or her program and will not be allowed to be reinstated until all outstanding payments have been made.

Refunds

A student is responsible for payment of all registered courses whether the course was attended or not. A student may drop or withdraw from one or more courses via Self-Service or by submitting the drop/withdrawal form through the Registrar’s office. A prorated refund will be calculated based on the time lapsed, from the first day of the semester to the date the course was dropped or withdrawn. If an individual is suspended from the Seminary, no refund will be given.

For Dropped or Withdrawn Courses in a Semester
The refund amount is calculated on the number of calendar days in the semester beginning with the first day of the semester and ending with the last day of exams. Students who drop/withdraw from a course on or before 60% of the semester has been completed will receive a prorated refund. At 61% of the semester no refunds will be issued.

For Dropped or Withdrawn Courses in a Term
The prorated refunds for shorter academic periods will be calculated by dividing the total number of days in the course into the number of days remaining in the course as of the last recorded day of attendance by the student. However, no refund will be allowed after 60% of the course has transpired.

Leave of Absence
A refund will not be given if the student’s leave of absence is 60 days or less and is the only leave of absence taken in a twelve-month period.

Doctor of Ministry Program
Since tuition payment is not based on the number of modules or credits taken in a given year, refunds are not given if a student drops or withdraws from a module. Refunds may be given if a student withdraws from the D.Min. program. These refunds are based on the year in the D.Min. program as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year in program</th>
<th>Withdrawal Deadline</th>

<tbody>
<tr>

<td>By end of day 1, first summer module</td>
<td>100%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>After day 1, first summer module</td>
<td>0%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Room Rent
After the first day of any semester or term, a refund of room rent, less the non-refundable deposit, will be calculated on a prorated basis; room rent will be refunded only if the room is re-rented and there is no other vacancy in the dormitories. Refund will be made only for the period during which the room is re-rented.

Students with a Government loans
Please see Title IV Refund policy (in Chapter 12) or the Financial Aid office for more details regarding Changes in Eligibility, Direct Loan Refund Policy and Federal Calculation.
Appeals
Students who believe that individual circumstances warrant exceptions from the refund policy may appeal to the Vice President of Finance or the Chief Administrative Officer.
12. Financial Aid

The following list represents options to fund a Westminster education (apart from personal resources):

- Westminster-administered grants and scholarships
- Outside scholarship from churches and organizations
- Funds from family and friends
- VA and Service Member benefits
- Westminster-administered government loans
- Private (bank) educational loans

Grants and Scholarships - General Information

Westminster maintains a policy of holding the expense of theological education to a minimum for the student and encourages the student to meet this expense from his or her own resources. Charges for tuition and other fees reflect only a portion of the cost (approximately 50 percent) of providing this education. Nevertheless, in order that students might not be prevented from receiving a theological education for financial reasons, the Seminary endeavors to provide grants and scholarships for those whose circumstances require it. Whereas scholarships are provided by the generosity of donors, grants act as tuition assistance due to their unfunded nature. Grants and scholarships cover tuition costs only, unless otherwise indicated.

Application materials may be accessed on the WTS Financial Aid Portal. Forms and instructions may be found on the Financial Aid web pages. Although applications must be submitted online, other forms may be provided to the Financial Aid Office in paper or PDF format.

Awarding of Grants and Scholarships

Awards for the following academic year will be made either after the receipt of the FAFSA for the General and MDiv Ministry Grants, or for Special Grants and Named Scholarships no earlier than four to six weeks after the application deadline. New students applicants will be notified by letter and email whether or not they have been awarded a grant or scholarship. Returning applicants will be notified electronically (unless they have chosen not receive electronic communications). Recipients of all grants and scholarships will be required to accept the award on the WTS Financial Aid Portal by the date indicated on the award letter (and Portal) and, given the sensitive nature of grants and scholarship availability and funding, they will also be required to abide by an agreement of confidentiality. Before any funds are disbursed to them, grant and scholarship recipients are required to evidence that they are matriculated as students in an appropriate program of study. Grants and scholarships will only be applied to cover the cost of courses required for the degree program in which the financial aid recipient is enrolled.

Unless otherwise noted, the awarding of grants and scholarships is based on financial need. In determining a student’s need, items that will not be considered allowable expenses include: maternity costs, support of relatives other than the spouse and children of the applicant, school tuition, or other school expenses for spouse or other dependents of the applicant. For U.S. citizens and permanent residents, the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) results is considered when determining a student’s need. For some special grants and “named” scholarships, merit and academic standing are also under consideration. Students who are awarded a grant or scholarship and who have subsequently had tuition covered through other means will have their Westminster grant or scholarship removed or the awarded amount adjusted. Aid received by the Finance Office on behalf of a student, which is designated solely for non-tuition expenses, will not influence the amount of any grant or scholarship awarded by Westminster.
Except for rare cases, each recipient is awarded only one grant or scholarship, regardless of the number of grants or scholarships for which he or she applied. The grant or scholarship is awarded once a year for a one-year period only (except for “Spring Semester Only” awards, which are the General Masters and M.Div. Ministry grants). Students who have been awarded grants and scholarships for a given academic year must reapply for this financial aid each successive academic year they plan to be enrolled.

The academic year extends from the summer term beginning in June through the spring semester ending the following May. The summer term, which is comprised of three modules, is considered as a whole in terms of aid. The winter term (Module 1) and the spring semester (Module 2) are considered together as the spring semester. Any reference to the spring semester assumes that the winter term is included. Please note that most grants and scholarships are only awarded for the fall and spring semesters. In contrast, full tuition grants and scholarships will cover summer tuition, should the courses(s) be a part of the student’s degree program.

Application of Westminster Scholarships & External Aid

Westminster Grants, Scholarships and External Aid

Westminster grants and scholarships will be applied to the student’s account so long as the student remains within the eligibility requirements specified in their financial aid award letter. If a student has been awarded a need-based Westminster grant or scholarship and also has received external aid, the Westminster grant or scholarship will be applied to the student’s account last and any excess will not be refunded to the student. Under no circumstances will the Seminary payout Westminster grants or scholarships in excess of the student’s outstanding balance.

In the illustration below, assume that Westminster has awarded the student a $2,000 Westminster grant:

External Aid Designated for Non-Tuition purposes

If external aid is received for a particular student and is designated exclusively for a non-tuition expense such as books or living expenses, then the full amount of the aid will be given to the student and there will be no reduction of his/her Westminster scholarship (if applicable).

If a student wishes to appeal the reduction of WTS aid, they may submit an appeal letter to the Financial Aid office to be considered by the Scholarship Committee.
Outside Scholarships
Westminster periodically investigates scholarships offered by outside organizations. Applicable scholarships will be advertised via the Philadelphia campus Financial Aid bulletin board and/or on the Westminster website.

Grant and Scholarship Application Submission Deadlines

The deadlines listed below are for the following academic year unless otherwise indicated. Applications are considered submitted when all application materials have been received, the submission date being the date that the last application material is received. For new/incoming students, the submission date is the later of 1) receipt of all application materials or 2) full admittance to the seminary (for US/Canadian citizens/permanent residents) or provisional admittance (international, non-Canadians).

Type of Applicant | Type of Grant / Scholarship | Application Deadline
--- | --- | ---
U.S./Canadian citizens/permanent residents | All | April 15
   Exceptions:
   “Late Application”¹
   (new/incoming students admitted after March 1) | Church Partnership, General Masters, M.Div. Ministry | July 15
   “Spring semester only”²
   (for the following spring semester—returning students who missed the deadline and new/incoming students who missed the “Late” application deadline) | General Masters, M.Div. Ministry | October 31
International Students (non-Canadian) | All³ | March 1
Spouse Grant Students² | Spouse Grant | June 1
   Exception:
   “Spring semester only”²
   (for the following spring semester)
   (for new/incoming and returning students who missed the deadline) | October 31

¹ Awarding is subject to availability of remaining funds

² A student who submits an application by the deadline(s) but whose marriage occurs after the deadline(s) but before the start of the semester will be considered. If the marriage occurs during the Fall semester, the student will be considered for a “Spring semester only” award.

³ Certain Special Grants or “Named” scholarships may have different deadlines. (Please see the Financial Aid web pages).

Scholarships for Students Who Are United States or Canadian Citizens or Permanent Residents (U.S. and Canadian Students)

Types of Grants and Scholarships Available to U.S. and Canadian Students
- Regular Grants: M.Div. Ministry; General Masters
Basic Eligibility Requirements

- Citizenship or permanent resident status within the U.S. or Canada
- If applicable, non-defaulted status of government FFEL, Direct or Perkins loan(s)
- Full-time enrollment status (12 credits minimum for both Fall and Spring semesters; exception: Church Partnership Grant)
- Enrollment in the M.Div., M.A.R., or M.A.C. program
- Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) measured after attempting 24 credit hours or completion of two semesters (whichever comes first): Cumulative GPA, unless otherwise noted, must be greater than or equal to 2.5 (qualitative) and the credit completion rate greater than or equal to 75% (quantitative). If a student fails to maintain SAP, a probationary semester may be granted to permit the student to reestablish compliance with SAP requirements.

Other eligibility requirements that may apply are listed below in the section under the relevant grant or scholarship or on the Westminster website. If any eligibility requirement is not maintained, the student will lose his or her grant or scholarship.

Basic Application Materials that Must Be Submitted

- For U.S. citizens and permanent residents only: a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA, submit online). Note to tax-filers: The application will not be processed unless the student’s FAFSA indicates that a tax return was already completed and filed.
- 2015 Tax Return information: Electronically transfer to the FAFSA using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (preferred) or provide a Tax Transcript (available from www.irs.gov). For Canadian applicant please submit 2015 T4(s).
- Non-tax filers: complete the Non-Tax Filer Worksheet.
- Additional documents (such as essays or letters of reference) as required by the specific grant or scholarship for which the student is applying).

M.Div. Ministry Grant (U.S. and Canadian)

The M.Div. Ministry Grant is based on financial need and covers up to 50 percent of tuition on a fixed 12 credit course load for fall and spring semesters only for a maximum total award of 50 percent of tuition for 24 credits per academic year (for the 2015-2016 academic year, awards ranged from $2,130 to $5,940). This grant is awarded to a limited number of full-time M.Div. students who meet one of the following criteria:

1. “Under care” status, which is defined as “under the care of a NAPARC presbytery as a candidate for ordained ministry.”
2. “Mentored” status, defined as equivalent to under care (see OPC under care definition for clarification) in a reformed confessional church/denomination which is not listed among the NAPARC churches,* available to students who actively serve in such a church within a commutable distance to Westminster.

*Preference given to students from the following denominations: Reformed Episcopal, Reformed Baptist, and Sovereign Grace. For students who serve in an independent church, please provide the “articles or confession of faith(s)” and/or a “statement of faith” to which the church adheres (to be included in the mentor letter).
3. An American minority student (African American, Hispanic American, or American Indian or Alaska Native) being developed for church leadership.
4. A current or former Reformed University Fellowship (RUF) intern.

In addition to the basic application materials listed above, the Financial Aid Office must receive an “under care” (or equivalent) letter as follows:

1. For “under care” applicant: A formal, signed letter on official letterhead from the stated clerk of the student’s presbytery or classis official stating that the student has come “under care” as a candidate for ordained ministry (or will by the start of the semester, in which case the letter must be submitted by the start of the semester).

2. For “Mentored” applicant: A formal, signed letter on official letterhead from the applicant’s pastor or church governing body which has agreed to mentor the applicant in a way that is equivalent to an under care status. Please include, for review of eligibility, the "articles or confession of faith(s)" and/or a "statement of faith" to which the church adheres, if the church is not part of one of the denominations indicated. Provide a mentored letter each year application submitted.

3. For American minority applicant: A formal, signed letter on official letterhead from the applicant’s pastor stating that he or she is currently being developed/trained for church leadership (or will begin by the start of the semester, in which case this letter must be submitted by the start of the semester).

4. For RUF applicant: A signed letter from an RUF minister documenting the internship.

M.Div. Ministry Grant recipients who are “under care” (first criteria) will be required to take PT 221 and one of the following courses: PT 311, PT 332, PT 343, or PT 372.

Provisional Award Status

If the “under care” or equivalent letter is not submitted by the time awards are determined, an otherwise eligible student will be considered a Provisional M.Div. Ministry Grant recipient and awarded the equivalent of the General Masters Grant until such time as the letter is received or the start of the semester, whichever comes first. If the letter is received after the start of the fall semester, the student will be eligible to receive the M.Div. Ministry Grant in the spring semester only (if the letter is received after the start of the spring semester, the M.Div. ministry grant will not be awarded for the spring semester).

General Masters Grant (U.S. and Canadian)

The General Masters Grant, a need-based scholarship for the fall and spring semesters only, is available to full-time students who are not eligible for the M.Div. Ministry Grant. For the 2015-2016 academic year, awards ranged between $1,050 and $2,360.

Grants and Scholarships for International Students (Other than Canadian Students)

Grants and Scholarships Available to International Students
- Regular Grant: International Masters
- “Named” Scholarships: Lynn A. and Carol E. Dolan; John and Karen Furry; James and Irene Huey, Walter and Helen Lee; Mephibosheth; Mainland China.

Basic Eligibility Requirements
- Full-time enrollment status (12 credits minimum for both Fall and Spring Semesters)
- Enrollment in the M.Div., M.A.R., or M.A.C., program
- Commitment to return to one’s home country within 60 days of completing work at the Seminary
● Satisfactory Academic Progress measured after attempting 24 credit hours or completion of two semesters (whichever comes first): cumulative GPA, unless otherwise noted, must be greater than or equal to 2.5 (qualitative) and credit completion rate greater than or equal to 75% (quantitative).

For other eligibility requirements that may apply, please see the section under the relevant grant or scholarship description paragraph in the catalog and on the Financial Aid web pages. If any eligibility requirement is not maintained, the student will lose his or her grant or scholarship. In addition, failure to return to one’s home country will result in a repayment plan of all grant and scholarship funds received.

Application Materials that Must be Submitted
● Westminster's Grant and Scholarship Application for International Students completed and submitted on the WTS Financial Aid Portal.
● Income & Expenses Form and Ministry Statement, which describes one’s call to ministry, which are available on the Portal and online.
● Additional documents (such as essays or letters of reference) required by any “Named” scholarship for which the student is applying.

International Masters Grant
The International Masters Grant is available to a limited number of full-time international students who are enrolled in the M.Div., M.A.R. and M.A.C. programs. The amount awarded is applied toward the cost of tuition and certain fees only; any grant funds not used for tuition and allowable fees will be forfeited.

Ideally, total financial support for international students should be provided on an equal basis: living expense support by the sending organization/church and tuition grant by Westminster. This arrangement allows for maximum accountability to the sending church or organization and efficient stewardship of both the sending church’s resources and those of the Seminary.

In 2015-2016, International Masters Grant awards ranged from $12,375 to $17,935. These are typical annual award amounts and may change from year to year.

Grants and Scholarships for Students in Advanced Degree Programs (Th.M., D.Min. & Ph.D.)

Grants and Scholarships Available to Th.M. Students
● “Named” Scholarships: Walter and Helen Lee

Grants and Scholarships Available to D.Min. Students ● Regular Grant: D.Min.

Regular D.Min. Grant
The D.Min. Grant is a merit-based full or partial tuition grant which is awarded by invitation only. No applications or petitions for this grant will be considered. A maximum of two D.Min. students may hold this grant at any given time (one for tuition and one continuation fee). D.Min. students awarded this grant are required to notify the Financial Aid Office of their intention to continue in the program each successive year that they are enrolled by submitting a Statement of Intent form. Deadline to submit this form is February 1 for the following academic year.

Types of Grants and Scholarships Available to Ph.D. Students
● Regular Grant: Ph.D. and Vosbigian Scholarship (as of 2016-17 new awards are unfunded with no stipend)

Regular Ph.D. Grant
The Ph.D. Grant and Vosbigian Scholarship are merit-based full tuition grants awarded each year to four entering Ph.D. students pursuing full-time study. (One PhD grant and one Vosbigian Scholarship are available to be awarded by each PhD field committee). These grants are awarded by invitation only. No applications or petitions for these awards will be considered. Ph.D. students awarded these grants are required to notify the Financial Aid Office of their intention to continue in the program each successive year that they are enrolled by submitting a Statement of Intent Form. The deadline to submit this form is February 1 for the following academic year.

Applying for a “Named” Scholarship
Ph.D. students who wish to apply for a “Named” Scholarship should refer to the “Applying for a Special Grant or ‘Named’ Scholarship” below and the Financial Aid website. However, basic application materials that must be submitted for a “Named” Scholarship are:

- For U.S. citizens and permanent residents only: a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA, submit online). Note to tax filers: The application will not be processed unless the student’s FAFSA indicates that a tax return was already completed and filed.
- 2015 Tax Return information from the IRS: Electronically transfer to the FAFSA using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (preferred) or provide a Tax Transcript (available from www.irs.gov). For Canadian applicant please submit 2015 T4(s).
- Non-tax filers: complete the Non-Tax Filer Worksheet.
- Additional documents (such as essays or letters of reference) required by the “Named” scholarship for which the student is applying.

Spouse Grant
The Spouse Grant is need based and covers tuition for up to the number of credits that the “full-time student” (as defined below) is taking in a given semester or term. Grant funds awarded must be applied only to classes necessary for the program in which the spouse is enrolled. Students with less need may be awarded a 50% matching grant.

Basic Eligibility Requirements
- Spouse of a full-time M.Div. student (“full-time student”)
- If applicable, non-defaulted status of government FFEL, Direct or Perkins loan(s)
- Admitted and enrolled in the M.Div., M.A.R., M.A.C., or Certificate Program
- Satisfactory Academic Progress measured after attempting 24 credit hours or completion of two semesters and at least 12 credit hours (whichever comes first): Cumulative GPA greater than or equal to 2.5 (qualitative) and a credit completion rate greater than or equal to 75% (quantitative)

Exception to the First Requirement
Spouses of full-time students in other non-Ph.D., D.Min., and Th.M. programs of study may also apply for this scholarship, but preference will be given to spouses of M.Div. students.

Application Materials that Must Be Submitted
- For U.S. citizens and permanent residents only: a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA, submit online). Note to Tax filers: The application will not be processed unless the student’s FAFSA indicates that a tax return was already completed
- 2015 Tax Return information from the IRS: Electronically transfer to the FAFSA using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (preferred) or provide a Tax Transcript (available from www.irs.gov). For Canadian applicant please submit 2015 T4(s).
Non-tax filers: complete the Non-Tax Filer Worksheet

Proof of Marriage (e.g., copy of Marriage certificate, Joint Tax Return or Affidavit)

Special Grants and "Named" Scholarships

Westminster administers several Special Grants and “Named” Scholarships which have specific eligibility criteria. Although “Named” Scholarships are funded through the generosity of friends of the Seminary, Special Grants act as tuition assistance due to their unfunded nature. These grants and scholarships are awarded based on recommendations from the Scholarship Committee and are for tuition only, unless otherwise noted. Specific criteria, additional submission requirements and availability of these special awards for the 2015-2016 academic year are posted on the Seminary’s financial aid website.

Applying for a Special Grant or “Named” Scholarship
Students should follow the instructions under the appropriate U.S. and Canadian or International Students category and consult the particular webpage (linked below) for Grants and Scholarships with specific requirements.

List of Special Grants
The Church Partnership Grant, a merit-based grant established by Westminster, is for part-time as well as full-time U.S. and Canadian students in the M.Div., M.A.R. and M.A.C. programs who receive financial support from their home church or denominational organization and who may not be eligible for other Westminster grants and scholarships. Westminster matches the church’s or denominational organization’s support for fall and spring semesters only, up to a maximum of 33% of tuition with a limit of 15 credits in a given semester.

The Leadership Development Grant is a full tuition grant established by Westminster to provide seminary training for promising new students who have 1) demonstrated leadership in an urban church from a historically non-reformed tradition, 2) are supportive of the reformed faith, and 3) who intend to pursue full-time pastoral ministry. Academic merit will be a weighted aspect of the award. A maximum of three students hold this award at any given time.

The Leaders of the Kingdom Grant is a 50% tuition grant established by Westminster to provide seminary training for promising new US or International students who have 1) demonstrated leadership ability, and 2) intend to utilize a Westminster degree to pursue leadership goals. Academic merit will be a weighted aspect of the award. Two awards will be made each year, a until a maximum of eight students hold this award.

The Recording Artists Grant was established by Westminster as a non-need based 50 percent grant for a fixed 12 credit course load for fall and spring semesters for 24 credits per academic year. It provides seminary training for entering full-time M.Div. students who are producers or artists of Christian records and albums, with preference given to recording artists. Interested students should contact the Admissions office at admissions@wts.edu.

The Reformed University Fellowship Intern (RUF) Award is a non-need based full tuition grant established by Westminster to provide seminary training for entering M.Div. and M.A.R. students who are current or former RUF interns and who intend to pursue RUF ministry upon graduation. Up to fifteen new grants are awarded annually. Interested students should contact the Admissions office at admissions@wts.edu.
List of “Named” Scholarships

The Lynn A. and Carol E. Dolan International Scholarship was established in 2007 to benefit international students in the M.Div. program who aspire to return to their country of origin to serve the church in some capacity, preferably as a pastor. This scholarship may be awarded by the scholarship committee as part of an International Masters grant or as an independent award.

The John and Karen Furry Scholarship for International students was established by Karen Furry Enlow in 2013 in loving memory of her late husband John, a gentle, humorous, thankful man and a powerfully converted 70’s hedonist, who was certain by his last days in a bout with leukemia that “all things work together for good to them that love God” (Rom. 8:28). This scholarship is intended to aid international students in the M.Div. program in their pursuit of scholarly preparation for ministry in their home countries. It may be awarded by the scholarship committee as part of an International Scholarship or as an independent award.

The Walter and Helen Lee Memorial Scholarship Fund allows for the annual presentation of one full or two half-tuition scholarships for a full time student(s) from Southeast Asia or China, regardless of their country of ministry following graduation. Preference is given to students pursuing a M.Div. degree or higher.

The James and Irene Huey Scholarship for International Students from Ireland generously provides up to $16,500 per year to cover tuition expenses for students from Northern Ireland or the Republic of Ireland, who are pursuing an M.Div. degree. Upon graduation they agree to return to Ireland to pursue ordained pastoral ministry in the Church of Ireland, Presbyterian or Methodist church, for a minimum period of five years. In addition they pledge to repay the scholarship, should they not minister in Ireland upon graduation from Westminster, an amount equal to the number of years of ministry remaining to reach five full years.

The Mainland China Scholarship (renewed annually) was established in 1999 by Holy Trinity Presbyterian Church (PCA), Tampa, to provide tuition funding for full-time international students from China in the M.Div. program of study. The amount of this award is up to $10,000. A maximum of two students hold this award at any given time.

Income from the Mephibosheth Endowed Scholarship Fund, established by the late Peter DeKorte of Hawthorne, New Jersey, is used to provide scholarships to students who have physical/sensory disabilities. Mr. DeKorte, a successful businessman who had a disability, established this scholarship fund out of gratitude to God for all he had done for him. He felt that he wanted to share some of the blessings he had received from our loving God. He named this the Mephibosheth Endowed Scholarship Fund since “he too had dined at the King’s table” (2 Samuel 9:13).

The Joseph F. Ryan Scholarship Fund has been established to benefit students in the M.Div. program who have demonstrated financial need and who intend to go into gospel ministry in an urban environment. It is a full tuition scholarship.

The purpose of the George D. Sinclair Scholarship is to propagate and defend, in its genuineness, simplicity, and fullness, that system of religious belief and practice which is set forth in the Confession of Faith and Catechisms of the Presbyterian Church of America in the form they possessed in 1936 and as stated in the charter granted to Westminster Theological Seminary on March 31, 1930, under an Act of the Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. This fund provides tuition scholarships for M.Div. students preparing for service in the Orthodox Presbyterian Church (OPC) or Presbyterian Church in America (PCA). This award is need-based and will be awarded by the Scholarship Committee for 50 percent of tuition for a fixed 12 credit course load for fall and spring semesters only for a maximum total award of 50% tuition for 24 credits per academic year tuition. The student must be full-time from the point when the scholarship begins, have a GPA of at least 3.0, and maintain that GPA throughout the student’s career. Approximately nine awards are made annually. Receipt of a Sinclair Scholarship will supersede the M.Div. Ministry Grant award. In addition to the basic application requirements for U.S. and Canadian students, an applicant must 1) sign a statement of subscription to the Westminster Standards, using the same pledge that is required of voting faculty members of the Seminary, and re-subscribe annually as long as the applicant receives this award (copies of the Westminster Standards are available from the Admissions Office. A Statement of Subscription form is available on the Westminster website or from the Financial Aid Office); 2) Provide evidence of “under care” status in a PCA or OPC presbytery, generally in the form of a letter from the stated clerk of presbytery.

The George D. Sinclair Scholar Award is a competitive non-need based award made to an applicant to the M.Div. program at Westminster who commits to seek ordination in the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) or the Orthodox Presbyterian Church (OPC). The initial award is for $10,000 for the first year of tuition expenses. Upon successfully coming under care of a PCA or OPC presbytery, the recipient of the award will qualify to apply for a George Sinclair Scholarship, or Westminster’s M.Div. Ministry Grant. Requirements to qualify for the award are: 1) application to the M.Div. program; 2) College GPA of 3.5 or higher; 3) two letters of reference from a PCA or OPC ruling or teaching elder; 4) essay on hopes for ministry in the church as a pastor, teacher, missionary, or evangelist in the PCA or OPC (2 pages, double-spaced); 5) signed statement of subscription to the Westminster Standards, using the same pledge that is required of voting faculty members of the Seminary. (A Statement of Subscription form is available on the Westminster website or from the Financial Aid Office).

The Westminster Seminary Patricia Comber Scholarship was established in 2012 as a memorial to Patty Comber, who faithfully served women students at Westminster for many years. One scholarship will be awarded by the scholarship committee to a female student beyond her first year who maintains a minimum GPA of 3.0.

Scholarship Funds Listing

The following scholarship funds contribute to the General Masters grant fund, which is awarded under the purview of the Scholarship Committee:

- The Westminster Alumni Association (WAA) Scholarship Fund, established in 2008 by the participating members of the Westminster Alumni Association
- The Edmund Clowney Memorial Fund, established in 2005 by the family and friends of Dr. Clowney
- The Carrie E. Cruikshank Memorial Fund, in memory of Mrs. Frank Cruikshank of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
- The John J. DeWaard Memorial Fund, in memory of the Rev. John J. DeWaard of Rochester, New York, Vice President of the Board of Trustees of the Seminary from 1947 until his death in 1959
- The William Dixon Gray Scholarship, established by Ruth Anna Gray
- The Kim, Se Ung Scholarship Fund, established by the donor to assist needy students
- The J. William and Gezina Kingma Scholarship Fund
- The Charles Bell McMullen Scholarship, established by Mrs. Catherine Craig and sons, Samuel and Bryce
- The Lillian W. Peace Scholarship Fund, in memory of Lillian W. Peace of Miami, Florida
- The W. D. Reid Memorial Fund, in memory of the Rev. W. D. Reid of Montreal, Canada, providing annually one hundred dollars to assist a needy student, with preference given to Canadians
- The Margaret M. Stuart Memorial Fund, in memory of Margaret M. Stuart of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
- The Rev. George Leslie Van Alen Memorial Fund, in memory of the Rev. George Leslie Van Alen of Swarthmore, Pennsylvania, for the award of a scholarship to a worthy, mentally industrious, Orthodox Presbyterian student for the ministry
- The Robert L. and Lyda H. Wade Memorial Scholarship Fund, in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Wade of Tucson, Arizona
- The Fred and Marian Wheeler Scholarship Fund. Primary consideration will be given to students who come to the Seminary as a result of the ministry of Prison Fellowship, Inc.

Fellowships

Applicants seeking Fellowship Awards for advanced study at Westminster (or other institutions as indicated in some awards) must submit a formal admission application for the program they expect to pursue, in accordance with details for application described elsewhere in this catalog. All awards will be announced annually at commencement and applicants will be notified after this date.

Letters of application for the Jones, Montgomery, Stonehouse, Weersing, and Young Funds and Fellowships should be received by the Academic Affairs Office by March 31 preceding the academic year for which the award is sought. The application letter should include the program of study, current status, and reason for seeking this award. These awards range between $300 and $1000 and are subject to change.

Recipients of these fellowships will be required to provide evidence that they are matriculated as students in an appropriate program of study before funds will be disbursed to them.

The Edwin L. Jones Graduate Fellowship Fund was established to provide opportunities for students from Westminster to pursue advanced study at Westminster or elsewhere in the United States or abroad.

The James H. Montgomery Scholarship Fund was established for the purpose of awarding scholarships to students in the M.Div. program at Westminster or for advanced study at Westminster for applicants who hold the degree of M.Div. from Westminster or its academic equivalent from other institutions.

The Ned B. Stonehouse Memorial Fund has been established by the Board of Trustees for the purpose of awarding fellowships for advanced study in the field of New Testament. It is open to students and alumni of Westminster.

The Weersing Scholarship Fund was established by the Rev. Jacob J. Weersing of Ripon, California for the purpose of awarding a scholarship for advanced study. Preference will be given to graduates of Calvin Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids, Michigan, who intend to enter the ministry of the Christian Reformed Church of North America.

The Edward J. Young Memorial Fund has been established by the Board of Trustees for the purpose of awarding fellowships for advanced study or research in the field of Old Testament or other biblical studies at Westminster.
Prizes

Awards for papers, which are judged on a competitive basis, are announced annually at commencement. Topics for these papers are communicated to students via Brute Facts and posted on campus bulletin boards. To be considered for a prize (except for the Leslie W. Sloat Prize in Greek Exegesis), papers should be submitted via email to the Academic Affairs Office by April 15.

The Greene Prize in Apologetics

A prize given in memory of the Reverend Professor William Brenton Greene, Jr., D.D., of Princeton Theological Seminary, is awarded annually in the amount of $900 to a student in the Master of Arts in Religion or Master of Divinity program who has completed at least one year of seminary study. The prize is awarded for a paper on a subject in the area of Apologetics, as selected annually by the faculty.

The Thomas E. Welmers Memorial Prize in the Biblical Languages and Exegesis

A prize, given in memory of the Reverend Professor Thomas E. Welmers, D.D., former member of the Board of Trustees of Westminster, is awarded annually in the amount of $500 to a student in the Master of Arts in Religion or Master of Divinity program who has completed at least one year of seminary study. The prize is awarded for a paper on a subject of a grammatico-exegetical nature dealing with a Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek passage from the Scriptures, as selected annually by the faculty.

The Leslie W. Sloat Prize in Greek Exegesis

A prize given in memory of the Reverend Leslie W. Sloat, is awarded annually in the amount of $200 for the best exegetical paper submitted for the NT 211 Gospels course.

The Edgar Creative Writing Prize

The Center for Theological Writing (CTW) sponsors the annual Edgar Creative Writing Competition in recognition of Dr. William Edgar's emphasis, in his teaching and ministry, on creativity and beauty in literature and the arts as glorifying and revelatory of God. The competition is designed to promote artful, creative, non-academic writing of various kinds: essay, poetry, short story, drama, etc. A prize is awarded annually in the amount of $100.

Veterans and Service Member Benefits

Westminster participates in the GI Bill Benefits, GoArmyEd Tuition Assistance, other active duty personnel and AmeriCorps programs. Students who are veterans should refer to the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs website for eligibility requirements. To receive benefit payments, eligible veterans should contact Westminster’s Certifying Official in the Financial Aid Office. Active Duty and Army Reservists seeking tuition assistance should check the GoArmyEd website for application information. Helpful information for veterans and servicemembers considering attending Westminster including degree program details, costs associated with attending, student success and borrowing may be gleaned on the “Information for Veterans and Service Members” section of the website.

Government Loans

The Seminary is approved to participate in the Federal Direct Student Loan Program (FDSLP), which is part of the Federal Title IV program for the administration of:
The direct loan program is funded and insured by the federal government. The Seminary is also approved to participate in the Canada Student Loans Program. This program provides federally insured loans to students via private banks and is administered by the various Canadian provinces.

The Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan (FSUL) is not need-based and currently has an interest rate of 5.84% and a 1.068% loan fee (the interest rate for the 2016-17 academic year will be set late in the spring of 2016 and is determined from the sum of the 10-Year Treasury Note Index plus an add-on of 3.60%). It is available to students who may request up to the smaller of $20,500 or the Cost of Attendance (COA), which is determined by the sum of living expenses, tuition, fees (student and loan), and books. The interest due on an unsubsidized loan is paid by the student.

The Graduate PLUS Loan is not need-based and currently has an interest rate of 6.84%, which is paid by the student, and a 4.272% loan fee (the interest rate for the 2016-17 academic year will be set late in the spring of 2016 and is determined from the sum of the 10-Year Treasury Note Index plus an add-on of 4.60%). It is available to students with good credit history who want to borrow funds in excess of their total unsubsidized loan eligibility. The combined total of unsubsidized and GradPLUS loans plus other financial aid per academic year cannot exceed the student’s COA. For further information on this loan, please contact the Financial Aid Office.

Recommended Loan Limits: Current and prospective students considering loans to finance their Westminster education are advised not to exceed a total student loan (combined undergraduate and graduate) indebtedness in excess of $26,000 for an M.Div. or M.A.R. degree and $20,000 for other Master’s degrees. Students requesting loans which will result in them exceeding a total loan debt level of $26,000 for an M.Div. or M.A.R. degrees or $20,000 for other Masters or Th.M. degrees will be emailed a “Notice of Student Debt Management” about loan repayment or be required to meet with the Financial Aid Officer for debt counseling. To determine repayment amounts see "preparing to take out a loan".

Academic Year Definition
Westminster’s academic year is defined as a minimum of two Periods of Enrollment (POEs), comprised of the fall and winter/spring semesters—both typically 15 weeks in duration—for a total minimum of 30 weeks. During the academic year so defined, a full-time student is expected to complete a minimum of 24 credits. If for any reason the academic year is less than 30 weeks and the Seminary can show good cause for the reduction, the Seminary must file for a waiver from the Secretary of Education. In no case will the academic year be less than 28 weeks in duration. The academic year can also include other POEs as defined below.

Periods of Enrollment
A student’s loan period, or Period of Enrollment (POE), is the term, semester, or academic year in which the student is registered. POE dates begin with the first day of classes (as specified in the Academic Calendar), which may or may not coincide with the first day of individual courses and end with the last day of the exam period. The minimum POE is a single module and the maximum POE is twelve months. If the POE begins with a term or semester comprised of modules (see POE Definitions below), the POE start date will be the first day of the term/semester, which coincides with the beginning of the first module; however, only the module(s) for which the student is registered and attending will be used for COA calculations.

POE Definitions Used for the Purposes of Determining Loan Limits:
Summer Term: 12 to 13 weeks (3 months) June through the end of August
- Module 1 (“June” Module): 4 weeks (1 month) during the month of June
- Module 2 (“July” Module): 4 weeks (1 month) during the month of July
• Module 3 ("August" Module): 4 weeks (1 month) during the month of August

Note: Modules 1-3 may not be considered individually for loan eligibility

Fall Semester: 15 weeks (4 months)

Spring Semester:
• Module 1 ("Winter" module): 4 weeks (1 month) during the month of January
• Module 2 ("Spring" module): 15 weeks (4 months)

Student Loan Eligibility
In order to be eligible for an FDSLP loan, a student must:
1. Be a U.S. citizen or eligible noncitizen
2. Be enrolled at least half-time (per the table below) in one of the following degree programs:
   M.Div., M.A.R., M.A.C., Th.M., or Ph.D. (D.Min. and Certificate students are not eligible to apply for federal loans.)
3. Hold a baccalaureate degree, or have completed with a passing grade classes totaling 72 undergraduate or graduate credits.
4. Maintain the following Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements:
   a. Qualitative: Cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA):
      Program Minimum Cumulative GPA
      M.Div., M.A.R., and M.A.C.: 1.80 after attempting 24 credit hours or completion of two semesters (whichever comes first).
      Th.M. - 3.00 (after completing 3 courses)
      Ph.D. - 3.00 (after completing 3 courses)
   b. Quantitative (M.Div., M.A.R., and M.A.C.): after attempting 24 credit hours or completion of two semesters (whichever comes first), a credit completion rate greater than or equal to 75%.

If the student does not meet the SAP standards due to the student having undergone undue hardship because of the death of a relative of the student, injury or illness of the student, or another special circumstance, a letter of appeal may be submitted to the Financial Aid Office requesting loan funds for an additional semester. If the appeal is approved, the student will be permitted to receive loan funds for one probationary semester in order to reestablish compliance with SAP requirements. If the student does not achieve SAP compliance after completing the probationary semester, he or she will be ineligible for future loan disbursements.

Loan Application Procedure
To apply for a student loan, students must submit the following loan application materials (available on the WTS Financial Aid Portal and online):

- Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA submit online). Note to tax-filers: An application will not be processed unless the student’s FAFSA indicates that the tax return was completed and filed.
- 2015 Tax Return information: Electronically transferred to the FAFSA using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (preferred) or provide a Tax Transcript (available from www.irs.gov).
- Non-tax filers: complete the Non-Tax Filer Worksheet.

Students borrowing through Westminster for the first time must also submit the following online (available through www.studentloans.gov):

- Master Promissory Note (MPN) for Direct Unsubsidized Loans or Master Promissory Note for Graduate PLUS loans
- Loan Entrance Counseling for graduate students

Students exceeding the recommended maximum loan limits will be counseled by the financial aid office in person, by phone or via email. It is critical that all application materials be completed and submitted as early as possible to ensure processing for timely disbursement. Please know that loans are originated beginning in June, after grant and scholarship awards have been made.

FDSLSP Loan Application Deadlines
If a student plans to pay for his or her tuition and fees with an FDSLSP loan, the loan must be originated before the enrollment date (first day of classes). Since, under normal circumstances, the loan process can take a minimum of three weeks after receipt of all application materials before the loan is originated, a student must submit all loan application materials according to the following deadline schedule:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Deadline</th>
<th>Semester/Term</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>May 30</td>
<td>Summer Term (June, July and August modules combined)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>June 30</td>
<td>Fall Semester</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>November 30</td>
<td>Spring Semester (Winter &amp; Spring modules combined)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The student is responsible for paying all tuition and fees when payment is due, regardless of the status of the student’s loan. Failure to submit completed loan application materials by the above deadline(s) may result in delayed enrollment or a student needing to submit payment through another means.

Loan Disbursement Dates
Unless a loan application is certified on a date past the halfway point of the POE, there must be multiple disbursements. The second disbursement should occur no sooner than after one-half of the POE has lapsed, unless the student's second semester within the POE begins earlier. In that situation the second disbursement date may be up to 30 days before the beginning of the student’s second semester. If the loan application is certified beyond the halfway point of the POE, a single disbursement may be requested. Standard disbursements for each semester may be found on the financial aid loan webpages.
Changes in Student Eligibility Status
If a student is currently receiving an FDSLP loan or has received a FFELP or FDSLP loan through Westminster in prior academic years, the following procedures apply:

1. If a student drops or withdraws from a course: this may result in a change in eligibility, in which case his or her loan funds may be adjusted because of the change in his or her cost of attendance.

2. If the student wishes to withdraw from all or some of his or her courses: the student should notify the Registrar’s Office and the Financial Aid Office in writing of the change in enrollment status.

3. If the student is considering taking a leave of absence (LOA): the student should first contact the Registrar’s Office and Financial Aid Office for guidance. In addition, the student should be aware of what constitutes an approved Title IV LOA:
   ● A LOA is limited to 180 days in any 12-month period.
   ● Upon return, the student must be able to complete coursework begun prior to the LOA. This means that the student must be able to return at the exact point in the program where the student interrupted his or her coursework or training.
   ● If a student fails to return from a LOA, the starting date of the grace period for repayment of loans is the start date of the LOA.

4. If the student graduates, ceases to be enrolled at least half-time, or withdraws completely: the student must complete the online Loan Exit Counseling (accessible through www.studentloans.gov). Deadlines to complete Loan Exit Counseling are as follows:
   ● For graduating student: the Monday of the last week of spring semester classes
   ● For withdrawing student: within two weeks of student’s withdrawal date
   ● For student enrolled less than half time: within two weeks of status as less than half time
   ● For student who withdraws without notifying the Registrar’s Office: the last date of recorded class attendance will be used as the withdrawal date.
   ● For Leave of Absence (LOA) student: within two weeks of student’s LOA date

Return of Title IV Funds
The Financial Aid Office will return loan proceeds for all FDSLP students who drop or withdraw from all courses or who take a leave of absence or are administratively withdrawn prior to completing 61 percent of a semester. More information can be found in the Student Aid Handbook at www.IFAP.ed.gov. Federal regulations are not related to the Seminary’s charge adjustments, but rather to the adjustments of funds received through FDSLP.

When FDSLP financial aid is returned, the student may owe a balance to Westminster.

If a student withdraws after the 60th percent point in the semester or term, no adjustments will be made to his or her FDSLP loan. He or she is considered to have earned 100 percent of this aid. Federal regulations require the Seminary to return unearned aid to the lender in the following order:

1. Unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan
2. Graduate PLUS Loan

Under the federal refund calculation regulations, all fees must be refunded to the Federal Title IV program, even those specified in the catalog as “non-refundable.” The following schedule is applicable to all terms:

Loan Disputes
Students and alumni who are seeking help with a Federal loan issue that they were not able to resolved with the appropriate loan servicer, may contact the Federal Student Aid Ombudsman Group:
https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/repay-loans/disputes/prepare/contact-ombudsman

Alternative Education Loans

Students who are ineligible for government loans may apply for educational loans provided by commercial banks. These loans have variable or fixed interest rates which are usually higher than those of government loans. Students wishing to apply for a bank student loan may compare interest rates, eligibility requirements and application details of loans offered by different banks on ELMSelect. Banks with which Westminster has worked in the past are listed on the ELMSelect site. Once the bank has processed and approved the loan application, the Financial Aid Office at Westminster will be contacted to certify the enrollment status of the loan applicant. Alternative loan disbursement dates will be aligned with those of government loans whenever possible.
